19 But the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things enter in, and choke the word, and it is vnfruitfull.

20 But they that haue receiued seed in good ground, are they that heare the word, and receiue it, and bring forth fruit, one come thirty, another sixty, and some an hundred.

21 Also hee sayd vnto them, Is the candle lighted to be put vnder a bushell, or vnder the cable, and not to bee put on a candlestick?

22 For there is nothing hid that shall not be opened: neither is there a secret, but that it shall come to light.

23 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare.

24 And he sayd vnto them, Take heed what yee heare. With what measure yee mete, it shall bee measured vnto you: and vnto you that heare, shall more bee giuen.

25 For vnto him that hath, shall it bee giuen, and from him that hath not, shall be taken away, euen that he hath.

26 Also he sayd, So is the kingdome of God, as if a man should cast seed in the ground, 27 And should sleep, and rise vp night and day, and the seed should spring and grow vp, he not knowing how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her selfe, first the blade, then the eares, after that, full come in the eares.

29 And assoone as the fruit sheweth it selfe, anon he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 He said moreover, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdome of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a graine of mustard seede, which when it is sown in the earth, is the least of all seedes that be in the earth:

32 But after that it is sown, it groweth vp, and is greatest of all herbes, and beareth great branches, so that the fowles of heauen may build vnder the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables hee preached the word vnto them, as they were able to heare it.

34 And without parables spake hee nothing vnto them, but hee expounded all things to his disciples apart.

35 Now the same day when euen was come, he said vnto them, Let vs passe ouer vnto the other side.

36 And they left the multitude, and tooke him as he was in the ship: and there were also with him other ships.

37 And there arose a great storme of wind and the waues dashed into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the sterne asleepe on a pillow: and they awoke him, and sayd to him, Waker, carest thou not that wee perishe?

39 And hee arose vp, and rebuked the wind, and said vnto the sea, Peace, and bee still. So the wind ceased, and it was a great calme.

40 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye so feareful? how is it that ye haue no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and sayd one to another, Who is this, that both the wind and sea obey him?

8 (For he laid vnto him, Come out of the man, thou vnclane spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he prayed him instantly, that he would not lend them away out of the countrey.

11 Now there was there in the mountaines a great heard of swine feeding.

12 And all the deuils besought him, saying, Send vs into the swine, that wee may enter into them.

13 And incontinently Iesus gaue them leaue. Then the vnclane spirits went out, and entred into the swine, and the herd ran headlong from the hie banke into the Sea, (and there were about two thousand swine) and they were drowned in the sea.

14 And the swineherds fledde, and told it in the citie, and in the countrey, and they came out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Iesus, and saw him that had bene possessed with the deuill, and had the Legion, sit both clothed and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it, told them what was done to him that was possessed with the deuill, and concerning the swine.

17 Then they began to pray him, that he would depart from their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had bene possessed with the deuill, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Iesus would not suffer him, but layd vnto him, Goe thy way home to thy friends, and shew them what great things the Lord hath done vnto thee, and how hee hath had compassion on thee.

20 So he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis, what great things Iesus had done vnto him: and all men did marueile.

21 And when Iesus was come ouer againe by shippe vnto the other side, a great multitude gathered to him, and hee was nere vnto the sea.

22 And behold there came one of the rulers of the Synagogue, whose name was Iairus: and when he saw him, he fell downe at his feet,

23 And besought him instantly, saying, My little daughter lieth at point of death: I pray thee that thou wouldest come and lay thine handes on her, that she may bee healed and liue.

24 Then he went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and thronged him.

25 (And there was a certaine woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelue yeeres,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and it auailed her nothing, but she became much worse.

27 When she had heard of Iesus, she came in the presse behind, and touched his garment.

28 For she sayd, If I may but touch his clothes, I shal be whole.

29 And straightway the course of her blood was dried vp, and she felt in her body, that she was healed of that plague.

30 And immediately when Iesus did know in himselfe the vertue that went out of him, hee turned him round about in the presse, and said, Who hath touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said vnto him, Thou seest the multitude throng thee, and layest thou, Who did touch me?

32 And hee looked round about, to see her that had done that.

33 And the woman feared and trembled: for she knew what was done in her, and shee came and fell down before him, and told him the whole truerh.

34 And he said to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole: goe in peace, and bee whole of thy plague.)

35 While he yet spake, there came from the same Ruler of the Synagogues house, certaine which said, Thy daughter is dead: why distealest thou the Master any further?

36 Assoone as Iesus heard that worde spoken, he laid vnto the ruler of the Synagogue, Be not afraid: onely beleue.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 So he came vnto the house of the ruler of the Synagogue, and saw the tumult, and them that wept, and wailed greatly.

39 And he went in, and sayd vnto them, Why make ye this trouble, and weepe? the child is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn: but he put them all out, and tooke the father, and the mother of the childe, and them that were with him, and entred in where the child lay,

41 And tooke the child by the hand, and said vnto her, Talitha cumi, which is by interpretation, Maiden, I say vnto thee, Arise.

42 And straightway the mayden arose and walked: for she was of the age of twelue yeeres: and they were astonished out of measure.

43 And he charged them straitly that no man should know of it, and commanded to giue her meat.

3 Is not this the Carpenter, Baries sonne, the brother of Iames and Ioses, and of Iuda and Simon: and are not his sisters here with vs? and they were offended in him.

4 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, A Prophet is not without honour, but in his owne country, and among his owne kintred, and in his owne house.

5 And hee could there doe no great workes, saue that hee layd his hands vpon a few sicke folke, and healed them.

6 And hee marvelled at their vbeliefe, and went about by the townes on euery side, teaching.

7 And he called the twelue, and began to send them two and two, and gaue them power ouer vncleane spirits,

8 And commaunded them, that they should take nothing for their iourney, saue a staffe onely: neither scrip, neither bread, neither money in their girdles,

9 But that they should bee shodde with sandals, and that they should not put on two coats.

10 And he said vnto them, Where soeuer yee shall enter into an house, there abide till ye depart thence.

11 And whosoever shall not receiue you, nor heare you, when yee depart thence, shake off the dust that is vnder your feet, for a witness vnto them. Verely I say vnto you, It shall bee easier for Sodom, or Gomorrah at the day of iudgement, then for that citie.

12 And they went out, and preached, that men should amend their liues.

13 And they cast out many deuils: and they annoynted many that were sicke, with oyle, and healed them.

14 Then King Herode heard of him, (for his name was spread abroad) and sayd, Iohn Baptist is risen againe from the dead, and therefore great workes are wrought by him.

15 Other sayd, It is Elias: and some sayd, It is a Prophet, or as one of the Prophets.

16 So when Herod heard it, he said, It is Iohn whom I beheaded, he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himselfe had sent forth, and had taken Iohn and bound him in prison for Herodias sake, which was his brother Philips wife, because he had married her.

18 For Iohn sayd vnto Herod, It is not lawfull for thee to haue thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrell against him, and would haue killed him, but he could not.

20 For Herod feared Iohn, knowing that he was a iust man and an holy, and reuerenced him, and when hee heard him, hee did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 But the time being conuenient, when Herod on his birthday made a banquet to his princes and capitaines, and chiefe estates of Galilee:

22 And the daughter of the same Herodias came in and daunced, and pleased Herod and them that sat at table together, the king sayd vnto the mayd, Aske of me what thou wilt, and I will giue it thee.

23 And hee swore vnto her, Whatsoeuer thou shalt aske of me, I will giue it thee, euen vnto the halfe of my kingdome.

24 So she went forth and sayd to her mother, What shall I aske? And her sayd, Iohn Baptists head.

25 Then she came in straightway with haste vnto the king, & asked, saying, I would that thou shouldest giue mee euen now in a charger the head of Iohn Baptist.

26 Then the king was very sorry: yet for his oaths sake, and for their sakes which sat at table with him, he would not refuse her.

27 And immediately the king sent the hangman, and gaue charge that his head should be brought. So he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gaue it to the mayd, and the mayd gaue it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard it, they came and tooke vp his body, and put it in a tombe.

30 And the Apostles gathered themselves together to Iesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said vnto them, Come ye apart into the wilderness, and rest a while: for they were many commers and goers, that they had no leasure to eat.

32 So they went by ship out of the way into a desert place.

33 But the people saw them when they departed, and many knew him, and came afoote thither out of all cities, and came thither before them, and assembled vnto him.

34 Then Iesus went out, and sawe a great multitude, and had compassion on them, because they were like sheepe, which had no shepheard: and hee began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now farre spent, his Disciples came vnto him, saying, This is a desert place, and now the day is farre passed.

36 Let them depart, that they may goe into the villages and townes about, and buy them bread: for they haue nothing to eat.

37 But hee answered and sayd vnto them, Giue yee them to eat. And they said vnto him, Shall wee goe and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread and giue them to eat?

38 Then hee said vnto them, How many loaves haue yee? goe and looke. And when they knew it, they said, Five, and two fishes.

2 The disciples ate with vnwashten hands. 8 The commandment of God is transgressed by mans traditions. 20 What defileth man. 24 Of the woman of Syrophonissa. 31 The healing of the dumbe. 37 The people praise Christ.

Then gathered vnto him the Pharisees, and certaine of the Scribes which came from Ierusalem.

2 And when they sawe some of his disciples ate meate with || common hands, they thought that the common handling of things defiled them, so that they made holines and religion to depend in hands washings.

(that is to say, vnwashten) they complained.

3 For the Pharisees and all the Jewes except they wash their hands oft, eate not, holding the tradition of the Elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eate not: and many other things (th. re. bee, which they haue taken vpon them to obserue, as the washing of cups, and pots, and of brasse vessels, and of tables.)

5 Then asked him the Pharisees and Scribes, Why walke not thy disciples according to the tradition of the Elders, but eat || meate with vnwashten hands?

6 Then he answered and said vnto them Surely * Clay hath prophesied well of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is farre away from me.

7 But they worship mee in vaine, teaching for doctrines the commandements of men.

8 For ye lay the commandment of God apart, and obserue the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups, and many other such like things ye doe.

9 And he sayd vnto them, Well, ye reiect the commandment of God, that ye may obserue your owne tradition.

10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Whosoever shall curse father and mother, let him die the death.

11 But yee say, If a man say to father or mother, Corban, that is, By the gift that is offered by me, thou mayest haue profit, he shall be free.

12 So yee suffer him no more to doe any thing for his father, or his mother.

13 Making the word of God of none authority, by your tradition which yee haue ordained: and ye doe many such like things.

14 Then he called the whole multitude vnto him, and said vnto them, Hearken you all vnto me, and vnderstand.

15 There is nothing without a man, that can defile him, when it entrech into him: but the thinges which procede out of him, are they which defile the man.

16 If any haue eares to heare, let him heare.

17 And when he came into a house away from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he sayd vnto them, What are yee without vnderstanding also? Doe yee not know that whatsoeuer thing from without entrech into a man cannot defile him.

19 Because it entrech not into his heart, but into the belley, and goeth out into the draught, which is the purging of all meates?

20 Then he said, That which commeth out of man, that defileth man.

21 For from within, even out of the heart of man procede euill thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, couetousnesse, wickednes, deceit, vnclaunnesse, || a wicked eye, backbiting, pride, foolishnes.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to dispute with him, seeking of him a signe from heauen, and tempting him.

12 Then hee sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, Why doerh this generation seeke a signe? verely I say vnto you, A signe shall not be giuen vnto this generation.

13 So he left them, and went into the ship againe, and departed to the other side.

14 (And they had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them but one loafe.)

15 And hee charged them, saying, Take heed, and beware of the leauen of the Pharisees, and of the leauen of Herod.

16 And they thought among themselves, saying, It is because we haue no bread.

17 And when Iesus knew it, hee sayd vnto them, Why reason you thus because ye haue no bread? perceiue ye not yet, neither vnderstand: haue ye your hearts yet hardened?

18 Haue ye eyes and see not? and haue ye eares and heare not? and doe ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loanes among five thousand, how many baskets full of broken meate tooke ye vp? they said vnto him, Twelue.

20 And when I brake seuen among foure thousand, how many baskets of the leauings of broken meate tooke ye vp? and they sayd, Seuen.

21 Then hee sayd vnto them, How is it that ye vnderstand not?

22 (And he came to Bethsaida, and they brought a blind man vnto him, and desired him to touch him.)

23 Then hee tooke the blind by the hand, and led him out of the towne, and spit in his eyes, and put his hands vpon him, and asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked vp, and said, I see men: for I see them walking like trees.

25 After that he put his hands againe vpon his eyes, and made him looke againe. And hee was restored to his sight, and saw euery man as farre off clarely.

26 And hee sent him home to his house, saying, Neither goe into the towne, nor tell it to any in the towne.

CHAP. IX.

1 The transfiguration. 7 Christ is to bee heard. 26 The dumbe spirit is cast out. 29 The force of prayer and fasting. 31 Of the death and resurrection of Christ. 33 The disputation who should be the greatest. 38 Not to hinder the course of the Gospel. 42 Offences are forbidden.

And hee said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death till they haue seene the^a kingdome of God come with power.

2 And sixe dayes after, Iesus tooke Peter, and James, and John, and brought them vp into an high mountaine out of the way alone, and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment did^b shine, and was very white as snow, so white as no fuller can make vpon the earth.

4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moses, and they were talking with Iesus.

5 Then Peter answered and said to Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs make also three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he knew not what hee said: for they were afraid.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them, and a voyce came out of the cloude, saying, This is my beloued Sonne: heare him.

8 And suddenly they looked round about, and saw no more any man saue Iesus onely with them.

9 And as they came downe from the mountaine, he charged them that they should tell no man what they had seene, saue when the Sonne of man were risen from the dead againe.

10 So they kept that matter to themselves, & demanded one of another, what the rising from the dead againe should meane.

11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes, that Elias must first come?

12 And hee answered and said vnto them, Elias verely shall first come, and restore all things: and as it is written of the Sonne of man, he must suffer many things, and bee set at naught.

13 But I say vnto you, that Elias is come, (and they haue done vnto him whatsoever they would) as it is written of him.

14 And when hee came to his disciples, hee saw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes disputing with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were amazed, and ranne to him, and saluted him.

16 Then hee asked the Scribes, What dispute you among your selues?

17 And one of the company answered, and sayd, Master, I haue brought my sonne vnto thee, which hath a dumbe spirit:

18 And wheresoeuer hee taketh him, hee^c teareth him, and hee someth, and gnasheth his teeth, and pincheth away: and I spake to thy disciples, that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 Then he answered him, and sayd, O faithlesse generation, how long now shall I bee with you! How long now shall I suffer you! bring him vnto me.

20 So they brought him vnto him: and as soone as the spirit saw him, hee tare him, and he fell downe on the ground, wallowing and foaming.

21 Then he asked his father, How long time is it since hee hath bene thus? And hee said, of a child.

22 And oft times hee casteth him into the fire, and into the water to destroy him: but if thou canst doe any thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Iesus said vnto him, If thou canst beleene it, all things are possible to him that beleueth.

24 And straightway the father of the child crying with teares, sayd, Lord, I beleene: helpe my vnbeleefe.

25 When Iesus saw that the people came running together, hee rebuked the vncleane spirit, saying vnto him, Thou dumbe & deafe spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

vnto them, The Sonne of man shall bee de-32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to aske him.

33 After he came to Capernaum: and when hee was in the house, hee asked them by the way?

34 And they held their peace: for by the way they reasoned among themselves, who should be the chiefest.

35 And hee sat downe, and called the 36 And he tooke a little childe, and set him

armes, and said vnto them,

37 Whosoener shall receiue one of such little children in my name, receiue me:
and whosoener receiue me, receiue me not, but him that sent me.

38 Then Iohn answered him saying, Master, wee saw one casting out devils by thy name, which followed not vs, and wee forbade him, because hee followeth vs not.

39 But Iesus said, Forbid him not:
for there is no man that can doe a miracle by my name, that can lightly speake euil of mee.

40 For whosoener is not against vs, is

41 And whosoener shall giue you a cup

2 Then the Pharisees came and asked him, if it were lawfull for a man to put away his wife, and rempted him.

3 And he answered, and sayd vnto them,
What did Moses command you?

4 And they sayd, Moses suffered to write a bill of diuorcement, and to put her away.

5 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, For the hardness of your heart hee

God made them male and female.

7 For this cause shall man leaue his fa-pleased, and sayde to them, Suffer the little children to come to me, and forbid them not:

for of such is the kingdome of God.

15 Verily I say vnto you, Whosoener way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may possesse eternall life?

18 Iesus said to him, Why callest thou mee good? there is none good but one, even God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, Thou shalt not commit adulterie. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steale. Thou shalt not beare false witness. Thou shalt hurt no man. Honour thy father and mother.

20 Then he answered, and said to him, Master, all these things haue I obserued from my youth.

21 And Iesus behelde him, and loued him, and said vnto him, One thing is lacking vnto thee. Goe and sell all that thou hast, and giue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, follow me, and take vp thy crosse.

22 But hee was sad at that saying, and went away sorrowfull: for hee had great possessions.

23 And Iesus looked round about, and said vnto his disciples, how hardly doe they that haue riches enter into the kingdome of God!

24 And his disciples were astonied at his words. But Iesus answered againe, and said vnto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdome of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go thorow the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 And they were much more astonied, saying with themselves, Who then can bee saved?

27 But Iesus looked vpon them, and said, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 Then Peter began to say vnto him Lord, we haue forsaken all and haue followed thee.

29 Iesus answered, and said, Verely, I say vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake and the Gospels,

30 But he shall receiue an hundred fold, now at this present: houses, and brethren and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands with persecutions, and in the world to come eternall life.

31 But many that are first shall be last, and the last first.

32 And they were in the way going vp to Ierusalem, and Iesus went before them, and they were amazed, and as they followed, they were afraid, and Iesus tooke them twelue againe, and began to tell them what things should come vnto him.

33 Saying, Behold, we goe vp to Ierusalem, and the Sonne of man shall be deliuered vnto the hie Priests, and to the Scribes, and they shall condemne him to death, and shall deliuer him to the Gentiles.

34 And they shall mocke him, & scourge him, and spit vpon him, and kill him: but the third day he shall rise againe.

35 Then James and John the sons of Zebedeus came vnto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest doe for vs that that we desire.

36 And he said vnto them, What would ye I should doe for you?

37 And they said vnto him, Grant vnto vs, that we may sit one at thy right hand, and the other at thy left hand in thy glory.

38 But Iesus said vnto them, Ye know not what ye aske. Can ye drink of the cup that I shall drinke of, and bee baptized with the baptisme that I shall bee baptized with?

39 And they said vnto him, We can. But Iesus said vnto them, Ye shall drinke indeed of the cup that I shall drinke of, and be baptized with the baptisme wherewith I shall be baptized:

40 But to sit at my right hand, and at my left, is not mine to giue, but it shall be giuen to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard that, they began to disdaigne at James and John.

42 But Iesus called them vnto him, and said to them, Pee know that they which delight to beare rule among the Gentiles, haue domination ouer them, and they that be great among them exercise authoritie ouer them.

43 But it shall not bee so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your seruant.

44 And whosoever will bee chiefe of you, shall be the seruant of all.

45 For euen the Sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, and to giue his life for the ranlome of many.

46 Then they came to Iericho: and as he went out of Iericho with his disciples and a great multitude, Bartimeus the son of Timeus, a blind man, sat by the way side begging, 47 And when he heard that it was Iesus of Nazaret, he began to cry and to say, Iesus the sonne of Dauid haue mercy on mee.

48 And many rebuked him, because hee should hold his peace: but he cryed much more, O Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on mee.

49 Then Iesus stood still, and commanded him to bee called: and they called the blind, saying vnto him, Bee of good comfort arise, he calleth thee.

50 So he threw away his cloke, and rose and came to Iesus.

51 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And the blinde said vnto him, Lord, that I may receiue sight.

52 Then Iesus said vnto him, Goe thy way: thy faith hath healed thee. And by and by he receiued his sight, and followed Iesus in the way.

a Christ sheweth by this poore entry the estate of his kingdom, and it is not like to the great magnificence of this world.

And when they came neere to Ierusalem, to Bethphage and Bethania vnto the mount of Oliues, hee sent forth two of his disciples,

2 And said vnto them, Goe your wayes into that towne that is ouer against you, and as soone as yee shall enter into it, yee shall finde a colt bound, wheron neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say vnto you, Why doe ye this? Say that the Lord hath neede of him, and straightway hee will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found a colt tyed by the doore without, in a place where two wayes mette, and they loosed him.

5 Then certaine of them that stood there, sayd vnto them, What doe yee loosing the colt?

6 And they said vnto them as Iesus had commanded them. So they let them goe.

7 And they brought the colt to Iesus, and cast their garments on him, and hee sate vpon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: other cut downe branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cryed, saying, Hosanna, Blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

10 Blessed bee the kingdome that cometh in the Name of the Lord of our father: Dauid: Hosanna, O thou which art in the highest heauens.

11 So Iesus entred into Ierusalem, and into the Temple: and when hee had looked about on all things, and now it was evening, he went forth vnto Bethania with the twelue.

12 And on the morrow when they were come out from Bethania, hee was hungry.

13 And seeing a figge tree as yette off, that had leaues, hee went to see if hee might finde any thing thereon: but when hee came vnto it, he found nothing but leaues: for the time of figs was not yet.

14 Then Iesus answered, and sayd to it, Neuer man eate fruite of thee hereafter while the world standeth: and his disciples heard it.

15 And they came to Ierusalem, and Iesus went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seates of them that sold doves.

16 Neither would he suffer that any man should carry a besell throu the Temple.

17 And hee taught, saying vnto them, Is it not written, Mine house shall bee called the house of prayer vnto all nations? But you haue made it a denne of thieues.

18 And the Scribes & the Elders heard it, and sought how to destroy him: for they feared him, because the whole multitude was astonished at his doctrine.

19 But when euen was come, Iesus went out of the citie.

20 And in the morning as they passed by, they saw the figge tree dreyd vp from the rootes.

21 Then Peter remembered, and said vnto him, Master, behold, the figge tree which thou cursedst, is withered.

22 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Haue faith in God.

23 For verely I say vnto you, that whosoener shall say vnto this mountaine, Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, and shall not wauer in his heart, but shall beleue that those things which he saith shall come to passe, whatsoener hee saith, shall bee done to him.

24 Therefore I say vnto you, Whatsoeuer yee desire when yee pray, beleue that yee shall haue it, and it shall be done vnto you.

25 But when yee shall stand and pray, forgive, if you haue any thing against any man, that your Father also which is in heauen, may forgive you your trespasses.

26 For if you will not forgive, your Father which is in heauen will not pardon you your trespasses.

27 Then they came againe to Ierusalem: and as hee walked in the Temple, there came to him the Elders, and the Scribes, and the Elders,

28 And said vnto him, By what authoritie doest thou these things? and who gaue thee this authoritie, that thou shouldest doe these things?

29 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, I will also aske of you a certaine thing, and answer yee me, and I will tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

30 The baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men? answer me.

31 And they thought wth themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then did ye not beleue him?

32 But if wee say, Of men, wee feare the people: for all men counted Iohn, that hee had bene a very Prophet.

33 Then they answered and said vnto Iesus, Wee cannot tell. And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Neither will I tel you by what authoritie I doe these things.

1 The vineyard is let out. 2 Obedience and tribute due to princes. 25 The resurrection of the dead. 28 The summe of the Law. 35 Christ the sonne of Dauid. 38 Hypocrites must bee eschewed. 41 The offering of the poore widow.

And he began to speake vnto them in parables. A certaine man planted a vineyard, and compassed it with an hedge, and digged a pit for the winnecress, and built a towne in it, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a strange countrey.

2 And at a time, hee sent to the husbandmen a seruant, that hee might receiue of the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

l They came of malice, and not to learne: therefore Christ thought them vnworthy to be taught.

3 But they tooke him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And againe, he sent vnto them another seruant, and at him they cast stones, and brake his head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And againe hee sent another, and him they flew, and many other, beating some, and killing some.

6 Per had hee one sonne, his deare beloved: him also hee sent the last vnto them, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

7 But the husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 So they tooke him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall then the Lord of the vineyard doe? Hee will come and destroy these husbandmen, and giue the vineyard to others.

10 Haue ye not read so much as this scripture? The stone which the builders did refuse, is made the head of the corner?

11 This was done of the Lord, and it is maruillous in our eyes.

12 Then they went about to take him, but they feared the people: for they perceiued that he spake that parable against them: therefore they left him, and went their way.

13 And they sent vnto him certaine of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, that they might take him in his talke.

14 And when they came, they sayd vnto him, Master, wee know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou considerest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God truly. Is it lawfull to giue tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Should wee giue it, or should wee not giue it? But hee knew their hypocrisie, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me? Bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 So they brought it, and hee said vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said vnto him, Cessars.

17 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Giue to Cesar the things that are Cessars, and to God, those that are Gods: and they maruilled at him.

18 Then came the Sadduces vnto him (which say there is no resurrection) and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue his wife, and leaue no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seed vnto his brother.

20 There were seuen brethren, & the first tooke a wife, and when he died, left no issue:

21 Then the second tooke her, and hee died, neither did hee yet leaue issue, and the third likewise.

22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.

23 In the resurrection then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall shee bee of them? for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Are ye not therefore deceiued, because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men marrie, nor wines are married, but are as the Angels which are in heauen.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue ye not read in the booke of Moses, how in the bush God spake vnto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. Ye are therefore greatly deceiued.

28 Then came one of the Scribes, that had heard them disputing together, and perceiuing that he had answered them well, he asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 Iesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, * heare Israel, the Lord our God is the onely Lord.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God, with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, & with all thy minde, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, that is, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. There is none other commandment greater then these.

32 Then the Scribe said vnto him, Well Master, thou hast said the trueth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he,

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is more then all burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 Then when Iesus saw that hee answered discretely, he sayd vnto him, Thou art not farre from the kingdome of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

35 And Iesus answered, and said, teaching in the Temple, How say the Scribes that Christ is the sonne of Dauid?

36 For Dauid himselfe said by the holy Ghost, * The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, til I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 Then Dauid himselfe calleth him Lord: by what meanes is he then his sonne? and much people heard him gladly.

38 Wherefore he said vnto them in his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes, which loue to goe in long robes, and loue salutations in the markets,

39 And the chiefe seates in the Synagogues, and the first roomes at feasts, 40 Which deuoure widowes houses, & euen vnder a colour of long prayers. These shall receiue the greater damnation.

41 And as Iesus sat ouer against the treasure, he beheld how the people cast money into the treasure, and many rich men cast in much.

42 And there came a certaine poore widow, and shee threw in two mites, which make a quadrin.

43 Then hee called vnto him his Disciples, and sayd vnto them, Verily I say vnto

¶ 1 The destruction of Ierusalem. 10 The Gospel shall be preached to all. 9 21 The persecution and false prophets which shall be before the coming of Christ, whose house is uncertaine. 33 Hee exhorteth euery one to watch.

Matth. 24. 1.
Lūke 21. 5.

Lūke 19. 43. 44.

And as he went out of the Temple, one of his disciples said vnto him, Master, see what stones and what buildings are here.

2 Then Iesus answered and said vnto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone vpon a stone, that shall not be thrown downe.

3 And as he sat on the mount of Olives, ouer against the Temple, Peter, and James and Iohn, and Andrew asked him secretly,

4 Tell vs when shall these things be, and what shall be the signe when all these things shall be fulfilled.

5 And Iesus answered them, and began to say, Take heed lest any man deceiue you.

6 For many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceiue many.

7 Furthermore, when ye shall heare of warres, and rumours of warres, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be: but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there shall be earthquakes in diuers quarters: & there shall be famine and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorowes.

9 But take heed to your selues: for they shall deliuer you vp to the Councils, & to the Synagogues: ye shall be beaten, and brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimoniall vnto them.

10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they leade you and deliuer you vp, take ye no thought afore, neither premeditate what ye shall say: but what-souer is giuen you at the same time, that speake: for it is not ye that speake, but the holy Ghost.

12 Yea, and the brother shall deliuer the brother to death, and the father the sonne, and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake: but whosoever shall indure vnto the end he shall be saved.

14 Whosoever when ye shall see the abomination of desolation (spoken of by Daniel the Prophet) standing where it ought not (let him that readeth consider it) then let them that be in Judea, flee into the mountains.

15 And let him that is vpon the house, not come downe into the house, neither enter therein, to fetch any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the field, not turne backe againe vnto the things which he left behynd him, to take his clothes.

17 Then two shall be to them that are with childe, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes.

18 Pray therefore that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For there shall be in those dayes such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, vnto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those dayes, no flesh should be saved: but for the elects sake, which he hath chosen he hath shortened those dayes.

21 Then if any man say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or Lo, he is there, beleeue it not.

22 For false Christs shall rise, and false prophets, and shall shew signes and wonders to deceiue, if it were possible, the very elect.

23 But take ye heede: beholde, I haue shewed you all things before.

24 Whosoever in those dayes, after that tribulation the Sonne shall wraoke dark, and the Moone shall not giue her light.

25 And the stars of heauen shall fall: and the powers which are in heauen shall shake.

26 And then shall they see the Sonne of man coming in the cloudes, with great power and glory.

27 And hee shall then send his Angels, and shall gather together his elect from the foure windes, and from the vtmost part of the earth, to the vtmost part of heauen.

28 Now learne a parable of the fig tree. When her bough is yet tender, and it bringeth forth leaues, ye know that Summer is neere.

29 So in like maner, when ye see these things come to passe, know that the kingdom of God is neere, euen at the doores.

30 Verily I say vnto you, that this generation shall not passe, till all these things be done.

31 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

32 But of that day & houre knoweth no man, no, nor the Angels which are in heauen, neither the Sonne himselte, saue the Father.

33 Take heede: watch, and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Sonne of man is as a man going into a strange countrey, & leaueh his house, and giueth authority to his seruantes, and to euery man his worke, and commandeth the porter to watch.

35 Watch therefore, (for ye know not when the Master of the house will come, at euen, or at midnight, at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning.)

36 Lest if hee come suddenly, hee should finde you sleeping.

37 And these things that I say vnto you, I say vnto all men, Watch.

might take him by craft, & put him to death.

2 But they said, Not in the feast day, lest there be any tumult among the people.

3 And when he was in Bethania, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at table, ther came a woman hauing a bore of oymn-ment of || spikenard very costly, and she brake
the bore, and powred it on his head.

4 Therefore some disdained among themselves, and said, To what end is this waste of oymntment?

5 For it might haue bene sold for more then three hundred pence, & been giue vnto the poore, and they grudged against her.

6 But Iesus said, Let her alone: why trouble ye her? shee hath wrought a good worke on me.

7 For ye haue the poore with you alwayes, and when ye will ye may doe them good, but me ye shall not haue alwayes.

8 Shee hath done that she could: she came aforsheand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Merely I say vnto you, Wherefoeuer this Gospele shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that shee hath done, shall be spoken of in remembrance of her.

10 Then Iudas Iscariot one of the twelue, went away vnto the hie Priests to betray him vnto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised that they would giue him money: therefore he sought how hee might conueniently betray him.

12 Now the first day of vncleanened bread, when they sacrificed the Pascheouer, his disciples said vnto him, Where wilt thou that we go, add prepare, that thou mayest eat the Pascheouer?

13 Then he sent forth two of his disciples and sayd vnto them, Goe ye into the city, and there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And whitherfoeuer he goeth in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Pascheouer sayth, Where is the lodging where I shall eate the Pascheouer with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you an vpper chamber which is large, trimmed and prepared:
there make it ready for vs.

16 So his disciples went forth, and came to the city, & found as he had sayd vnto them and made ready the Pascheouer.

17 And at euen he came with the twelue.

18 And as they sat at table and did eat, Iesus sayd, Merely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray mee, which eateth with mee.

19 Then they began to be sorrowfull, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? and another, Is it I?

20 And he answered, and said vnto them,
It is one of the twelue that eate with me in the platter.

21 Cruelly the Sonne of man goeth his way, as it is written of him: but woe be to that man, by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had been good for that man, if he had neuer bene borne.

22 And as they did eat, Iesus tooke the bread, and when he had giuen thankes, hee broke it and gaue it to them, and said, Take eate, this is my body.

23 Also he tooke the cup, and when he had giuen thankes, gaue it to them: and they al dranke of it.

24 And hee sayd vnto them, This is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many.

25 Merely I say vnto you, I will drinke no more of the fruit of the Vine, vntill that day that I drinke it new in the kingdome of God.

26 And when they had sung a Psalme, they went out to the mount of Olives.

27 Then Iesus said vnto them, All ye shall be offended by me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepheard, and the sheepe shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen I will goe into Galilee before you.

29 And Peter sayd vnto him, Although all men should be offended, yet would not I.

30 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Merely I say vnto thee, this day, euen in this night, before the cocke crow twice, thou shalt denie me thrise.

31 But he said more earnestly, If I should die with thee, I will not denie thee: likewise also said they all.

32 After, they came into a place named Gethsemane: then hee said to his disciples, Sit ye here till I haue prayed.

33 And hee tooke with him Peter, and James, and Iohn, & he began to bee afraid, and in great heavinesse,

34 And said vnto them, My soule is very heauie, euen vnto the death: carie heere and watch.

35 So hee went forward a little, and fell downe on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, that houre might passe from him.

36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible vnto thee: take away this cup from me: neuertheless, not that I will, but that thou wilt, be done.

37 Then he came & found them sleeping, and sayd to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou?
couldst not thou watch one houre?

38 Watch ye, and pray, that ye enter not into tentation: the spirit in deede is readie, but the flesh is weake.

39 And againe hee went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And hee returned, and found them asleepe againe: for their eyes were heauy: neither knew they what they should answer
him.

41 And hee came the third time, and said vnto them, Sleepe henceforth. and take your rest: it is enough: the houre is come:
behold, the Sonne of man is deliuered into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise vp: let vs goe: loe, he that betray-eth me, is at hand.

43 And immediatly while he yet spake, came Iudas that was one of the twelue, and with him a great multitude with swordes and staves from the hie Priests & Scribes, and Elders,

x Which signified that his hotte zeale began now to be abated.
y These two witnesses differed, in that the one reported that Christ said, he could destroy the Temple, (as Matthew writeth) and the other said that he heard him say, that he would doe it, as is here noted.

them a token, saying, Whomsoeuer I shall kisse, he it is: take him, and leade him away safely.
45 And as soone as he was come, he went straightway to him, and says, Walter, and kissed him.
46 Then they layd their hands on him, and tooke him.
47 And one of them that stood by drew out a sword, and smote a seruant of the hie Priests, and cut off his eare.
48 And Iesus answered and sayd vnto them, Peter be come out as vnto a thiefe with swords and with stauers to take me.
49 I was dayly with you teaching in the Temple, and ye tooke mee not: but this is done that the Scriptures should be fulfilled.
50 Then they all forsooke him and fled.
51 And there followed him a certaine young man, clothed in linnen vpon his bare body, and the yong men caught him.
52 But hee left his linnen cloth, and fled from them naked.
53 So they led Iesus away to the high Priest, and to him came all the hie Priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes.
54 And Peter followed him a farr off, euen into the hall of the high Priest, and sat with the seruants, and warmed himselfe at the fire.
55 And the high Priests and all the Counsell sought for witness against Iesus, to put him to death, but found none.
56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.
57 Then there arose certaine, and bare false witness against him, saying,
58 We heard him say, I will destroy this Temple made with hands, and within three dayes I will build another, made without hands.
59 But their witness yet agreed not together.
60 Then the hie Priest stood by amongst them, and asked Iesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these beare witness against thee?
61 But hee held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the hie Priest asked him, and sayd vnto him, Art thou Christ the Sonne of the Blessed?
62 And Iesus sayd, I am hee, and yee shall see the Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen.
63 Then the hie Priest rent his clothes, and said, What haue we any more neede of witnesses?
64 For he haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke ye? And they all condemned him to be worthy of death.
65 And some began to spit at him, and to couer his face, and to beate him with fistis, and to say vnto him, Prophesie. And the sergants smote him with their rods.

66 And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the maides of the high Priest.
67 And when shee saw Peter warming himselfe, shee looked on him, and said, Thou wast also with Iesus of Nazaret.
68 But hee denied it, saying, I knowe him not, neither wote I what thou sayest. Then he went out into the porch, and the cocke crew.
69 Then a maide saw him againe, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.
70 But hee denied it againe: and anon after they that stood by, sayd againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galilee, and thy speech is like.
71 And hee began to curse and sweare, saying, I knowe not this man of whom yee speake.
72 Then the second time the Cocke crew, and Peter remembered the word that Iesus had said vnto him, Before the cocke crow twice, thou shalt denie mee thrise, and weighing that with himselfe, he wept.
CHAP. XV.
Iesus is led to Pilate. 15 Hee is condemned, reuelled, and put to death, 46 and is buried by Joseph.
And anon in the dawning, the high Priests held a Councell with the Elders, and the Scribes, and the whole counsell, and bound Iesus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.
2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jewes? And hee answered, and said vnto him, Thou sayest it.
3 And the high Priests accused him of many things.
4 Therefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.
5 But Iesus answered no more at all, so that Pilate marvelled.
6 Now at the feast Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whomsoeuer they would desire.
7 Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bound with his fellows, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.
8 And the people cryed aloud, and began to desire that hee would doe as hee had euer done vnto them.
9 Then Pilate answered them, and sayd, Will yee that I let loose vnto you the King of the Jewes?
10 For he knew that the hie Priests had deliuered him of enuy.
11 But the high Priests had mooued the people to desire that he would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.
12 And Pilate answered, and sayd againe vnto them, What will ye then that I doe with him, whom yee call the King of the Jewes?
13 And they cryed againe, Crucifie him.
14 Then Pilate sayd vnto them, But what euill hath he done? And they cryed the more feruently, Crucifie him.

16 Then the souldiers led him away into the hall, which is the common hall, and called together the whole band,

17 And clad him with purple, and plated a crowne of thornes, and put it about his head,

18 And began to salute him, saying, Hail, King of the Jewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reede, and spat vpon him, and bowed the knees, and did him reuerence.

20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke the purple off him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 * And they compelled one that passed by called Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the country, and was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse.

22 * And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of dead mens skulls.

23 And they gaue him to drinke wine mingled with myrrhe: but he receiued it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots for them, what euer man should haue.

25 And it was the third houre when they crucified him.

26 And the title of his cause was written above, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * And he was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, * Hey, thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes,

30 Saue thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the high Priests mocking, said among themselves with the Scribes, * Hee saued other men, himselfe hee cannot saue.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel now come downe from the crosse, that wee may see, and beleue. * They also that were crucified with him, rentled him.

33 ¶ Now when the first houre was come, darkenesse arose ouer all the land vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loud voyce, saying, * Eli, Eli, lamabachthani? which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken mee?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, * Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone: let vs see if Elias will come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the ghost.

38 ¶ And the baile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Now when the Centurion, which stood ouer against him, saw that he thus crying gaue vp the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Sonne of God.

40 ¶ There were also women, which beheld a farre off, among whom was Marie Magdalene, & Marie (the mother of James the lesse, and of Ioses) and Salome, 41 Which also when hee was in Galile, followed him, and ministered vnto him, and many other women which came by with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 ¶ And now when night was come, (because it was the day of the preparation, that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an honourable Counsellour, which also looked for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

44 And Pilate maruelled if hee were already dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether hee had bene any while dead.

45 And when hee knew the truth of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Ioseph, 46 Who bought a linnen cloth, and tooke him downe, and wrapped him in the linnen cloth, and layed him in a tombe that was between out of a rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre.

47 And Marie Magdalene, and Marie Ioses, mother beheld where he should be laid.

3 And they sayd one to another, Who shall roll vs away the stone from the doore of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away (for it was a very great one.)

5 * So they went into the sepulchre, and saw a young man sitting at the right side clothed in a long white robe: and they were afraid.

6 But he said vnto them, Be not afraid: yee seeke Iesus of Nazaret, which hath bene crucified: he is risen: he is not here: behold the place where they put him.

7 But goe your way, and tell his disciples, and Peter, that he will goe before you into Galile, there shall ye see him, as he said vnto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre: for they trembled, and were amazed: neither sayd they any thing to any man: for they were afraid.

Inasmuch as many haue taken in hand to set forth the story of those things, whereof we are fully perswaded,

2 As they haue deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning saw them their selues, and were ministers of the word,

3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) as soone as I had searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point.

4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certaintie of those things whereof thou hast bene instructed.

5 In the time of Herod king of Iudea, there was a certaine Priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabet.

6 Both were iust before God, and walked in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord, without reprove.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabet was barren: and both were well stricken in age.

8 And it came to passe, as he executed the priests office before God, as his course came in order,

17 For hee shall goe before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just men, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 Then Zacharias said vnto the Angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angel answered, and said vnto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God, & am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shew thee these good tidings.

For the law which forbade marriage out of their owne tribe, was onely that the tribes should not be mixt & confounded, which could not bee in marrying with the Levites: for they had no portion assigned vnto them.

21 Now the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that hee carried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speake vnto them: then they perceiued that hee had seene a vision in the Temple: for he made signes vnto them, and remained dumbe.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes his wife Elizabeth conceived, & hid her selfe nine moneths, 33 And he shall reigne ouer the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdomes shall be none end.

34 Then sayde Mary vnto the Angel, How shall this bee, seeing I know not man?

35 And the Angel answered and said vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee and the power of the most High shall ouer-shadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be borne of thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.

36 And behold, thy cousin Elizabeth, she hath also conceived a sonne in her old age: and this is her sixt moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall nothing be impossible.

CHAP. II.

7 The birth and circumcision of Christ. 22 Hee was receiued into the Temple. 28 Simeon and Anna prophesie of him. 46 Hee was found among the doctors. 51 His obedience to father and mother.

And it came to passe in those dayes, that there came a commandement from Augustus Cesar, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (This first taxing was made when Cyrenus was gouernour of Syria.)

3 Therefore went all to be taxed, euery man to his owne citie.

4 And Joseph also went by from Galile out of a citie called Nazaret, into Iudea, vnto the citie of Dauid, which is called them up in their hearts, saying, What manner childe shall this be? and the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 Then his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied saying,

68 Blessed bee the Lord God of Israel, because he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised by the horne of saluation vnto vs, in the house of his seruant Dauid,

70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets, which were since the world began, saying,

71 That he would send vs deliverance from our enemies, and from the hands of all that hate vs,

72 That he would shew mercy towards our fathers, and remember his holy Covenant,

73 And the oath which hee sware to our father Abraham:

74 Which was, that he would grant vnto vs, that we bring deliuered out of the hands of our enemies, should serue him without feare

75 All the dayes of our life, in holiness and righteousness before him.

76 And thou, babe, shalt bee called the Prophet of the most High: for thou shalt goe before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes,

77 And to giue knowledge of saluation vnto his people, by the remission of their finnes,

78 Through the tender mercie of our God, whereby the day spring from an high, hath visited vs,

79 To giue light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, & to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the childe grew, & waxed strong in spirit, and was in the wilderness, till the day came, that hee should shew himselfe vnto Israel.

Beth-lehem, (because hee was of the house and lineage of Dauid.)

5 To be taxed with Mary that was giuen him to wife, which was with child.

6 And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished that shee should be deliuered.

7 And she brought forth her first begotten Sonne, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and layde him in a cratch, because there was no rounge for them in the Inn.

8 And there was in the same countrey shepherds abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night because of their flocke.

9 And loe, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and the glory of the Lord shone about them, and they were sore afraid.

10 Then the Angel said vnto them, Be not afraid: for behold, I bring you tidings of great joy, that shall be to all the people:

11 There is, that vnto you is borne this day in the citie of Dauid, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a signe to you, Ye shall finde the childe swaddled, and laid in a cratch.

13 And straightway there was with the Angel a multitude of heauenly souldiers, praising God, and saying,

14 Glory bee to God in the high heauens, and peace in earth, and towards men good will.

15 And it came to passe when the Angels were gone away from them into heauen, that the shepherds layd one to another, Let vs goe then vnto Beth-lehem, and see this thing that is come to passe, which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs.

16 So they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe layd in the cratch.

17 And when they had seene it, they published abroad the thing, which was tolde them of that childe.

18 And all that heard it, wondered at the things which were tolde them of the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all those sayings, and pondred them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praying God, for all that they had heard & seene, as it was spoken vnto them.

21 And when the eight dayes were accomplished, that they should circumsise the childe, his name was then called IESVS, which was named of the Angel, before hee was conceived in the wombe.

22 And when the dayes of her purification after the Law of Moles were accomplished, they brought him to Ierusalem, to present him to the Lord,

23 As it is written in the Law of the Lord, Every man childe that first openeth the wombe, shall be called holy to the Lord:

24 And to giue an oblation, as it is commanded in the Law of the Lord, a paire of turtle doves, or two yong pigeons.

25 And behold, there was a man in Ierusalem, whose name was Simeon: this man was iust, and feared God, and waited for the consolation of Israel, and the holy Ghost was vpon him.

in the company, went a dayes iourney and sought him among their kinsfolke, and acquaintance, 45 And when they found him not, they turned backe to Jerusalem, and sought him.
46 And it came to passe three dayes after that they found him in the Temple, sitting in the midst of the || doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.
47 And all that heard him, were astonied at his understanding, and answers.
48 So when they saw him, they were amased, and his mother said vnto him, Son,

CHAP. III.

The preaching, baptisme, and prisonment of John. 15 Hee is thought to bee Christ, 21 Christ is baptized: 23 His age and genealogie.

Now in the sixteenth yeere of the reigne of Tiberius Celsar, Pontius Pilate being gouernour of Iudea, and ^a Herode being Tetrarch of Galile, and his brother Philip Tetrarch of Iturea, and of the countrey of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the Tetrarch of Abilene,
2 ^b When Annas and Caiaphas were the ^c hye Priests the word of God came vnto John, the sonne of Zacharias, in the wil-dernesse.
3 ^d And hee came into all the coastes about Iordan, preaching the baptisme of repentance for the remission of sinnes, 4 As it is written in the booke of the sayings of Esaias the Prophet, which saith, ^e The voice of him that crieth in the wildernesse is, Prepare yee the way of the Lord:
make his pathes straight.
5 Every ^f valley shall be filled, and every mountaine, and hill shall be brought low, and crooked things shall be made straight, and the rough wayes shall be made smooth.
6 And || all flesh shall see the ^g saluation of God.
7 Then said hee to the people that were come out to be baptized of ot him, ^h || generations of vipers, who hath forwarned you able of these stones to raise vp children vnto Abraham.

9 Now also is the ⁱ axe layde vnto the root of the trees: therefore euery tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, shall be hewen downe, and cast into the fire.
10 || Then the people asked him, saying,
What shall we doe then?
11 And he answered, and said vnto them,
^j He that hath two coats, let him part with him that hath none: and he that hath meat, let him doe likewise.
12 Then came there ^k Publicanes also to bee baptized, and said vnto him, Master, what shall we doe?
13 And hee said vnto them, Require no

34 The sonne of Iacob, the sonne of Isaac, the sonne of Abraham, the sonne of Chari, the sonne of Nachor,

25 The sonne of Sarach, the sonne of Ragau, the sonne of Phalec, the sonne of Eber, the sonne of Sala,

36 The sonne of Cainan, the sonne of Arpharad, the sonne of Sem, the sonne of Noe, the sonne of Lamech, 37 The sonne of Mathusala, the sonne of Enoch, the sonne of Jared, the sonne of Methuselah, the sonne of Cainan.

38 The sonne of Enos, the sonne of Seth, the sonne of Adam, the sonne of God.

CHAP III.

1 Iesus led into the wilderness to bee tempted. 13 Hee overcommeth the deuill. 14 Hee goeth into Galile. 16 Preacheth at Nazareth, and Capernaum. 22 The Iewes despise him. 38 Iesus cometh into Peters house, and healeth his mother in law. 41 The deuill acknowledge Christ. 43 Hee preacheth thorough the cities.

And Iesus full of the holy Ghost returned from Iordan, and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness,

2 * And was there forty dayes tempted of the deuill, and in those dayes hee did eate nothing: but when they were ended, hee afterward was hungry.

3 Then the deuill said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It is written, * That man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euery word of God.

5 Then the deuill tooke him vp into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, in the twinkling of an eye.

6 And the deuill sayd vnto him, All this power will I giue thee, and the glory of those kingdomes: for that is deliuered to me: and to whomsoever I will, I giue it:

7 If thou therefore wilt worship mee, they shall be all thine.

8 But Iesus answered him, and said, Hence from mee, Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him alone shalt thou serue.

9 Then hee brought him to Ierusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the Temple, and said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence,

10 For it is written, * That he will giue his Angels charge ouer thee to keepe thee.

11 And with their hands they shall lift thee vp, lest at any time thou shouldst dash thy foote against a stone.

12 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, It is said, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

15 For he taught in their Synagogues, and was honoured of all men.

16 And hee came to Nazaret, where hee had been brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood vp to reade.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Iſayas: and when hee opened the booke, hee found the place, where it was written,

18 The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath anointed me, that I should preach the Gospel to the poore: hee hath sent mee that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliuerance to the captiues, and recouering of sight to the blinde, that I should set at liberty them that are bound,

19 And that I should preach the acceptable yeere of the Lord.

20 And hee closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sat downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then hee began to say vnto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all bare him witnesse, and wondered at the gracious words, which proceeded out of his mouth, and sayd, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then he said vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto mee this prouerbe, Physician, heale thy selfe: Whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

24 And hee said, Verely I say vnto you, No Prophet is accepted in his owne countrey.

25 But I tell you of a trueth, many widowes were in Israel in the dayes of Elias, when heauen was shut thre yeeres and sixe monethes, when great famine was throughout all the land.

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, save into Sarepta, a cite of Sidon, vnto a certaine widow.

27 Also, many lepers were in Israel, in the time of Elisha the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the citie, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereton their citie was built, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But hee passed through the mids of them, and went his way.

31 And came downe into Capernaum, a citie of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with authority.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an vncleane deuill, which cryed with a loud voyce, 34 Saying, What haue wee to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret: art thou come to destroy vs? I know who thou art, even the holy One of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselves, saying, What thing is this? for with authoritie and power he commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spread abroad throughout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 And he rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house, and Simons wifes mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

39 Then he stood over her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediately she arose, and ministered vnto them.

40 Now when the Sunne was downe, all they that had sicke folkes of diuers diseases brought them vnto him, and hee layd his handes on euery one of them, and healed them.

41 And deuils also came out of many, crying, and saying, Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: but hee rebuked them, and suffered them not to say that they knew him to be Christ.

42 And when it was day, hee departed, and went forth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him, that hee should not depart from them.

43 But hee said vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdome of God to other citie: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galile.

- 10 And ſo was alſo James and John the ſonnes of Zebedeus, which were compani-ous with Simon. Then Ieſus layd vnto Simon, Feare not: from henceforth thou ſhalt catch men.
- 11 And when they had brought the ſhips to land, they forſooke all, and followed him.
- 12 ¶ Now it came to paſſe, as he was in a certaine city, beholde, there was a man full of leproſie, and when hee ſawe Ieſus, hee fell on his face, and beſought him, ſaying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canſt make mee cleane.
- 13 So hee ſtretched forth his hand, and touched him, ſaying, I will hee thou cleane.
And immediately the leproſie departed from
him.
- 14 And he commanded him that he ſhould tell it no man: but goe, ſaith he, and ſhew thy ſelfe to the Priests, and offer for thy cleaniſing as Moſes hath commanded, for a witneſſe vnto them.
- 15 But ſo much more went there a ſame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.
- 16 But he kept himſelfe apart in the wilderneſſe, and prayed.
- 17 ¶ And it came to paſſe on a certaine day as hee was teaching, that the Pharisees and doctors of the Law ſate by, which were come out of euery towne of Galilee, and Judea, and Ieruſalem, and the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.
- 18 ¶ Then beholde, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a paliſie, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him.
- 19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in becauſe of the preſſe, they went vp on the houſe, and let him downe through the tiling bed and all, in the mids before Ieſus.
- 20 And when hee ſaw their faith, he ſaid
vnto him, Man, thy ſinnes are forgiven thee.
- 21 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees began to thinke, ſaying, Who is this that ſpeaketh blaſphemies? Who can forgive ſinnes, but God onely?
- 22 But when Ieſus perceiued their thoughtes, he answered, and ſaid vnto them,
What thinke ye in your hearts?
- 23 Whether is ealieſe to ſay, Thy ſinnes are forgiven thee, or to ſay, Riſe, and walke?
- 24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authoritie to forgive ſinnes in earth, (he ſaid vnto the ſicke of the paliſie) I ſay to thee, Ariſe: take vp thy bed, and goe to thine houſe.
- 25 And immediately hee roſe vp before
- them, and tooke vp his bed whereon hee lay, and departed to his owne houſe, praying
God.
- 26 And they were all amazed, and prayſed God, and were filled with feare, ſaying, Doubteſſe wee haue ſeene ſtrange things to day.
- 27 ¶ And after that he went forth and ſaw a Publicane named ¶ Leui, ſitting at the receit of Cuſtome, and ſaid vnto him, Follow me.
- 28 And hee left all, roſe vp, and followed
him.
- 29 Then Leui made him a great feaſt in his owne houſe, where there was a great company of Publicanes, and of other that ſate at table with them.
- 30 But they that were Scribes and Pha-riſes among them, murmured againſt his diſciples ſaying, Why eate ye, and drinke ye with Publicanes and ſinners?
- 31 Then Ieſus answered, and ſaid vnto them, They that are whole, neede not the Phyſician, but they that are ſicke.
- 32 ¶ I came not to call the righteous,
but ſinners to repentance.
- 33 ¶ Then they ſaid vnto him, Why doe
the diſciples of John faſt often, and pray, and the diſciples of the Pharisees alſo, but thine eate and drinke?
- 34 And he ſaid vnto them, Can ye make the children of the wedding chamber to faſt bridegroome ſhall be taken away from them:

then ſhall they faſt in thoſe daies.

they which were with him,

4 How hee went into the house of God, and tooke, and ate the Shewbread, & gaue also to them which were with him, which was not lawfull to eate, but for the * Priests onely?

5 And he said vnto them, The Sonne of man is Lord also of the Sabbath day.

6 ¶ It came to passe also on another Sabbath, that hee entred into the Synagogue and taught, and there was a man whose right hand was dried vp.

7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether hee would heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, and stand vp in the mids. And he arose and stood vp.

9 Then said Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, Whether is it lawfull on the Sabbath dayes to doe good, or to doe euill: to saue life, or to destroy it?

10 And hee beheld them all in compasse, and said vnto the man, stretch forth thine hand. And hee did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled full of madnesse and communed one with another, what they might doe to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, that hee went into a mountaine to pray, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called his disciples, and of them he chose twelue which also hee called Apostles.

14 (Simon whom hee named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip, and Barthelemew:

15 Matthew, and Thomas: James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon called zealous:

16 Judas James brother, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 Then hee came downe with them, and stood in a plaine place, with the company of his Disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea and Ierusalem, and from the Sea coast of Cyprus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted vp his eyes vpon his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye * poore: for yours is the kingdome of God.

20 * Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shal be satisfied. Blessed are ye that weepe now: for ye shal laugh.

22 * Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when they leperate you, and curse you, and put out your name as euill, for the Son of mans sake.

23 Reioyce ye in that day, and be glad: for behold, your reward is great in heauen: for after this maner their fathers did to the Prophets.

24 * But woe be to you that are rich: for ye haue receiued your consolation.

25 Woe be to you that are full: for ye shal hunger. Woe be to you that now laugh: for ye shal waille and weepe.

26 Woe be to you when all men speake well of you, for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ But I say vnto you which heare, Love your enemies: Doe well to them which hate you.

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which hurt you.

29 ¶ And vnto him that smiteth thee on the one cheeke, offer also the other: and him that taketh away thy cloke, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Giue to euery man that asketh of thee, and of him that taketh away thy goods, aske them not againe.

31 ¶ And as ye would that men should doe to you, so doe ye to them likewise.

32 * For if ye loue them which loue you, what thanke shall ye haue: for euen the sinners loue those that loue them.

33 And if ye doe good for them which doe good for you, what thanke shall ye haue: for euen the sinners doe the same.

34 ¶ And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receiue, what thanke shall ye haue: for euen the sinners lend to sinners, to receiue the like.

45 ¶ Therefore loue ye your enemies, & doe good and lend, looking for nothing againe, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of * the most High: for he is kind vnto the vnkind, and to the euill.

36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your Father also is mercifull.

37 ¶ Judge not, & ye shal not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shal not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven.

38 Giue, and it shall be giuen vnto you, a good measure, pressed downe, shaken together, & running ouer shall men giue into your bosom: for with what measure ye mete, with the same shall men mete to you againe.

39 And hee spake a parable vnto them, Can the blinde leade the blinde: shall not they both fall into the ditch?

40 ¶ The Disciple is not above his Master: but whosoever will be a perfect disciple, shall be as his master.

41 ¶ And why seekest thou a mote in thy brothers eye, and considerest not the beame that is in thine owne eye?

a It might bee that this captaine did lie with his garison in Capernaum, b In building them a Temple for their assemblies, he shewed his zeale towards the true seruice of God.

c The friends speake to Iesus in the captaines name.

d Or, command by a word onely that it so be.

e Hee commendeth this heathen captaine, because hee assurth himselfe vpon Christs word alone,

W hen * he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, hee entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certaine Centurions seruant was sicke and readie to die, which was deare vnto him.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, hee sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that hee would come and heale his seruant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying, that hee was worthy that he should doe this for him.

5 For hee loueth, sayd they, our nation, and he hath built vs a Synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when he was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter vnder my rooffe.

7 Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but say the word, and my seruant shall be whole.

8 For I likewise am a man set vnder authority, and haue vnder mee souldiers, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth, and to another, Come, and hee cometh: and to my seruant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, hee marvelled at him, and turned him and said to the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

10 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they found the seruant that was sicke, whole.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called Nain, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

12 Now when hee came neere to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, who was the only begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widow, and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, hee had compassion on her, and said vnto her, Weepe not.

14 And he went and touched the coffin, (and they that bare him, stood still) and hee sayd, Vng man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

15 And hee that was dead, sat vp, and began to speake, and hee deliuered him to his mother.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudra, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certaine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou hee that should come, or shall we wait for another?

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they sayd, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou hee that should come, or shall we wait for another?

21 And at that time hee cured many of their sicknesses and plagues, and of euill spirits, and vnto many blind men hee gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered and said vnto them, Goe your wayes and shew Iohn what things ye haue seene & heard: that the blind see, the halt goe, the lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise againe, and the poore receiue the Gospel.

23 And blessed is hee, that shall not bee offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, hee began to speake vnto the people of Iohn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the winde?

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously appareled, and lute delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, and greater then a Prophet.

27 This is hee of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are begotten of women: neuerthelesse, he that is the least in the kingdome of God, is greater then hee.

29 Then all the people that heard, and the Publicanes, justified God, being baptized with the Baptisme of Iohn.

32 They are like vnto children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, * We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not danced: wee haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

38 * And she stood at his feete behind him weeping, and began to wash his feete with teares, and did wipe them with the haire of her head, and kissed his feete, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bid him, saw it, he spake with himselfe, saying, If this man were a Prophet, he would surely haue knownen, who, and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him: for shee is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender, which had two debtors: the one ought five hundred pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothing to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and sayd, I suppose that hee to whom hee forgave most. And hee sayd vnto him, Thou hast truely iudged.

44 Then hee turned to the woman, and sayd vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, and thou gavest me no water to my feete: but shee hath washed my feet with teares, and wiped them with the haire of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kisse: but shee since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feete.

46 Mine head with oyle thou diddest not anoint: but shee hath anointed my feete with ointment.

49 And they that sat at table with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that euen forgiveth sinnes?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee, goe in peace.

CHAP. VIII

1 Christ with the Apostles goes from towne to towne, and preacheth. 3 The women minister vnto them of their goods. 5 He sheweth the parable of the seede. 21 Hee telleth who is his mother and his brother. 24 Hee filleth the raging of the lake. 27 He deliuereth the possessed. 33 The deuils enter into the herde of swine. 41 Hee healeth the sicke woman, and Lairs daughter.

And it came to passe afterward, that hee himselfe went through euery citie and towne, preaching, and publishing the kingdome of God, and the twelve were with him.

2 And certaine women which were healed of euill spirits, and infirmities, as Mary which was called Magdalene, out of whom went seven deuils,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herodes steward, and Sulanna and many other which ministered vnto him of their substance.

4 * Now when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all citie, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden vnder feete, and the foules of heauen deuoured it by.

6 And some fell on the stones, and when it was sprung vp it withered away, because it lacked moistnesse.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes sprung vp with it, and choked it.

8 And some fell on good ground, and sprung vp, and bare fruit, an hundred fold. And as he said these things, he cried, He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

9 Then his disciples asked him, demanding what parable that was.

10 And hee says, Vnto you it is given to knowe the secrets of the kingdome of God, but to other in parables, that when they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not understand.

11 * The parable is this, The seed is the word of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterward cometh the deuill, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should beleue and be saved.

13 But they that are on the stones are they which when they haue heard, receiue the word with ioy: but they haue no rootes, which for a while beleue, but in the time of cecation goe away.

17 ¶ For nothing is secret, that shall not

18 Take heede therefore how yee heare:

19 ¶ Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come neere to him for the prease.

20 And it was told him by certaine which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, and would see thee.

21 But he answered, and said vnto them,
My mother, and my brethren are these which heare the word of God, and doe it.

22 ¶ And it came to passe on a certaine day, that hee went into a ship with his disciples, and hee sayd vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto the other side of the lake. And they lanched forth.

23 And as they sailed, he fell asleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in leoparde.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, wee perish.
And hee arose, and rebuked the winde, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then hee sayd vnto them, Where is your faith? And they feared, and wondered among themselves, saying, Alho is this that commandeth both the windes and water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Ga-lile.

27 And as hee went out to land, there met him a certaine man out of the citie, which had a deuill long time, and he ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graves.

28 And when he saw Iesus, he cryed out, and fell downe before him, and with a loude voice said, What haue I to doe with thee, Iesus the Sonne of God, the most high? I beseech thee torment me not.

29 For hee commanded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for oft times he had caught him: therefore hee was bound with chains, and kept in fetters: but hee brake the bands, and was caried of the deuill into wildernes.)

30 Then Iesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And hee said, Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him, that he would not commaund them to goe out into the deepe.

¶ 16. 23. is called hell, where the deuils

32 And there was there by, an herd of many swine, feeding on an hill, and the deuils besought him, that he would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the herd was caried with violence from a sleepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the herdsmen saw what was done, they fled: and when they were depared, they told it in the citie and in the coun-trei.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Iesus, and found the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Iesus, clothed, and in his righte mind, and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what meanes hee that was possessed with the deuill was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the coun-trei about the Gadarenes, besought him, that hee would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship and returned.

38 Then the man out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him, that he might be with him: but Iesus sent him away, saying,

39 ¶ Returne into thine owne house, and shew what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached chorouout all the citie, what great things Jesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶ And it came to passe when Iesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 ¶ And behold, there came a man named Iairus, and hee was the ruler of the 30 But the Pharisees and the scribes of the Law despised the counsell of God against themselves, and were not baptized of

him.

31 * And the Lord said, Whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation? and what thing are they like unto?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, * We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not danced: wee haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

33 For John Baptist came, neither eating bread, nor drinking wine: and ye say, He hath the devil.

34 The Sonne of man is come, and eat-eth and drinketh: and ye say, Behold, a man which is a glutton, and a drinker of wine, a friend of Publicanes and sinners.

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 * And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eate with him: and hee went into the Pharisees house, and late down at table.

37 And beholde, a woman in the citie, which was a sinner: when shee knew that Jesus late at table in the Pharisees house, she brought a booke of ointment.

38 * And she stood at his feete behind him weeping, and began to wash his feete with teares, and did wipe them with the haire of her head, and kissed his feete, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had him, saw it, he spake with himselfe, saying,
If this man were a Prophet, he would surely haue known, who, and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him: for shee is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender, which had two debtors: the one ought five hundred pence, and the other sicke.

42 When they had nothing to pay, he forgaue them both. Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and sayd, I suppose that hee to whom hee forgaued most.
And hee sayd vnto him, Thou hast cruely iudged.

44 Then hee turned to the woman, and sayd vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman?
I entered into thine house, and thou gauest me no water to my feete: but she hath washed my feet with teares, and wiped them with the haire of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kisse: but shee since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feete.

46 Mine head with oyle thou diddest not anoint: but she hath anointed my feete with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say vnto thee, Many sinneres are forgiven her: for shee loued much.
To whom a little is forgiven, hee doeth loue a little.

48 And hee said vnto her, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

49 And they that sate at table with him, began to say within themselves, What is this that euen forgiveth sinnes?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee, goe in peace.

CHAP. VIII

1 Christ with the Apostles goes from town to town, and preacheth. 3 The women minister vnto them of their goods. 5 He sheweth the parable of the seede.
21 Hee telleth who is his mother and his brother.
24 Hee stilleth the raging of the lake. 27 He deliuereth the possessed. 33 The devils enter into the herde of swine. 41 Hee healeth the sicke woman, and Lairus daughter.

And it came to passe afterward, that hee himselfe went through euery citie and towne, preaching, and publishing the kingdome of God, and the twelve were with him.

2 And certaine women which were healed of euill spirits, and infirmities, as Mary which was called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Ioanna the wife of Chusa, He-rodes steward, and Susanna and many other which ministered vnto him of their substance.

4 * Now when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all cities, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden vnder feete, and the foules of heauen deuoured it by.

6 And some fell on the stones, and when it was sprung vp it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes sprung by with it, and choked it.

8 And some fell on good ground, and sprung vp, and bare fruit, an hundred fold.
And as he said these things, he cried, He that hath eares to hear, let him hear.

9 Then his disciples asked him, demanding what parable that was.

10 And hee sayd, Vnto you it is given to knowe the secrets of the kingdome of God, but to other in parables, that when they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not understand.

11 * The parable is this, The seed is the word of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterward cometh the deuill, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should beleue and be saued.

13 But they that are on the stones are they which when they haue heard, receiue the word with ioy: but they haue no rootes, which for a while beleue, but in the time of temptation goe away.

14 And that which fell among thornes, are they which haue heard, and after their departure are choked with cares, and with riches, and voluptuous lining, and bring forth no fruit.

15 But that which fell in good ground, are they which with an honest and good heart

CHAP. IX.

2 Hee sendeth out the twelue Apostles to preach. 7 Herod hearth tell of him. 12 Hee sendeth five thousand men with five loaves & two fishes. 19 Discerns simons of Christ. 28 He transfigurath himselfe upon the mount. 42 He deliuereth the possessed. 47 And teacheth his disciples to bee lowly. 54 They desire vengeance, but hee reproveth them.

Then * called he the twelue disciples together, and gaue them power and authority ouer all deuils, and to heale diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to cure the sicke.

3 And hee said to them, Take nothing to your iourney, neither staffes, nor scrip, neither bread, nor flouer, neither haue two coats.

4 And whatsoeuer house pee enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receiue you, when ye goe out of that cite, shake off the very dust from your feete for a testimony against them.

6 And they went out, and went thorow euery towne preaching the Gospel, and healing euery where.

7 Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and hee doubted because that it was sayd of some, that Iohn was risen againe from the dead:

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared, and of some, that one of the old Prophets was risen againe.

9 Then Herod said, Iohn haue I beheaded: who then is this, of whom I heare such things? And he desired to see him.

10 And when the Apostles returned, they told him what great things they had done. Then he tooke them, and went aside into a solitary place, neere to the cite called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knew it, they followed him, and hee receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need to be healed.

12 And when the day began to waxe away, the twelue came, and sayd vnto him,

Send the people away, that they may goe into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meate: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But hee sayd vnto them, Give pee them to eat. And they sayd, Wee haue no moe but five loaves and two fishes, except wee should goe and buy meate for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. Then hee said to his Disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then hee tooke the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and blessed them, and brake and gaue to the disciples to set before the people.

17 So they did all eat, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelue baskets full of broken meate.

18 And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and hee asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answered, and sayd, Iohn Baptist: and others say, Elias: and some say, that one of the old Prophets is risen againe.

20 And hee sayd vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answered, and sayd, The Christ of God.

21 And hee warned, & commanded them, that they should tell that to no man,

22 Saying, The Sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reproued of the Elders, and of the hie Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and the third day rise againe.

23 And hee sayd to them all, If any man will come after mee, let him denie himselfe, and take vp his crosse daily, and follow mee.

24 For whosoever will saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall saue it.

25 For what shall a man get if he winne the whole world, and destroy himselfe, or lose himselfe?

26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed when hee shall come in his glory, and in the glory of his Father, and of the holy Angels.

27 And I tell you of a surtise, there be some standing heere, which shall not taste of death till they haue seene the kingdom of God.

28 And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those words, that he tooke Peter and Iohn, and James, and went by into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as hee prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment was white and glistered.

him, were heavy with sleepe, and when they awoke, they saw his glory, and the two men standing with him.

33 And it came to passe as they departed from him, Peter said vnto Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to bee here: let vs therefore make three Tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wilt not what he said.

34 While hee thus spake, there came a cloud, and ouersadowed them, & they feared when they were entering into the cloud.

35 And there came a voyce out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

36 And when the voyce was past, Iesus was found alone: and they kept it close and tolde no man in those dayes any of those things which they had seene.

37 And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, much people met him.

38 And beholde, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, behold my sonne, for he is all that I haue.

39 And loe, a spirit taketh him, and suddenly he cryeth, and he teareth him, that hee cometh, & with much paine departeth from him, when he hath biniled him.

40 Now I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Iesus answered, and said, O generation faithlesse and crooked, how long now shal I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy sonne hither.

42 And whiles he was yet comming, the deuill rent him, and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the vnclene spirit, and healed the child, and deliuered him to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God: and while they all wondered at all things which Iesus did, hee said vnto his disciples,

44 Marke these words diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not that word: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that word.

46 And then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should bee the greatest.

47 When Iesus saw the thoughts of their hearts, he tooke a little child, and set him by him,

48 And saide vnto them, Whosoever receiveth this little child in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent mee: for hee that is least among you all, he shall be great.

49 And John answered, and sayd, Master, wee saw one casting out deuils in thy Name, and we forbade him, because hee followeth thee not with vs.

50 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Forbidde him not: for he that is not against vs, is with vs.

51 And it came to passe, when the dayes were accomplished, that hee should be receiued vp, he setteth himselfe fully to goe to Ierusalem,

52 And sent messengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritanes, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they would not receiue him, because his behauiour was, as though hee would goe to Ierusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and John saw it, they sayd, Lord, wilt thou that wee command that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as Elias did?

55 But Iesus turned about and rebuked them, and sayd, Pee know not of what spirit ye are.

56 For the Sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 And it came to passe, that as they went in the way, a certaine man said vnto him, I will follow thee, Lord, whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Iesus said vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birds of the heauen haue nests, but the Sonne of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 But he sayd vnto another, Follow me. And the same said, Lord, suffer me first to goe and bury my father.

60 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but goe thou & preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another said, I will follow thee, Lord: but let me first goe bid them farewell, which are at mine house.

62 And Iesus said vnto him, No man that putteth his hand to the plough, & looketh backe, is apt to the kingdome of God.

CHAP. XI.

1 Hee teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 Hee driveth out a devill. 15 And rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisees. 28 Hee preferreth the spiritual conquest. 29 They require signes and tokens. 37 Hee gathereth with the Pharisee, and reprehendeth the hypocrites of the Pharisee, Scribes and hypocrites.

And so it was, that as hee was praying in a certaine place, when he crept, one of his disciples layd vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

Matth. 6. 9.

2 And he said vnto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, halowed be thy Name: Thy kingdome come: Let thy will be done euen in earth, as it is in heauen:

3 Our dayly bread giue vs for the day:

a Or, every day, or as much as is sufficient for this day.

4 And // forgive vs our sinnes: for euen we forgive euery man that is indebted to vs: And leade vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

5 Moreover he said vnto them, Which of you shall haue a friend, and shall goe to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loaves?

b By this similitude he teacheth vs that we ought not to be discouraged, if we obtaine not incontinently that which we demand.

6 For a friend of mine is come // out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to let before him:

|| Or, in passing by the way.

7 And he within should answer and say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with mee in bed: I cannot rise and giue them to thee.

8 I say vnto you, Though hee would not arise, and giue him, because he is his friend, yet doubtlesse because of his // importunitie, he would rise, and giue him as many as he needed.

9 And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shall be giuen you: seeke, and ye shall find: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you.

Matth. 7. 9.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiveth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a stone? or if he aske a fish, will hee for a fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he aske an egge, will he giue him a scorpion?

13 If ye then which are euill, can giue good gifts vnto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father giue the holy Ghost to them, that desire him?

c The chiefest thing that we can desire of God, is his holy Spirit.

14 When he call out a deuill which was dumbe: and when the deuill was gone out, the dumbe spake, and the people wondered.

15 But some of them sayd, Hee casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the devils.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

Matth. 12. 25. mar. 3. 22, 25.

17 But he knew their thoughts, and said vnto them, Every kingdome diuided against it selfe, shall be desolate, and an house diuided against an house, falleth.

18 So if Satan also be diuided against himselfe, how shall his kingdome stand, because yee say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out devils, by whome doe your children cast them out? Therefore shall they be your iudges.

20 But if I by the finger of God cast out devils, doubtlesse the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, the things that he possesseth are in peace.

22 But when a stronger then he cometh vpon him, and ouercometh him, hee taketh from him all his armour wherein hee trusted, and diuideth his spoyle.

23 Hee that is not with me, is against mee: and hee that gathereth not with mee, scattereth.

24 When the vnclane spirit is gone out of a man, hee walketh through drie places, seeking rest: and when he findeth none, he sayeth, I will returne vnto my house whence I came out.

25 And when hee cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth hee, and taketh to him seuen other spirits worse then himselfe: and they enter in and dwell there: so the last state of that man is worse then the first.

27 And it came to passe, as hee sayd these things, a certaine woman of the company lifted vp her voyce, and said vnto him, Blessed is the wombe that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he sayd, Yea, rather blessed are they that heare the word of God, and keepe it.

29 And when the people were gathered thicke together, he began to say, This is a wicked generation: they seeke a signe, and there shall no signe be giuen them, but the signe of Jonas the Prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a signe to the Ninuites, so shall also the sonne of man be to this generation.

31 The Queene of the South shall rise in iudgement with the men of this generation, and shall condemne them: for she came from the remotest parts of the earth to heare the wisdom of Salomon, and behold, a greater then Salomon is here.

32 The men of Nineue shall rise in iudgement with this generation, and shall condemne it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas: and behold, a greater then Jonas is here.

33 No man lighteth a candle, and putteth it in a priue place, neither vnder a bushell: but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, then is thy whole body light: but if thine eye be euill, then thy body is darke.

35 Take heede therefore, that the light which is in thee, be not darkened.

36 If therefore the whole body shall be light, hauing no part darke, then shall all went in, and sat downe at table.

38 And when the Pharise sawe it, hee maruelled that hee had not first washed before dinner.

39 And the Lord said to him, Indeede ye Pharises make cleane the outside of the cup, and of the platter: but the inward part is full of rauening and wickednesse.

40 Pee fooles, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 Therefore p gine almes of those things which are within, and behold, all things shal be cleane to you.

42 But woe bee to you Pharises: for yee tithe the mint, and the rewe, and all maner herbes, and passe ouer iudgement and the loue of God: these ought yee to haue done, and not to haue left the other vndone.

43 Woe be to you Pharises: for ye loue the uppermost seates in the Synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe be to you Scribes and Pharises hypocrites: for ye are as graues which ap-peare not, & the men that walke ouer them, perceiue not.

45 Then answered one of the expoun-ders of the Law, and said vnto him, Master, Thus saying, thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

46 And he said, Woe be to you also, ye interpreters of the Law: for yee lade men with burdens grieuous to be borne, and yee your selues touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe be vnto you: for ye build the se-pulchres of the Prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye beare witnesse, and allow the deedes of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore said the wise dome of God,
I will send them Prophets and Apostles, and of them they shall slay and persecute.

50 That the blood of all the Prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation.

51 From the blood of Abel vnto the blood of Zacharias, which was slaine betwene the Altar, and the Temple: verily I say vnto you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe be to you, interpreters of the Law:
for yee haue taken away the key of knowledge: yee entred not in your selues, & them that came in, ye forbade.

53 And as he said these things vnto them, the Scribes and Pharises began to rage him sore, and to prouoke him to speake of many things.

54 Laying waite for him, and seeking to catch somethiing of his mouth, whereby they might accule him.

Name, 10 Blasphemie against the Spirit. 14 Not to passe our vocation, 15 Not to giue our selues to conetous care of this life, 32 but to righteousness, almes, watching, patience, wisdom, and concord.

152 * the meane time they gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another: and he began to say vnto his disciples first, Take heede to your selues of the leaues of the Pharises, which is hypocrytie.

2 * For there is nothing couered, that shal not be reuealed: neither hid, that shal not be knowne.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye haue spoken in darkenesse, it shal bee heard in the light:
and that which yee haue spoken in the eare, in secret places, shal bee preached on the houses.

4 And I say vnto you, my friends, Bee not afraid of them that kill the body, and after, that are not able to doe any more.

5 But I will forewarne you, whom yee shall feare: feare him which after hee hath killed, hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say vnto you, him feare.

6 Are not foue sparrows bought for two farthings, and yet not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 Yea, and all the haire of your head are numbered: feare not therefore: yee are more of value then many sparrows.

8 Also I say vnto you, whosoever shall confesse me before men, him shall the Sonne of man confesse also before the Angels of God.

9 But he that shall denie me before men, shall be denied before the Angels of God.

10 And whosoever shall speake a worde against the Sonne of man, it shall be forgit-ten him: but vnto him, that shall blaspheme the holy Ghost, it shall not bee forgit-ten.

11 And when they shall bring you vnto the Synagogues, and vnto the rulers and princes, take no thought howe, or what thing ye shal answer, or what ye shal speake.

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same houre, what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company layd vnto him, Master, bid my brother diuide the inheritance with me.

14 And hee layd vnto him, Man, who made me a iudge, or a diuider ouer you?

15 Therefore hee said vnto them, Take heede and beware of couetousnesse: for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

16 And he put forth a parable vnto them, saying, The ground of a certaine rich man brought forth fruite plentifully.

17 Therefore he thought with himselfe, saying, What shall I doe, because I haue no roume where I may lay vp my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I doe, I will pull downe my barnes, and build greater, and therein will I gather all my fruits, and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soule, Soule, thou hast much goods layd vp for many yeeres, lye at ease, eate, drinke, and take thy pastime.

20 But God said vnto him, O foole, this night will they fetch away thy soule from thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meate: and the body more then the rayment.

24 Consider the rauen: for they neither sowe nor reape: which neither haue storehouse nor barn, and yet God feedeth them: how much more are yee better then foules?

25 And which of you with taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubite?

26 If yee then be not able to doe the least thing, why take yee thought for the remnant?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they labour not, neither spinne they: yet I say vnto you, that Salomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grasse which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven, how much more will hee clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 Therefore take not what ye shall eat, or what yee shall drinke, neither stand in doubt.

30 For all such things the people of the world seeke for: and your Father knoweth that ye haue need of these things.

31 But rather seeke yee after the kingdom of God, and all these things shall bee ministered vnto you.

32 Feare not, little flocke: for it is your fathers pleasure, to giue you the kingdom.

33 Sell that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bags, which ware not old, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no thiefe commeth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heartes be also.

35 Let your loynes be girded about, and your lightes burning,

36 And ye your selues like vnto men that waite for their master, when he will returne from the wedding, that when hee commeth and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whom the Lord when hee commeth, shall find waking: verely I say vnto you, hee will gird himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth and serue them.

38 And if hee come in the second watch, or come in the thirde watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 Now vnderstand this, that if the Goodman of the house had knownen at what houre the thiefe would haue come, he would haue watched, and would not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter sayd vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithfull steward, and wise, whom the master shall make ruler ouer his household, to giue them their portion of meat in season?

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when he commeth, shall find so doing.

44 If a trueth I say vnto you, that hee wil make him ruler ouer all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant lay in his heart, My master doth deferre his comming, and shall begin to smite the seruants, and maydens, and to eat & drinke, and to be drunken,

46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when hee thinketh not, and at an houre when he is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the unbelieuers.

47 And that seruant that knew his masters will, and prepared not himselfe neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew it not, and yet did commit things worthy of stripes, shall bee beaten with few stripes: for vnto whomsoever much is giuen, of him shall be much required, and to whom men much commit, the more of him will they aske.

49 I am come to put fire on the earth, and what is my desire, if it be already kindled?

50 Notwithstanding I must bee baptized with a baptism, and how am I grieved, till it be ended?

51 Think ye that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather debate.

52 For from henceforth there shall be sune in one house diuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall bee diuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in law, against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 Then said he to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the East, straightway yee say, a showre commeth: and so it is.

55 And when yee see the South winde blow, ye say, that it will be hote: and it commeth to passe.

56 Hypocrites, yee can discern the face of the earth, and of the skie: but why discern ye not this time?

57 Yea, and why iudge you not of your selues what is right?

58 While thou goest with thine adversary to the ruler, as thou art in the way, giue diligence in the way, that thou mayest bee deliuered from him, lest hee bring thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the tayler, and the tayler call thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast payed the demost mite.

|| Or, set at libertie out of Satans bands.

There were certaine men present at the same season, that therwed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Suppose yee, that these Galileans were greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eightene, vpon whom the towne in Siloam fell, and flew them, were sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye all shall likewise perish.

6 Hee spake also this parable, A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard: and hee came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Beholde, this three yeeres haue I come and sought fruit of this figge tree, and finde none: cut it downe: why keepeth it also the ground barren?

8 And hee answered, and said vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yeere also, till I digge round about it, and doing it.

9 And if it beare fruit, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 And hee taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmities eightene yeeres, and was bowed together, and could not lift vp her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus saw her, hee called her to him, and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy disease.

13 And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and sayde vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come and bee healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lorde, and sayd, Hypocrite, doeth not each one of you on the Sabbath day loose his ore or his asse from the stall, and lead him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham whom Satan had bound, loe, eightene yeeres, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he said these things, all his adueraries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, What is the kingdom of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustard seede which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grew, and waied a great tree, and the fowles of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 And againe hee sayd, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke and hid in three peckes of flour, till all was leauened.

22 ¶ And hee went through all cities and townes, teaching, and iourneying toward Ierusalem.

23 Then sayd one vnto him, Lord, are there few that shall be saved? And he said vnto them, 24 ¶ Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say vnto you, will seeke to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, and yee begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, and he shall answer and say vnto you, I know you not whence ye are,

26 ¶ Then shall ye begin to say, We haue eaten and drunken in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But hee shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence yee are: depart from mee, all yee workers of iniquity.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and all the Prophets in the kingdom of God, and your selues thrust out at doores.

29 Then shall come many from the East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, and shall sit at table in the kingdom of God.

30 ¶ And behold, there are last, which shall be first: and there are first, which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certaine Pharisees, and said vnto him, Depart and goe hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 Then said he vnto them, Goe yee and tell that fore, Behold, I cast out deuils, and will heale still to day, and to morrow, and the third day: I shall be perfected.

33 Neuerthelesse I must walke to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be, that a Prophet should perish out of Ierusalem.

Or take his refection.

As it came to passe, that when he was entered into the house of one of the chiefe Pharisees on the Sabbath day to eat bread, they watched him.

2 And behold, there was a certaine man before him, which had the drop sic.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the exponders of the Law, and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then hee tooke him, and healed him, and let him goe.

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall haue an asse or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pul him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him againe to those things.

7 ¶ He spake also a parable to the guests, when he marked how they chose out the chiefe roomes, and said vnto them, a He reprooueth their ambition, which desire to sit in the highest places.

8 ¶ When thou shalt bee bidden of any man to a wedding, let not thy selfe downe in the chiefe place, lest a more honourable man then thou be bidden of him,

9 And hee that had both him and thee, come and say to thee, Giue this man roomie, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest roomie.

10 ¶ But when thou art bidden, go, and sit down in the lowest roomie, that when he that had thee, cometh, he may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp higher: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

11 ¶ For whosoener exalteth himselfe, shall be brought low, and he that humbleth himselfe shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then he sayd he also to him that had bidden him, ¶ When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor the rich neighbours, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blind,

14 And thou shalt bee blessed: for thou shalt bee recompensed at the resurrection of the lust.

15 ¶ Now when one of them that sat at table heard these things, he saide vnto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the Kingdom of God.

16 Then said he to him, ¶ A certaine man made a great supper, and bade many.

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: the first saide vnto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must needs goe out and see it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another sayd, I haue boughte fine yoke of oxen, and I go to plow them: I pray thee haue me excused.

20 And another sayd, I haue married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the good man of the house angry, and sayd to his seruant, ¶ Goe out quickly into the places and streets of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the seruant sayd, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is roomie.

23 Then the Master said to the seruant, Goe out into the high wayes and hedges, and compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 Nowe there went great multitudes with him, and hee turned and sayd vnto them,

26 ¶ If any man come to me, & hate not his father and mother, and wife & children, and brethren and sisters, yea, and his owne life also, he cannot be my discipule.

27 ¶ And whosoener beareth not his crosse, and cometh after me, cannot be my discipule.

Then related vnto him all the Publi-cans and sinners, to heare him.

2 Therefore the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, He receiveth sinners, and 3 Then spake he this parable to them, saying,

4 What man of you having an hundred sheepe, if he lose one of them, doth not leave ninetie and nine in the wilderness, and goe after that which is lost, vntill hee finde it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends & neighbors, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue found my sheepe which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine iust men, which need none amendment of life.

8 Either what woman having ten ^b pte-ces of siluer, if shee lose one peece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seeke diligently till shee find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and neighbors, saying, Reioyce with me: for I haue found the peece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

11 He sayd moreover, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the yonger of them said to his father, Father, giue mee the ^c portion of the goods that fallerh to me. So he diuided vnto them his substance.

13 So not long after, when the yonger sonne had gathered all together, hee tooke his iourney into a farre countrey, and there he wasted his goods with ^d riotous liuing.

14 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and he sent him to his farme to feed swine.

16 And he would faine haue filled his belly with the huskes that the swine ate: ^e but no man gaue them him.

17 Then he came to himselfe, & said, How many hired seruants at my fathers haue bread ynough, and I die for hunger?

18 I will rise and go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against ^f heauen, and before thee.

19 And am no more worthy to bee called thy sonne: make mee as one of thy hired ser-uants.

20 So he arose, & came to his father, and when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ranne and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne sayd vnto him, ^h Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

22 Then the father said to his seruants,

Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feete,

23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eat and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but hee is found. And they began to merr.

25 Now the ⁱ elder brother was in the field, and when he came and drew nere to the house, he heard melody and dancing,

26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he said vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then hee was angry, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out and in-treated him.

29 But he answered, and said to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commandement, and yet thou neuer ganest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goods with har-lots, thou hast for his sake killed the fatted calfe.

31 And he said vnto him, ^k Sonne, thou art cuer with me, & all that I haue is thine.
It was meere that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ exhorteth his to wisdom and liberalitie by the example of the steward. 2 None can serue two masters. 3 He reproveth the couetousnes and hypocricise of the Pharisees. 4 Of the end and force of the law. 5 Of the holy state of marriage. 6 Of the rich man and Lazarus.

AND he sayd also vnto his Disciples,
There was a certaine rich man which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him that he wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and he said vnto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounts of thy stewardship: for thou wast be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himselfe,
What shall I doe? for my master wil take away from me the stewardship. I cannot dig, and to beg I am ashamed.

4 I know what I will doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called he euery one of his masters debtors, and said vnto the first, How much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oyle. And he said to him, Take thy writing and sit downe quickly, and write fiftie.

7 Then said hee to another, How much owest thou? And hee sayde, An hundred measures.

11 If then pee haue not beene faithfull in the few wicked riches, who will trust you in the true treasure?

12 And if pee haue not beene faithfull in another mans goods, who shall giue you that which is yours?

13 No seruant can serue two Masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or else he shall leane to the one, and despise the other. Pee cannot serue God and riches.

14 All these things heard the Pharisees also which were couetous, and they mock- ed him.

15 Then hee sayd vnto them, Ye are they which iustifie your selues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The Law and the Prophets endured vntill John: and since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and euery man presseth into it.

17 Now it is more easie that heauen and earth should passe away, then that one tittle of the Law should fall.

18 Whosoener putteth away his wife, and marieth another, committeth adulterie: and whosoener marieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adulterie.

19 There was a certaine rich man, which was clothed in purple, and fine linnen, and fared well and delicately euery day.

20 Also there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, which was layd at his gate full of sores,

21 And desired to bee refreshed with the crummes that fell from the rich mans table: yea and the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger dyed, and was carryed by the Angels into Abrahams bosome. The rich man also dyed and was buried.

23 And being in hell torments, hee lift vp his eyes, and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosome.

24 Then he cryed and sayd, Father Abraham haue mercy on me, and send Lazarus that hee may dip the tip of his finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuest thy pleasures, and likewise Lazarus paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betweene you and vs there is a great gulfe set, so that they which would goe from hence to you, cannot, neither can they come from thence to vs.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ teacheth his Disciples to avoid occasions of offence. 3 One to forgive another. 5 Wee ought to pray for the increase of faith. 6 He magnifieth the vertue of faith. 10 and sheweth the vnable of man, 11 heaileth tenne lepers, 20 speaketh of the latter dayes, and of the end of the world.

T hen said hee to the disciples, It cannot bee avoided, but that offences will come, but woe be to him by whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a great millstone were hanged about his necke, and that hee were cast into the sea, then that hee should offend one of these little ones.

3 Take heed to your selues: if by brother trespasse against thee, rebuke him: and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And though hee sinne against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turne againe to thee, saying, I repenteth me, thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the Apostles said vnto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as much as is a graine of mustard seed, and should say vnto this mulberry tree, Plucke thy selfe vp by the roots, and plant thy selfe in the sea, it should euen obay you.

o Christ describeth spirituall things by such manner of speech, as is most proper to our vnderstanding: for our soules haue neither fingers nor eyes, neither a e they thinke, or speake: but the Lord as it were in a table painteth forth the state of the life to come as our capacitie is able to comprehend.

9 Doeth he thanke that seruant, because hee did that which was commaunded vnto him? I trow not.

11 And so it was when he went to Ierusalem, that he passed thorow the mids of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as hee entred into a certaine towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood as farre off.

12 And they lift up their voyces and said, Iesus, Master, haue mercie on vs.

14 And when hee saw them, he said vnto them, *Goe, shewe your selues vnto the Priests. And it came to passe, that as they went they were cleansed.

15 Then one of them, when he saw that hee was healed, turned backe, and with a loud voice praised God,

16 And fell downe on his face at his feet and gaue him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Iesus answered, & sayd, are not there ten cleansed: but where are the nine?

18 There are none found that returned to giue God praise, saue this stranger.

19 And he said vnto him, Arise, Goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 And when hee was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdome of God should come, he answered them, and sayd, The kingdome of God cometh not with obseruation, 21 Neither shall men say, Loe here, or loe there: for beholde, the kingdome of God is within you.

22 And hee sayd vnto the Disciples, The dayes will come, when yee shall desire to see one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and yee shall not see it.

23 Then they shall say to you, Beholde here, or beholde there: but go not thither, neither follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part vnder heauen shineth vnto the other part vnder heauen, so shall the Sonne of man be in his day.

25 But first must he suffer many things and be reproboued of this generation.

26 And as it was in the dayes of Noe, so shall it bee in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

27 They ate, they dranke, they married wives, and gaue in marriage vnto the day that Noe went into the Arke: and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the dayes of Lot: they ate, they dranke, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built,

29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodome, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

30 After these ensamples shall it be in the day when the Sonne of man shall be reuealed.

31 At that day, he that is vpon the house and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out, and hee that is in the field likewise let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.

2 Saying, There was a iudge in a certaine citie, which feared not God, neither reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widow in that citie, which came vnto him, saying, Doe me iustice against mine aduersarie.

4 And hee would not for a time: but afterward hee sayde with himselfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me I will doe her right, least at the last she come and make me weary.

7 Now shall not God auenge his elect which cry day & night vnto him, yea though he suffer long for them?

8 I tell you he will auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 He spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselves that they were iust, and despised other.

10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publicane.

14 I tell you this man departed to his house iustified: rather then the other: For every man that exalteth himselfe shall be brought low, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

15 They brought vnto him also babes, that hee should touch them. And when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Iesus called them vnto him, and said, Suffer the babes to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verely I say vnto you, Whosoever receiveth not the kingdom of God as a babe, he shall not enter therein.

18 Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to doe, to inherite eternall life?

19 And Iesus said vnto him, Why callest thou mee good? none is good save one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witness: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these haue I kept from my youthe.

22 Now when Iesus heard that, he sayd vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing, Well all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come follow me.

23 But when hee heard those things, hee was very heauy: for hee was marvellous rich.

24 And when Iesus saw him sorrowfull, hee sayd, With what difficultie shall they that haue riches enter into the kingdom of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a camel to goe through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 Then said they that heard it, And who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Loe, wee haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And hee said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kingdom of Gods sake,

30 Which shall not receiue much more in this world, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 Then Iesus tooke vnto him the twelue, and sayd vnto them, Behold, we goe vp to Ierusalem, and all things shall be fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets.

32 For he shall be deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shall be spitfully intreated, and shall be spitted on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the third day he shall rise againe.

34 But they understood none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, neither perceived they the things, which were spoken.

35 And it came to passe, that as hee was come nere vnto Iericho, a certaine blinde man saie by the way side begging.

36 And when hee heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they said vnto him, that Iesus of Nazareth passed by.

38 Then he cried, saying, Iesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that hee should hold his peace, but hee cried much more, Dⁿ Some of Dauid haue mercy on me.

40 And Iesus stood still, and commaunded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come nere he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And hee said, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Iesus said vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.

43 Then immediatly hee receiued his sight, and followed him, praising God: and all the people when they saw this, gaue praise to God.

5 And when Iesus came to the place, he looked vp and saw him, and said vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then hee came downe hastily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they saw it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge with a sinfull man.

8 And Zaccheus stood forth, and said vnto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by forged cauillation, I restore him foure fold.

15 And it came to passe when hee was come againe, and had receiued his kingdome, that hee commaunded the seruants to be called to him, to whom hee gaue his money, that he might know what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased ten pieces.

17 And he said vnto him, Well good seruant: because thou hast bene faithfull in a very litle thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased five pieces.

19 And to the same he says, Be thou also ruler ouer five cities.

20 So the other came, and sayd, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue layd vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strait man, thou takest vp that thou laydest not downe, and reapest that thou didst not sowe.

22 Then he said vnto him, Of thine owne mouth wilt I iudge thee, O euill seruant. Thou knewest that I am a strait man, taking vp that I laide not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gauest thou my money into the banke, that at my coming I might haue requited it with vantage?

24 And hee said vnto them that stood by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they said vnto him, Lord, hee hath ten pieces.)

26 * For I say vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it shall be giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shall be taken from him.

27 Whosoever thine enemies, which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when hee had thus spoken, hee went forth before, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 * And it came to passe, when hee was come neere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called the mount of Olives, hee sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Goe ye to the towne which is before you, wherein alsoone as yee are come, yee shall finde a colt tyed, whereon neuer man hath sate: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 * And if any man aske you, why seeke him, thus shall ye say vnto him, Because the Lord hath neede of him.

32 So they that were sent went their way, and found it as he had sayd vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said vnto them, Why loose yee the colt?

34 And they sayd, The Lord hath neede of him.

35 * So they brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as hee went, they spred their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come neere to the going downe of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the Disciples began to reioyce, and to prayse God with a loude voyce, for all the great workes that they had seene.

38 Saying, Blessed be he King that cometh in the Name of the Lord: peace in heauen, and glory in the highest places.

39 Then some of the Pharisees of the company said vnto him, Master, rebuke thy Disciples.

40 But he answered and said vnto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would crie.

41 * And when he was come neere, he beheld the citie, and wept for it,

42 Saying, * O if thou haddest euen knowne at the least in this thy day * those things, which belong vnto thy peace! but now are they hid from thine eyes.

43 For the dayes shall come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keepe thee in on euery side, 44 And shall make thee euen with the ground, and thy children which are in thee, and they shall not leaue in thee a stone vpon a stone, because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 * He went also into the Temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought,

46 Saying vnto them, It is written, * Mine house is the house of prayer, * but yee haue made it a denne of thieues.

47 And he taught daily in the Temple. And the hie Priests, and the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people soughte to destroy him.

48 But they could not finde what they might doe to him: for all the people hanged vpon him when they heard him.

what authoritie thou doest these things, or who is hee that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

3 And he answered, and said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

4 The baptisme of John, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then beleue ye him not?

6 But if we shall say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that John was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could nor tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus said vnto them, Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

9 ¶ Then began hee to speake to the people this parable. A certaine man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a strange country, for a great season.

10 And at a time he sent a seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruite of the vineyard, but the husbandmen did beate him, and sent him away empty.

11 Again he sent yet another seruant, and they did beate him, and soule intreated him, and sent him away empty.

12 So he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I doe? I will send my beloued sonne: it may bee that they will doe reuerence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned with themselves, saying, This is the heire: come let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore doe vnto them?

16 Hee will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue our his vineyard to others: but when they heard it, they sayd, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What meaneth this then that is written, The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head of the corner?

18 Whosoener shall fall vpon that stone, shall be broken: and on whomsoener it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 Then the hie Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should faine themselves iust men, to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the Gouernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest right, neither dost thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truly.

22 Is it lawful for vs to giue Celars tribute, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftinesse, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a penie. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Celars.

25 Then he said vnto them, * Giue then vnto Celar the things which are Celars, and to God those which are Gods.

26 And they could not reprocure his saying before the people: but they maruelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certaine of the Sadducees, (which denie that there is any resurrection) and they asked him.

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and hee died without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and he died childlesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

32 And last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall shee bee? for seuen had her to wife.

34 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, The children of this world marry wiues, and are married.

35 But they which shall be counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry wiues, neither are married.

36 For they can die no more, forasmuch as they are equal vnto the Angels, and are the sonnes of God, * Since they are the children of the resurrection.

37 And that the dead shall rise againe, euen * Moses shewed it besides the bush, when he sayd, The Lord is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For hee is not the God of the dead but of them which liue: for all liue vnto him.

39 Then certaine of the Pharisees answered, and sayd, Master, thou hast well sayd.

40 And after that durst they not aske him any thing at all.

41 ¶ Then said he vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

42 And Dauid himselfe saith in the booke of the Psalmes, * The Lord sayd vnto my Lord, Sit at my right hand, 43 Till I shall make thine enemies thy footstoole.

44 Seeing Dauid called him Lord, how is he then his sonne?

45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people, he sayd vnto his disciples, 46 * Beware of the Scribes, which desire to goe in long robes, and lone salutations in the markets, and the highest seates in the Synagogues, and the chiefe rommes at feasts.

CHAP. XXI.

3 Christ commendeth the poore widow. 6 He forewarneth of the destruction of Ierusalem. 8 Of false teachers. 9 Of the tokens and troubles to come. 27 Of the ende of the world. 37 and of his dayly exercise.

Marke. 12. 41.

AND as he beheld, he saw the rich men which cast their gifts into the treasure, 2 And hee saw also a certaine poore widow, which cast in thither two mites, 3 And hee said, Of a truerh I say vnto you, that this poore widow hath cast in more then they all.

4 For they all haue of their superfluitie cast into the offerings of God: but she of her penurie hath cast in all she liuing that she had.

5 Now as some spake of the Temple, how it was garnished with goodly stones, and with consecrate thyngs, he said,

6 Are these the thyngs that yee looke vpon? the dayes will come, wherein a stone shall not bee left vpon a stone, that shall not bee throwen downe.

7 Then they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these thyngs be? and what signe shall there bee, when these thyngs shall come to passe?

8 And he said, Take heede that yee be not deceiued: for many will come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth neere: follow yee not them therefore.

9 And when yee heare of warres and seditions, be not afraid: for these thyngs must first come, but the end followeth not by and by.

10 Then he said vnto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome.

11 And great earthquakes shall be in diuers places, and hunger, and pestilence, and fearful thyngs, and great signes shall there be from heauen.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, deliuering you vp to the Synagogues, and into prisons, and bring you before kings and rulers for my names sake.

13 And this shall turne to you, for a testimony.

14 Lay it by therefore in your hearts, that yee premeditate not what yee shall answer.

15 For I will giue you a mouth, and wisdom, where against all your adversaries shall not be able to speake, nor resist.

16 For yee shall be betrayed also of your parentes, and of your brethren, and kinsmen, and friends, and some of you shall they put to death.

17 And yee shall be hated of all men for my names sake.

18 Yet there shall not one haire of your heads perish.

19 By your patience possesse your soules.

20 And when yee see Ierusalem belleged with soldiers, then understand that the desolation thereof is neere.

21 Then let them which are in Iudea, flee to the mountains: and let them which are in the middes thereof, depart out: and let not them that are in the countrey, enter therein.

22 For these bee the dayes of vengeance, to fulfill all thyngs that are written.

23 But woe bee to them that bee with childe, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes: for there shall be great distresse in this land, and wrath ouer this people.

24 And they shall fall on the edge of the sword, and shall be led captiue into all nations, and Ierusalem shall be troden vnder foot of the Gentiles, vntill the time of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 Then there shall bee signes in the sunne, and in the moone, and in the starres, and vpon the earth trouble among the nations, with perplexitie: the Sea and the waters shall roare.

26 And mens hearts shall faile them for feare, and for looking after those thyngs, which shall come on the world: for the powers of heauen shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Sonne of man come in a cloud, with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to passe, then looke vp, lift up your heads: for your redemption draweth neere.

29 And he spake to them a parable, saying, Behold the figge tree, and all trees,

30 When they now shoot forth, yee setting them, know of your owne selves that summer is then neere.

31 So likewise yee, when yee see these thyngs come to passe, know ye that the kingdome of God is neere.

32 Verily I say vnto you, This age shall not passe, till all these thyngs be done.

33 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

34 Take heede to your selues, lest at any time your hearts bee oppressed with surfeiting and drunkennesse, and cares of this life, and lest that day come on you at vnwares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch therefore, and pray continually, that ye may be counted worthy to escape all these thyngs that shall come to passe, and that ye may stand before the Sonne of man.

37 Now in the day time hee taught in the Temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Oliues.

his Priests house. 60 Peter denieth him thrise, and yet repenteth. 67 Christ is brought before the Countsell, where he maketh ample confession.

NOW the Feast of unleavened bread dyewe neere, which is called the Pascheouer.

2 And the high Priestes and Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entered Satan into Judas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelue.

4 And he went his way and communed with the high Priestes and captaynes, how he might betray him to them.

5 So they were glad, and agreed to giue him money.

6 And he consented and sought opportunitie to betray him unto them, when the people were away.

7 Then came the day of unleavened bread when the Pascheouer must be sacrificed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Goe and prepare vs the Pascheouer, that wee may eat it.

9 And they said to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare it?

10 Then hee said unto them, Behold, when yee be entered into the citie, there shall a man meete you, beaering a picher of water: follow him into the house that hee entereth in.

11 And say to the good man of the house, The Master sayeth vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eat my Pascheouer with my Disciples?

12 Then hee shall shew you a great high chamber trimmed, there make it ready.

13 So they went and found as hee had said vnto them, and made ready the Pascheouer.

14 And when the houre was come, he sat downe, and the twelue Apostles with him.

15 Then he said vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eat this Pascheouer with you before I suffer.

16 For I say vnto you, Henceforth I will not eat of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

17 And he tooke the cup, & gaue thanks, and said, Take this, and diuide it among you.

18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruite of the vine, vntill the kingdome of God be come.

19 And hee tooke bread, and when hee had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue to them, saying, This is my body, which is giuen for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after Supper he tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood which is shed for you.

21 Peter beheld, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And cruelly the Sonne of man goeth as it is appointed: but woe be to that man, by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it should be, that should doe that.

24 And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But hee said vnto them, The kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer them, are called Grauous lordes.

26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the least: and the chiefest as he that serueth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or hee that serueth? Is not hee that sitteth at table? And I am among you as hee that serueth.

28 And ye are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I appoint vnto you a kingdome, as my Father hath appointed to mee.

30 That ye may eat and drinke at my table in my kingdome, and sit on seats, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired you, to winnow you as wheate.

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith faile not: therefore when thou art conuicted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said vnto him, Lord, I am ready to goe with thee into prison, and to death.

34 But hee said, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crowe this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knowest me.

35 And hee said vnto them, When I sent you without bag, and scrip, and shoes, lacked yee any thing? And they sayd, Nothing.

36 Then he said to them, But now hee that hath a bag, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and hee that hath none, let him sell his coat, and buy a sword.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written must be performed in mee, *Euen with the wicked was hee numbered: for doubtlesse those things which are written of me, haue an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said vnto them, It is enough.

39 And hee came out, and went (as hee was wont) to the mount of Olives: and his Disciples also followed him.

40 And when he came to the place, hee said to them, Pray, lest yee enter into temptation.

41 And hee gate himselfe from them about a stones cast, and knierled downe and prayed.

42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this cup from mee: neuerthelesse, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angel vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in an agonie, hee prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was like dropes of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

45 And he rose up from prayer, and came to his disciples, and found them sleeping for heaviness.

46 And he said unto them, Why sleepe ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold, a company, and he that was called Judas one of the twelve, went before them, and came neere unto Iesus to kisse him.

48 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 Now when they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said vnto him, Lord, shall we fight with sword?

50 And one of them smote a servant of the high Priest, and strooke off his right eare.

51 Then Iesus answered, and said, Suffer them thus farre: and he touched his eare, and healed him.

52 Then Iesus sayd vnto the hie Priests, and captains of the Temple, and the Elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a thiefe with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the Temple, ye stretched not forth the hands against me: but this is your very houre, and the power of darkenesse.

57 But he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while, another man saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. But Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of an houre after, a certaine other affirmed, saying, Verely, euen this man was with him: for he is also a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediatly while he yet spake the cocke crew.

61 Then the Lord turned backe, and looked vpon Peter: and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said vnto him, Before the cocke crow, thou shalt denie me thrise.

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ And as soone as it was day, the Elders of the people, and the hie Priests and the Scribes came together and led him into their Councell, 67 Saying, Art thou the Christ? tell vs. And he said vnto them, If I tell you, ye will not beleue it.

68 And if also I aske you, ye will not answer me, nor let me goe.

69 ¶ Hereafter shall the Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Sonne of God? And he said to them, Ye say that I am.

71 Then sayd they, What neede we any further witness? for wee our selues haue heard it of his owne mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Iesus is brought before Pilate and Herod. 2 Of Barabbas. 36 Of Simon the Cyrenian. 37 The women make lamentation. 33 Christ crucified. 34 He prayeth for his enemies. 40 He conuerteth the thiefe and many others at his death. 53 and is buried.

¶ Then the whole multitude of them arose, and led him vnto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, Wee haue found this man peruertering the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, that he is Christ a king.

3 ¶ And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the hie Priests, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, We mouerth the people, teaching throughout all Iudaea, beginning at Galilee, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knew that he was of Herods iurisdiction, hee sent him to Herode, which was also at Ierusalem in those dayes.

8 And when Herod saw Iesus, hee was exceedingly gladd: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because hee had heard many things of him, and trusted to haue scene some signe done by him.

9 Then questioned hee with him of many things: but he answered him nothing.

10 The hie Priests also & Scribes stood forth, and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herod with his men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arrayed him in white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 And said vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerterth the people: and behold, I haue examined him before you, and haue found no fault in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him: and loe, nothing worthy of death is done him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

17 (For of necessity hee must haue let one loose vnto them at the feast.)

18 Then all the multitude cried at once, saying, Away with him, and deliver to vs vs Barabbas:

19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the cite, and murder, was cast in prison.

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

22 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euill hath he done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore chaunge him, and let him loose.

23 But they were instant with loud voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them, & of the hie Priests preuailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And hee let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to doe with him what they would.

26 ¶ And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the field, and on him they laid the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and said, ¶ Daughters of Ierusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

29 For behold, the daies will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, & the paps which neuer gaue sucke.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountaines, ¶ Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Couer vs.

31 ¶ For if they doe these things to a greene tree, what shall be done to the drie?

32 ¶ And there were two others, which were euill doers, led with him to be slaue.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called ¶ Caluerie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then said Iesus, Father, forgive them: for they know not what they doe. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood and behelde: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himselfe, if he be the Christ, the Chosen of God.

36 The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him vineger, 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

38 And a superscription also was written ouer him in Greeke letters, and in Latine, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

39 ¶ And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, ¶ Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 ¶ Wee are in deed righteously here: for wee receiue things worthy of that wee haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And hee said vnto Iesus, Lord remember mee when thou comest into thy kingdome.

43 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Verily I say vnto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in Paradiſe.

44 ¶ And it was about the 6th houre: and there was a darkenesse ouer all the land, vntill the ninth houre.

45 And the Sunne was darkened, and the vails of the Temple rent through the middes.

46 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and sayd, ¶ Father, into thine hands I commend my spirit. And when he had thus said, he gaue up the ghost.

47 ¶ Now when the 10th Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, ¶ A surety this man was iust.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stood asawe off, and the women that followed him from Galilee, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And behold, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a Counsellor, a good man and a iust.

51 He did not consent to the counsel and deed of them, which was of Arimathea, a city of the Iewes: who also himselfe ¶ waited for the kingdome of God.

52 Hee went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus, 53 And tooke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laide it in a tombe between out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet layde.

54 And that day was the ¶ Preparation, and the Sabbath ¶ drew on.

55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galilee, beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was layd.

56 And they returned, and prepared odours and oymments, and rested the Sabbath day, according to the commandement.

7 Saying, that the Sonne of man must bee deliuered into the hands of sinfull men, and be crucified, & the third day rise againe.

8 And they remembred his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things vnto the eluen, and to all the remnant.

10 Now it was Mary Magdalene, and Ioanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and ranne vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linnen clothes layd by themselves, and departed wondering in himselfe, at that which was come to passe.

13 ¶ And behold, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem aboute threescore furlongs, called Emmaus.

14 And they talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe drew neere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they could not know him:

17 And he said vnto them, What manner of communications are these that yet haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered, and said vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Ierusalem, & hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein, in these dayes?

19 And hee sayd vnto them, What things? And they said vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet mightie in deed and in word before God, and all the people.

20 And how the high Priest and our rulers deliuered him to see condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had bene hee that should haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

22 Yea, and certaine women among vs made vs astonished, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And when they found not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also scene a vision of Angels, which said, that hee was aliue.

24 Therefore certaine of them which were with vs, went to the Sepulchre, and found it even so as the woman had said, but him they saw not.

25 Then he said vnto them, O fooles, and slow of heart to beleue all that the Prophets haue spoken, 26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And he began at Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew neere vnto the towne which they went to, but he made as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is toward night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tary with them.

30 And it came to passe as hee sat at table with them, he tooke the bread, and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him: but hee was taken out of their sight.

32 And they said betweene themselves, did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when hee opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the eluen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which said, The Lord is risen in deed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they spake these things, Iesus himselfe stood in the midst of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed and afraide, supposing that they had scene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye troubled, and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold mine hands and my feet: for it is I my selfe: handle mee, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, and ye see me haue.

40 And when hee had thus spoken, hee shewed them his hands and feet.

41 And while they yet beleued not for ioy, and wondered, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meat?

42 And they gaue him a peece of a broyled fish, and of an hony combe.

43 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must bee fulfilled which are written of mee in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus it is written, & thus it behooued Christ to suffer, and to rise againe from the dead the third day,

47 And that repentance and remission of sinnes should be preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things.

¶ The beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and that Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by it, and without it was made nothing that was made.

4 In it was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in the darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God whose name was Iohn.

7 The same came for a witnesse, to beare witness of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.

8 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witness of the light.

9 That was true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, & the world was made by him: & the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his owne, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them he gave power to be the sonnes of God, even to them that beleeue in his Name,

13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 ¶ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and wee saw the glory thereof, as of the only begotten Sonne of the Father) full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ Iohn bare witness of him, and cryed, saying, This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after mee, is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulnesse haue all wee received, and grace for grace.

17 For the Law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Iesus Christ.

18 ¶ No man hath serued God at any time: the only begotten Son, which is in the bosome of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ Then this is the record of Iohn, when the Jewes sent Priests and Levites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed and denied not, and says plainly, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? and he said, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? and he answered, No.

22 Then says they vnto him, Who art thou, that wee may giue an answer to them that sent vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe?

23 He said, I am the voyce of him that cryeth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Elias.

24 Now they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou bee not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.

27 ¶ He it is that cometh after me, which is preferred before me, whose shoe I latchet I am not worthy to vnloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan, where Iohn did baptize.

29 ¶ The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming vnto him, and sayth, Behold the Lambe of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but because he should be declared to Israel, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a dove, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, hee sayd vnto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit come downe, and tarry stil on him, that is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record, that this is the Sonne of God.

35 ¶ The next day, Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples:

36 And he beheld Iesus walking by, and sayd, Behold the Lambe of God.

37 And the two Disciples heard him speake, and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, and saw them follow, and sayd vnto them, What seek ye? And they sayd vnto him, Rabbi, (which is to say by interpretation, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 Hee sayd vnto them, Come and see. They came and saw where hee dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth houre.

CHAP. II.

¶ 3 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 Hee driueth the buyers and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 Hee conuerteth many, and distrusteth man.

¶ And the third day was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his Disciples to the marriage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus sayd vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His Mother sayd vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he sayth vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone after the manner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 And Iesus sayd vnto them, Fill the water-pots with water. Then they filled them vpon the bosome.

8 Then hee sayd vnto them, Draw out now, and beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knew not whence it was, but the seruants which drew the water, knew) the gouernour of the feast called the butlegroune,

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forth good wine, and when they haue well drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill now.

15 Then he made a scourge of small cords, and drave them all out of the Temple with the sheepe & oxen, and powred out the changers money, and ouerthrew the Tables,

16 And sayd vnto them that sold doves, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, * The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and sayd vnto him, What || signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Destroy this Temple, and in thre dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Forty and six peres was this Temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in thre dayes?

21 But hee spake of the Temple of his body.

22 As soone therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that hee thus sayd vnto them: and they beleued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had said.

23 Now when hee was at Ierusalem at the Passouer in the feast, many beleued in his name, when they saw his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knew them all,

25 And had no neede that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and bee

5 Jesus answered, Truely, verily I say vnto thee, except that a man bee borne of water and of the Spirit, hee cannot enter into the Kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: and that that is borne of the Spirit, is Spirit.

7 Whatelike not that I sayd to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst goeth: So is every man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and sayd vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered, and said vnto him,
Art thou a teacher of Israel and knowest not these things?

11 Truely, verily I say vnto thee, wee speake that we know, and testifie that wee haue seene: but ye receiue not our witness.

12 If when I tell you earthly things, ye beleeue not, how should ye beleeue if I shall tell you of heavenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

14 And as Moyses lift vp the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Sonne of man be lift vp.

15 That whosoever beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternall life.

16 For God so loued the world, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoever beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue euermore life.

17 For God sent not his Sonne into the world, that he should condemne the world, but that the world through him might be saued.

18 He that beleeueth in him, shall not bee condemned: but hee that beleeueth not, is condemned already, because he beleeueth not in the Name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loued darknesse rather then light, because their deeds were euill.

20 For every man that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither cometh to light, least his deeds should be reprobated.

21 But he that doeth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds might be made manifest, that they are wrought according to God.

22 When these things came Jesus & his disciples into the land of Iudea, and there taried with him, and baptized.

23 And John also baptized in Enon, besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For John was not yett calt into prison.

25 Then there arose a question betwene
Johns disciples and the Iewes, about yhurisping.

26 And they came vnto John, and said vnto him, Rabbi, hee that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whom thou barest witnes, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered, and sayd, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that I sayd, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 Hee that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friend of the bridegrome, which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegromes voyce.
This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

30 Hee must increase, but I must decrease.

31 Hee that is come from on hie, is aboue all: he that is of the earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: hee that is come from heauen, is aboue all.

32 And what hee hath seene and heard, that hee testifieth: but no man receiveth his testimony.

33 Hee that hath receiued his testimony, hath sealed that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by measure.

35 The Father loueth the Sonne, and hath giuen all things into his hand.

36 He that beleeueth in the Sonne, hath

11 The woman said vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

13 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst againe.

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more thirsty: but the water that I shall giue him, shall be in him a well of water, springing vp into everlasting life.

15 The woman said vnto him, Sir, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.

16 Iesus said vnto her, So, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and said, I haue no husband. Iesus sayd to her, Thou hast well sayd, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast, is not thine husband: that saidst thou truely.

19 The woman said vnto him, Sir, I see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and yee say that in Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus sayd vnto her, Woman, beleeme me, the houre commeth, when yee shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship that which yee know not: we worship that which we know: for saluation is of the Jewes.

23 But the houre commeth, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: for the Father requirerth euen such to worship him.

24 God is a Spirit and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and truth.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know well that Messias shall come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus sayd vnto her, I am hee that speake vnto thee.

27 And vpon that came his disciples, and maruelled that hee talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What askest thou: or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the city, and said to the men.

29 Come, see a man which hath told me all things that euer I did: Is not hee the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the cite, and came vnto him.

31 In the meane while the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he sayd vnto them, I haue meate to eat, that yee knowe not of.

33 Then sayd the disciples between themselves, Hath any man brought him meate?

34 Iesus sayd vnto them, My meate is, that I may do the will of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, and then commeth haruest: Behold, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: for they are white already vnto haruest.

36 And he that reapeth, receiueth wages and gathereth fruit vnto life eternall, that both hee that soweth, and hee that reapeth, might reioyce together.

37 For herein is the saying true, that one soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reape that, whereon yee bestow no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.

39 Now many of the Samaritanes of that city beleued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, He hath told me all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him that hee would tary with them: and hee abode there two dayes.

41 And many more beleued because of his owne word.

42 And they said vnto the woman, Now we beleue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and know that this is indeed the Christ the Saviour of the world.

43 So two dayes after, hee departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Iesus himselfe had testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne country.

45 Then when hee was come into Galilee, the Galileans receiued him, which had seene all the things that hee did at Ierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.

46 And Iesus came againe into Cana a towne of Galilee, where he had made of water wine. And there was a certaine ruler whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iuda into Galilee, he went vnto him, and besought him that he would go downe, and heale his sonne: for hee was then ready to die.

48 Then said Iesus vnto him, Except yee see signes and wonders, yee will not beleue.

49 The Ruler sayd vnto him, Sir, goe downe before my sonne die.

2 And there is at Ierusalem by the place of the sheepe, a poole called in Chiew Berethsa, hauing five porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blind, halt, and withered, wait- ing for the moving of the water.

4 For an Angel went down at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of what- soeuer disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeeres.

6 When Iesus saw him lie, and knew that he now long time had been diseased, hee said vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before mee.

8 Iesus saide vnto him, Rise: take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: * it is not lawfull for thee to carie thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made mee whole, hee said vnto mee, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And hee that was healed, knew not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and said vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: * sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did perse- cute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because hee had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My Fa- ther worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and saide vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of himselfe, saue that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoever things hee doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loneth the Sonne, and sheweth him all things, whatsoever he himselfe doeth, and he will shew him greater workes then these, that yee should mar- uille.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all iudgement vnto the Sonne, 23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne as they honour the Father: hee that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

26 For as the Father hath life in himselfe, so likewise hath hee giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe, 27 And hath giuen him power also to execute iudgement, in that he is the Sonne of man.

28 Maruill not at this: for the houre shall come, in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, * that haue done good vnto the resurrection of life, but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrec- tion of condemnation.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread and gaue thanks, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were satified, he said vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that nothing bee lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the fine barley loaves, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a truer the Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come, and take him to make him a King, he departed againe into a moun-taine himselfe alone.

16 When euen was now come, his disciples went downe vnto the Sea,

17 * And entred into a ship, and went ouer the Sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the Sea arose with a great wind that blew.

19 And when they had rowed about five and twenty, or thirtie furlongs, they saw Iesus walking on the Sea, and drawing neere vnto the ship: so they were afraid.

20 But he said vnto them, It is I: bee not afraid.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship: and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 The day following, the people which stood on the other side of the Sea, saw that there was none other ship there, saue that one, where into his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone alone.

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias neere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.

24 Now when the people saw that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also rooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the Sea, they said vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and said, Verily, verily I say vnto you, ye seeke me not, because ye saw the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for the meate that endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the Sonne of man shall giue vnto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they vnto him, What shall we doe, that we might worke the works of God?

29 Iesus answered, and said vnto them,
* This is the worke of God, that ye beleue in him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we may see it, and beleue thee? what doest thou worke?

desert, as it is^r written, He gaue them bread from heauen to eate.

32 Then Iesus saide vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you,^s Moles gaue you not bread from heauen, but my Father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is he which commeth downe from heauen, and giueth life vnto the world.

34 Then they sayd vnto him, Lord, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus sayde vnto them, I am the bread of life: hee that commeth to mee, shall not hunger, and^t hee that beleueth in mee, shall^u neuer chafe.

36 But I sayd vnto you, that ye also haue sene me, and beleue not.

37 All that the Father giueth me, shall come to me: and him that commeth to mee,
I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to doe mine owne will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath giuen me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every man which seeth the Sonne, and beleueth in him, should haue euerlas-ting life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because hee sayde, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

42 And they sayd, Is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose Father and Mother we know: how then latch he, I came downe from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, and sayd vnto them, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can come to mee, except the Father which hath sent me, & draw him, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the^v Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, commeth vnto me.

46 Not that any man hath sene the Father: for hee which is of God, hee hath sene the Father.

47 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleueth in mee, hath euerlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 Your Fathers did eat Manna in the wildernesse, and are dead.

50 This is the bread, which commeth downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it should not die.

51 I am the^w liuing bread which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this bread, hee shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 Then the Iewes stroue among themselues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue no^x life in you.

54 Whosoever^y eateth my flesh, and drink-eth my blood, hath eternall life, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drinke indeed.

56 He^z that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood,^z dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the liuing Father, hath sent me, so liue I by the Father, and hee that eateth me, euen he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake hee in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his Disciples (when they heard this) said, This is an hard saying:
who can^a heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his Disciples murmured at this, sayde vnto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man^b ascend vp^b were he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh^c profiteth nothing: the wordes that I spake vnto you, are Spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleue not: for Iesus knewe from the beginning which they were that beleued not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Iesus to the twelue, Will ye also goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whom shall we goe: thou hast
the wordes of^d eternall life:

69 And we beleue, and knowe that thou art^e the Christ the sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iesus answered them, Haue not I chosen you twelue, and one^f of you is a Deuill?

71 Now he spake it of Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelue.

5 For as yet his brethren beleueed not in him.

6 Then Iesus said vnto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway readie.

b Why the world hateth Christ.

c Christ doeth not utterly deny that he would go to the feast, but significeth that as yet he was not fully determined.

7 The world cannot hate you: but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are euill.

8 Go ye vp vnto this feast, I will not goe by yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 These things he said vnto them, and abode still in Galilee.

10 But as soone as his brethren were gone vp, then went hee also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuily.

11 Then the Jewes sought him at the feast, and said, Where is hee?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some said, He is a good man: other said, Nay, but he deceiueth the people.

d These were the heads of the people, who did enuie Christ, Or, letters, 13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Jewes.

14 Now when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Jewes murmured, saying, How knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

e In that, that he is man onely.

16 Iesus answered them, and sayde, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

f By this marke wee may know whether the doctrine be of God or of man, g Nothing counterfeit or vntrue.

18 He that speaketh of himselfe, seeketh his owne glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no vnrighteousnesse is in him.

19 Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law? Why go ye about to kill me?

Exo. 24. 3. Chap. 5. 18.

20 The people answered, and sayde, Thou hast a deuill: who goeth about to kill thee?

h Who did not know the fetch of the Scribes,

21 Iesus answered, and sayde to them, I haue done one worke and yett all maruilled.

i Because I did it on the Sabbath day.

22 Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision (not because it is of Moses, but of the Fathers) and yett on the Sabbath day circumsise a man.

Leuit. 12. 3. Gen. 17. 10.

24 Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.

Or, freely.

25 Then said some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this hee, whom they goe about to kill?

26 And beholde, hee speaketh openly, and they say nothing to him: doe the Rulers knowe in deede, that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit wee know this man whence he is: but when the Christ commeth, no man shall know whence he is.

28 Then cryed Iesus in the Temple as hee taught, saying, Ye both know mee, & hee speaketh and know whence I am: yett am I not come this, as it were of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom scornfully, ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man laid handes on him, because his houre was not yett come.

31 Now many of the people beleueed in him, and sayd, When the Christ commeth, will he doe moe miracles then this man hath done?

l They were well minded to heare him: which preparation is here called (although improperly) faith.

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharisees and high Priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Iesus vnto them, Yett am I a little while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.

m He sheweth vnto them that they haue no power ouer him til the time come that his Father hath ordained.

34 Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde me, and where I am, can ye not come.

Chap. 13. 33. Or, shall be,

35 Then sayde the Jewes among themselves, Whither will hee goe, that wee shall not finde him? Will hee goe vnto them that are dispersed among the Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he said, Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde mee? and where I am can ye not come?

n Among the Jewes which were scattered here and there among the Gentiles.

37 Now in the last and great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto mee, and drinke.

38 Hee that beleueneth in me, as sayth the Scripture, out of his belly shall flow riuers of water of life.

39 This spake he of the Spirit which they that beleuened in him, should receiue: for the holy Ghost was not yett giuen, because that Iesus was not yett glorified.

q These were the visible graces which were given to the Apostles, after his ascension.

43 So was there dissention among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man laid hands on him.

r They looked for some notable Prophet besides the Messias.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priests and Pharisees, and they sayde vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

51 Doeth our Law iudge a man before it heare him, and know what hee hath done?

Chap. 3. 2. Dent. 17. 8. and 19. 15.

52 They answered and said vnto him, Art thou also of Galilee search and looke for out of Galilee artst thou no Prophet.

53 And every man went vnto his owne house.

CHAP. VIII.

11 Christ deliuereth her that was taken in adultery.

12 He is the light of the world. 14 He sheweth from whence he is come, wherefore, and whither hee goeth. 32 Who are free and who are bond. 34 Of freemen and slaves, and their reward. 46 Hee despiseth his enemies. 59 And being persecuted withdraweth himselfe.

And Iesus went vnto the mount of Olives,

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, & all the people came vnto him, and hee saue bowne, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees brought vnto him a woman, taken in adultery, and set her in the midst,

4 And said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moses in the Law commanded vs, that such should be stoned: What sayest thou therefore?

6 And this they said to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to accuse him. But Iesus stooped downe, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him, hee lift himselfe vp, and said vnto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe hee stooped downe, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Iesus had lift vp himselfe againe, and saw no man, but the woman, hee said vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus said, Neither doe I condemne thee: go and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth mee, shall not walke in darkenesse, but shall haue the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not true.

14 Iesus answered and said vnto them, Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I goe.

15 Pee iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Lawe, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that beare witness of my selfe, and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Pee neither know mee, nor my Father. If pee had knowne me, pee should haue knowne my Father also.

20 These words spake Iesus in the streets, as hee taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then said the Jewes, Will he kill himselfe, because he saith, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, I pee are from beneath: I am from above: pee are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I sayd therefore vnto you, That pee shall die in your sinnes: for except pee beleeue, that I am hee, pee shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then said they vnto him, What art thou? And Iesus said vnto them, Euen the same thing that I said vnto you from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, & to iudge of you: but hee that sent mee, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They understood not that hee spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Iesus vnto them, When ye haue lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye know that I am hee, and that I doe nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For hee that sent me is with mee: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 As he spake these things many beleeued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Jewes which beleeued in him, If ye continue in my word, ye are verely my disciples, 32 And shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, Wee hee Abrahams seede, and were neuer bound to any man: why sayest thou then, We shall be made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that whosoever committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that pee are Abrahams seede, but ye seeke to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seen with my Father: and ye doe that which pee haue seene with your father.

39 They answered and said vnto him, Abraham is our father. Iesus sayd vnto them, 45 And because I tell you the truth, ye beleue me not.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the truth, why doe ye not beleue me?

47 Hee that is of God, heareth Gods words: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, Say we not well, that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuill?

49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuill, but I honour my Father, and ye haue dishonoured me.

50 And I seeke not mine owne praise: but there is one that seeketh it, and y iudgeth.

51 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If a man keepe my word, he shall neuer see death.

52 Then sayd the Iewes to him, Howe know we that thou hast the deuill. Abraham is dead, and the Prophets, and thou sayest, If a man keepe my word, he shall neuer taste of death.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham which is dead? And the Prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe?

54 Iesus answered, If I honour my selfe, mine honour is nothing worth: it is my Father that honourerh me, whom ye say, that he is your God.

55 Yet ye haue not knowen him: but I know him, and if I should say I know him not, I should bee a lyer like vnto you: but I know him, and keepe his word.

56 Your father Abraham reioyced to see my day, and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Iewes vnto him, Thou art not yet fifty yeere old, and hast thou seene Abraham?

58 Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then tooke they vp stones to cast at him, but Iesus hid himselfe, and went out of the Temple.

CHAP. IX.

1 Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blinde man Christ giueth sight.

AND as Iesus passed by, he saw a man which was blinde from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the workes of God should be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 As soone as he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay,

7 And said vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent) He went his way therefore and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when he was blinde, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is hee, and others said, He is like him: but hee himselfe said, I am he.

10 Therefore they said vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said vnto me, Goe to the poole of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they said vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, how he had receiued sight. And he said vnto them, He said clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then said some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a dissention among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because hee hath opened thine eyes? And he said, Hee is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleue him (that he had bin blinde, & receiued his sight) vntill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say was borne blinde? How doth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and sayd, We know that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes hee now seeth, wee knowe not: or who hath opened his eyes: can wee not tell: hee is olde enough: aske him, hee shall answer for himselfe.

22 These wordes spake his parents, because a God doth not alwayes punish men for their sinnes.

b When opportunity and the season serueth. Chap. 1. 9. and 8. 12. and 12. 35.

c This was not for any vertue that was in the earth, in the spittle, or in the clay, to make one see: but it onely pleased him to vse these signes and means. d Hereby was prefigured the Medias, who should besent vnto them.

e They durst not speake the truth for feare they should be excommunicate.

cause they feared the Jewes: for the Jewes had ordeined already, that if any man did confesse that he was the Christ, he should be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, he is old enough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that had bene blinde, and said vnto him, f Goe glory vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered and said, Whether hee bee a sinner or no, I cannot tell: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

26 h Then sayd they to him againe, What did hee to thee, how opened he thine eyes?

27 Hee answered them, I haue tolde you already, and yet haue not heard it: wherefore would yee heare it againe? i will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, and said, Wee thou his discipule: we be Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: but this man we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and said vnto them, Doubles this is a marvellous thing that ye know not whence hee is, and yet hee hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man bee a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him heareth he.

32 Since the world began, was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he could haue done nothing.

34 They answered, and said vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and dost thou teach vs: so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had cast him out: and when hee had found him, he said vnto him, Dost thou beleue in the Sonne of God?

36 Hee answered, and said, Who is hee, Lord, that I may beleue in him?

37 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then sayd he, Lord, I beleue, and worshipped him.

39 And Iesus saide, I am come vnto iudgement into this world, that they which see not, might see: and that they which see, might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these things, and said vnto him, Are we blind also?

41 Iesus said vnto them, If yee were blind, ye should not haue sinne: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sinne remaineth.

CHAP. X.

11 Christ is the true Shepheard, and the doore. 19 Dismiss opinions of Christ. 24 He is asked if he be Christ 32 His workes declare that he is God. 34 The Priests called Gods.

V Erely, verely I say vnto you, Hee that entreteth not in by the doore into the sheepfold, but climbeth by another way, hee is a thief, and a robber.

2 But he that goeth in by the doore, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voyce, and hee calleth off his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he hath sent forth his owne sheepe, hee goeth before them, and the sheepe follow him: for they knew his voyce.

5 And they wil not follow a stranger, but they flee from him: for they know not the voyce of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstood not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the doore of the sheepe.

8 All, that euer came before mee, are thieves and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the doore: by me if any man enter in, he shall bee saued, and shall goe in and goe out, and find pasture.

10 The thiefe cometh not, but for to steale, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

11 I am the good shepheard: the good shepheard giueth his life for his sheepe.

12 But an hireling, and hee which is not the shepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe coming, and hee leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the sheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because hee is an hireling, and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good shepheard, and know mine, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my sheepe.

16 Whether sheepe I haue also, which are not of this fold: them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voyce: and there shall be one sheepfold, and one shepheard.

17 Therefore doth my Father loue me, because I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from mee, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this I commaundement haue I receiued of my Father.

19 Then there was a dissention againe among the Jewes for these sayings.

20 And many of them sayd, Hee hath a deuill, and is mad: why beare ye him?

21 Other said, These are not the words of him that hath a deuill: can the deuill open the eyes of the blind?

22 And it was at Ierusalem the feast of the Dedication, and it was winter.

CHAP. XI.

4.3 Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The high Priests and Phari'ses gather a counsell against him 50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

And a certain man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Mary, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that Mary which anointed the Lord with oymment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.

3 Therefore his sisters lent vnto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, hee sayd, This sickness is not vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might bee glorified thereby.

5 Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after that hee heard that he was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, said he to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples said vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to stone thee, and dost thou goe thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day? if a man walke in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee stumbleth because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake hee, and after hee sayd vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I goe to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, hee shall be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleeue: but let vs goe vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

17 Then came Iesus, and found that hee had lien in the graue four dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was neere vnto Ierusalem, about fiftene furlongs off)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Mary to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was coming, went to meet him: but Mary late still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not been dead.

22 But now I know also, that whatsoeuer thou alkest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleeueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whosoever liueth and beleeueth in me, shall neuer die. Beleeuest thou this?

27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleeue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly and came vnto him.

32 Then when Marie was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell downe at his feete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weepe, and the Iewes also weepe which came with her, hee groined in the spirit, and was troubled in himselfe, 34 And sayd, Where haue ye layd him? They sayd vnto him, Lord, come and see.

35 And Jesus wept.

36 Then sayd the Iewes, Behold, how he loued him.

37 And some of them said, Could not he, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also that this man should not haue died?

38 Jesus therefore againe groined in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layd vpon it.

39 Jesus sayd, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Jesus sayde vnto her, Sayd I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleue, thou shouldst see the glory of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was layd. And Jesus lift vp his eyes, and sayd, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I know that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I sayd it, that they may beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As hee had spoken these things, hee cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foote with bandes, and his face was bound with a napkin. Jesus sayd vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 Then many of the Iewes which came to Marie, and had seene the things, which Jesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharises, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priestes, and the Pharises a council, and sayd, What shall we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If wee let him thus alone, all men will beleue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Calaphas, which was the hie Priest that same yeere, said vnto them, We perceiue nothing at all,

50 But yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake he not of himselfe: but being hie Priest that same yeere, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation onely, but that he should gather together in one the children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey neere to the wilderness, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Iewes Pascheouer was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vnto Ierusalem before the Pascheouer, to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he cometh not to the feast?

57 Now both the hie Priestes and the Pharises had giuen a commandement, that if any man knew where hee were, hee should shew it, that they might take him.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Marie a pound of oymment of spikenard very costly, and anoynted Jesus feete, and wiped his feete with her haire, and the house was filled with the sauiour of the oymment.

4 Then said one of his disciples, even Iudas Iscariot Simons sonne, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this oymment sold for three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 Now hee sayd this, not that he cared for the poore, but because he was a thiefe, and had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying she kept it.

8 For the poore alwayes yee haue with you, but me ye shall not haue alwayes.

9 Then much people of the Iewes knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom hee had rayled from the dead.

38 That the saying of Elisas the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he said, * Lord, who beleuen our report? and to whom is the * arme of the Lord reuelled?

39 Therefore could they not beleue, because that Elisas saith againe, 40 * He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor vnderstand with their heart, and should be conuerted, and I should heale them.

41 These things sayd Elisas when hee saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 Neuertheless men among the chiefe rulers many beleuened in him: but because of the Pharisees, they did not confesse him, lest they should be cast out of the Synagogue.

43 * For they loued the * prayse of men, more then the prayse of God.

44 And Iesus cryed, and sayd, Vee that beleueth in mee, beleueth not in mee, but in him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I * am come a light into the world, that whosoever beleueth in mee, should not abide in darkenesse.

47 * And if any man heare my wordes, and beleueth not, I iudge him not: for I came not to iudge the world, but to saue the world.

48 He that refuseth me, and receiveth not my wordes, hath one that iudgeth him: * the world that I haue spoken, it shall iudge him in the last day.

49 For I haue not spoken of my selfe: but the Father, which sent me, hee gaue mee a commandement what I should say, and what I should speake.

50 And I know that his commandement is life euercasting: the things therefore that I speake, I speake them so as the Father sayd vnto me.

2 And when ſupper was done, (and that the deuill had now put in the heart of Iudas Iſcariot, Simons ſonne, to betray him.)

3 Ieſus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, & that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riſeth from ſupper, and layeth aſide his vpper garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himſelfe.

5 After that, he powred water into a baſen, and began to waſh the diſciples feet, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who ſaid to him, Lord doſt thou waſh my feet?

7 Ieſus answered and ſaid vnto him, What I doe, thou knoweſt not now: but thou ſhalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter ſaid vnto him, Thou ſhalt neuer waſh my feet. Ieſus answered him, If I waſh thee not, thou ſhalt haue no part with me.

9 Simon Peter ſaid vnto him, Lord, not my feet onely, but alſo the handes and the head.

10 Ieſus ſaid to him, Hee that is waſhed, needeth not, ſaue to waſh his feet, but is cleane euerie whit: and ye are cleane, but not all.

11 For he knew who ſhould betray him: therefore ſaid he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 So after he had waſhed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was ſet downe againe, he ſaid vnto them, Know ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Maſter, and Lord, and yet ſay well: for ſo am I.

14 If I then your Lord and Maſter haue waſhed your feet, yet alſo ought to waſh one anothers feet.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye ſhould doe, euen as I haue done to you.

16 Merely, verily I ſay vnto you, The ſervant is not greater then his maſter, neither the ambalaſſadour greater then hee that ſent him.

17 If ye know theſe things, bleſſed are ye if ye doe them.

18 I ſpeake not of you all: I knowe whom I haue choſen: but it is that the ſcripture might be fulfilled, He that catech bzead with me, hath liſt vp his heele againſt mee.

19 From henceforth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to paſſe, ye might beleeue that I am he.

20 Merely, verily I ſay vnto you, If I ſend any, hee that receiveth him, receiveth me, and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that ſent me.

21 When Ieſus had ſaid theſe things, he was troubled in the ſpirit, and teſtified, and ſaid, Verily, verily I ſay vnto you, that one of you ſhall betray me.

22 Then the diſciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he ſpoke.

23 Now there was one of his diſciples, which leaned on Ieſus' boſome, whom Ieſus loved.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that hee ſhould aſke who it was of whom he ſpoke.

25 Hee then, as he leaned on Ieſus breſt ſayd vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Ieſus answered, He it is, to whom I ſhall giue a ſop, when I haue dipped it: and he wet a ſop, and gaue it to Iudas Iſcariot, Simons ſonne.

27 And after the ſop, Satan entred in to him. Then ſaid Ieſus vnto him, That thou doeſt, doe quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knew for what cauſe he ſpoke it vnto him.

29 For ſome of them thought becauſe Iudas had the bagge, that Ieſus had ſaid vnto him, Buy theſe things which we haue need of againſt the feaſt: or that hee ſhould giue ſome thing to the poore.

30 Alſoone then as hee had receiued the ſop, hee went immediatly out, and it was night.

31 When he was gone out, Ieſus ſaid, Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God ſhall alſo glorifie him in himſelfe, & ſhall ſtraightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: ye ſhall ſeeke me, but as I ſaid vnto the Jewes, Whither I goe, can ye not come: alſo to you ſay I now, 34 A new commandment giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loved you, that ye alſo loue one another.

35 By this ſhall all men know that ye are my diſciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter ſayd vnto him, Lord, whither goeſt thou? Ieſus answered him, Whither I goe, thou canſt not follow me now: but thou ſhalt follow me after wards.

37 Peter ſaid vnto him, Lord, why can I not follow thee now? I will lay downe my life for thy ſake.

38 Ieſus answered him, Wiſt thou lay downe thy life for my ſake? Verily, verily I ſay vnto thee, The cocke ſhall not crow, till thou haue denied me thrice.

my Father: how then sayest thou, Shewe vs me for the very workes sake.

12 Verely, verely I say unto you, hee that believeth in me, the workes that I do, he shal doe also, and greater then these shal he doe:
for I goe unto my Father.

13 And what sooner ye aske in my Name, that will I doe, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.

14 If ye shal aske any thing in my Name, shall give you another Comforter, that hee may abide with you for ever, world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him:

for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you comfortlesse: but I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world shall see me no more, but ye shall see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day shall ye know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 Hee that hath my commandements, and keepeth them, is he that loveth mee: and he that loveth mee, shall be loved of my Father: and I will love him, and will shewe mine owne selfe to him.

22 Iudas said unto him (not Iscariot)
Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shew thy selfe unto vs, and not unto the world?

23 Iesus answered, and said unto him,
If any man love mee, hee will keepe my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and will dwell with him.

24 Hee that loveth mee not, keepeth not my wordes, and the word which yee heare, mee, yee would verily rejoyce, because I said I goe unto the Father: for my Father is things unto you: for the prince of this

CHAP. XV.

6 The sweet consolation, and mutual love between Christ and his members, under the parable of the vine.

18 Of their common afflictions and persecutions. 26
The office of the holy Ghost and the Apostles.

I Am the true Vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 Every branch that beareth not fruit in mee, hee taketh away: and every one that beareth fruit, hee purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now are ye cleane through the word, which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide in mee, and I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruit of it selfe, except it abide in me, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the Vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in mee, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me can ye doe nothing.

6 If a man abide not in mee, he is cast forth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in mee, and my wordes abide in you, aske what yee will, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruit, and be made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved mee, so haue
I loved you: continue in my love.

10 If yee shall keepe my commandements, yee shall abide in my love, as I haue kept my Fathers commandements, and abide in his love.

11 These things haue I spoken unto you, that my love might remaine in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandement, that ye love one another, as I haue loved you.

13 Greater love then this hath no man, when any man bestoweth his life for his friends.

uer I command you.

chosen you, and ordeined you, that hee goe and bring forth fruite, and that your fruite remaine, that whatsoever yee shall aske of the Father in my Name, hee may giue it you.

17 These things command I you, that ye loue one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before you.

19 If yee were of the world, the world would loue his owne: but because yee are not of the world, but I haue chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his master. * If they haue persecuted mee, they will persecute you also: if they haue kept my word, they will also keepe yours.

21 But all these things will they doe vnto you for my Names sake, because they haue not known him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken vnto them, they should not haue had sinne: but now haue they no cloke for their sinne.

23 He that hateth mee, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done workes among them which none other man did, they had not had sinne: but now haue they both scene, and haue hated both mee and my Father.

25 But it is that the word might be fulfilled, that is written in their Law, * They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter shall come, whom I will send vnto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth of the Father, he shall testifie of me.

27 And ye shall witnesse also, because yee haue bene with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

2 Hee putteth them in remembrance of the crosse, and of their owne infirmities to come, 7 and therefore doeth comfort them with the promise of the holy Ghost. 16 Of the coming againe of Christ. 17 Of his ascension. 23 To aske in the Name of Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world of iustice.

These things haue I said vnto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall excommunicate you, yea, the time shall come, that whosoever killeth you, will thinke that he doeth Gods seruice.

3 And these things will they doe vnto you, because they haue not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I told you, that when the houre shall come, ye might remember that I tolde you them. And these things sayde I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I goe my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, * Whither goest thou? *

6 But because I haue sayd these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorrow.

7 Yet I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I goe not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sinne, and of righteousness, and of iudgement.

9 Of sinne, because they beleeue not in mee:

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye shall see me no more.

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

12 I haue yet many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot heare them now.

13 Howbeit, when hee is come which is the Spirit of truth, he will leade you into all truth: for hee shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoever he shall heare, shall hee speake, and he will shew you the things to come.

14 He shall glorifie me: for hee shall receiue of mine, and shall shew it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore sayd I, that he shall take of mine, and shew it vnto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and againe a little while, and ye shall see me: for I goe to my Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith vnto vs, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, A little while, and ye shall see me, and, For I goe to my Father?

18 They sayde therefore, What is this that hee saith, A little while? wee know not what he saith.

19 Now Iesus knew that they would aske him, and said vnto them, Doe ye enquire among your selues of that I sayde, A little while, and ye shall not see me? and againe, A little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily I say vnto you, that yee shall weepe and lament, and the world shall reioyce: and ye shall sorrow, but your sorrow shall be turned to ioy.

21 A woman when shee travaileth, hath sorrow, because her houre is come: but as soon as shee is deliuered of the child, shee remembereth no more the anguish, for ioy that a man is borne into the world.

22 And ye now therefore are in sorrow: but I will see you againe, and your hearts shall reioyce, and your ioy shall be no man take from you.

23 And in that day shall ye aske me nothing. Verily, verily I say vnto you, Whatsoever ye shall aske the Father in my Name, he will giue it you.

24 Hitherto haue yee asked nothing in my Name: aske and yee shall receiue, that your ioy may be full.

Or, conuince. This is to be vnderstood of the coming of the holy Ghost when his vertue and strength shall shiue in the Church. e His enemies which contemned him, and put him to death, shall be conuicted by their owne conscience, for that they did not beleeue in him, Acts 2. 37. and shall know that without Iesus Christ there is nothing but sinne.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receive the truth.

These things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, and said, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee.

2 As thou hast giuen him power ouer all flesh, that hee should giue eternall life to all them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they know thee to bee the onely very God, and whom thou hast sent, Iesus Christ.

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gavest me to doe.

5 And now glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy name vnto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them mee, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast giuen me are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the word, which thou gavest mee, and they haue receiued them, and haue knowne surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleueued that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world: but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, & I come to thee. Holy Father keepe them in thy name, euen them whom thou hast giuen mee, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name, those that thou gavest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the child of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things speake I in the world, that they might haue my toy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I haue giuen them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepest them from euill.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctifie them with thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou didst send me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I myselfe, that they also may be sanctified through the truth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleue in me through their word.

21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in me, and I in thee: euen that they may bee also one in vs, that the world may beleue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gavest mee, I haue giuen them, that they may be one, as wee are one.

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfect in one, & that the world may know that thou hast sent mee, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, be with mee euen where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast giuen me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knowne thee, but I haue knowne thee, and these haue knowne that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loved me, may bee in them, and I in them.

3 * Judas then after he had receiued a band of men & Officers of the hie Priest, and of the Pharisees, came thither with lan-ternes and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth, and said vnto them, Whom seeke yee?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Iesus said vnto them, I am hee. Now Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Assoone then as he had said vnto them
 I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them againe, Whom seeke yee? And they said Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he, therefore if ye seeke me, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, * Of them which thou gauest me, haue I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the high Priest's seruant, and cut of his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put by thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen me?

12 Then the band and the captain, and the Officers of the Jewes tooke Iesus, and bound him.

13 And led him away to * Annas first (for he was father in Law to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest: the same yeece.)

14 * And Caiaphas was he that gaue counsell to the Jewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 * Now Simon Peter followed Ie-sus, and another disciple, and that disciple was known of the high Priest: therefore he went in with Iesus into the hall of the high Priest.

16 But Peter stood at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was known vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then said the maide that kept the doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he said, I am not.

18 And the seruants and Officers stood there, which had made a fire of coales: for it was colde, and they warmed themselves, and Peter also stood among them and warmed himselfe.

19 * (The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I neuer taught in the Synagogue, in the Temple, whither the Jewes resort continually, and in secret haue I said nothing.

21 Why askst thou me? ask them which heard me, what I said vnto them: behold they know what I said.

22 When he had spoken these things, one of the Officers which stood by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the high Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, if I haue euill spoken, beare witness of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 * Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.)

25 * And Simon Peter stood and warmed himselfe, and they said vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? he denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the high Priest, his cousin, whose eare Peter smote off, sayd, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediately the cocke crew.

28 * Then led they Iesus from Calaphas into the common hall. Now it was morning, and they themselues went not into the common hall, lest they should bee defiled, but that they might eat the Passover.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered, and said vnto him, If he were not an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Jewes said vnto him, It is not lawfull for vs to put any man to death.

32 It was that the word of Iesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 * So Pilate entered into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and said vnto him, Art thou the king of the Jewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered him, Am I a Jew?
 Thine owne nation and the high Priests haue deliuered thee vnto mee. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this world, if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Jewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a King then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witness vnto the truth:
 euery one that is of the truth, heareth my voyce.

38 Pilate said vnto him, What is truth? and when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Jewes, and said vnto them, I find in him no cause at all.

39 * But you haue a custome, that I should deliuer you one loofe at the Passover: will ye then that I loose vnto you the King of the Jewes?

40 * Then cryed they all againe, saying,
 Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murtherer.

a He thought to haue pacified the

Then Pilate tooke Iesus and scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted a Crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And said, Haile king of the Iewes.
And they smote him with their rods.

4 Then Pilate went forth againe, and said vnto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that yee may know, that I find no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus forth, wearing a Crowne of thornes, and a purple garment.
And Pilate said vnto them, Beholde the man.

6 Then when the high Priests and officers saw him they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himselfe the Sonne of God.

8 When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraid.

9 And went againe into the Common hall and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou?
But Iesus gaue him none answer.

10 Then said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from above: therefore hee that deliuered mee vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

12 From thenceforth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cæsars friend:
for whosoener maketh himselfe a king, speaketh against Cæsar.

13 When Pilate heard that worde, hee brought Iesus forth, and late downe in the iudgement seate in a place called the Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the Passouer, and about the first houre: and hee said vnto the Iewes, Behold your King.

15 But they cryed, away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Shall I crucifie your king? The high Priests answered, We haue no king but Cæsar.

16 Then deliuered hee him vnto them to be crucified. And they tooke Iesus and led him away.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens sculles, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the mids.

19 And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IN SVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified was neere to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, Greeke, and Latine.

21 Then said the high Priests of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that hee said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure parts, to euery souldier a part, and his coate, and the coate was without seame, wouen from the toppe thowout.

24 Therefore they said one to another,
Let vs not deuide it, but cast lots for it whose it shall be. This was that the Scripture might be fulfilled which saith, They parted my garments among them, and on my coatedid cast lots. So the souldiers did these things indeede.

25 Then stood by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister Marie the wife of Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus saw his mother and the Disciple standing by, whom hee loued, hee said vnto his mother, Woman, beholde
thy sonne.

27 Then said he to the Disciple, Behold thy mother: and from that houre the Disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 After, when Iesus knew that all things were performed, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessel full of vine-ger: and they filled a sponge with vineger, and put it vpon an hylope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vineger hee said, It is finished, and bowed his head and gaue vp the ghost.

31 The Iewes then, (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not re-maine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day:
for that Sabbath was an hie day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and saw that hee was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare perced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And hee that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and hee knoweth that hee saith true, that ye might beleue it.

36 For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shall be broken.

37 And againe another Scripture saith,

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why haue taken away my Lord, and I know not where they haue layd him.

14 When shee had thus said, shee turned knew not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepst thou? whom seekest thou? Shee supposing that it had bene the gardiner, sayde vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus saith vnto her, Mary. Shee turned her selfe, and said vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touch mee not, for I am not yet ascended to my Father,
but goe to my brethren, and say vnto them,
I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples, that shee had seene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 * The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the doores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Jewes, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and said to them,
Peace be vnto you.

20 And when he had so said, hee shewed vnto them his hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they had seene
the Lord.

21 Then sayde Iesus to them againe,
Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent mee,
so send I you.

22 And when hee had said that, hee breasted on them, and said vnto them, Receive the holy Ghost.

23 * Whosoever sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: and whosoever sinnes ye retaine, they are retained.

24 * But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore sayd vnto him, We haue seene the Lord: but he said vnto them, Except I see in his hands the print of the nayles, and put my finger into the print of the nayles, and put mine hand into his side, I will not beleue it.

26 * And eyght dayes after, againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus when the doores were shut, and stood in the midst, and sayde,
Peace be vnto you.

27 After, sayd he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see my hands, and put forth thy hand, and put it into my side, and bee-lieue that I haue said.

28 Then Thomas answered, and sayde vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus said vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene mee, thou believest: blessed are they that haue not seene, and haue be-lieued.

30 * And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his disciples, which

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his Disciples againe. 2 Hee commandeth Peter earnestly to feed his sheepe. 3 He forewarneth him of his death. 25 Of Christs manifold miracles.

After these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his Disciples at the Sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

12 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his Disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto him, I goe a fishing. They said vnto him, Wee also will goe with thee. They went their way and entered into a ship straightway, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheless the Disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

5 Iesus then said vnto him, || Sirs, haue ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefoze said the disciple whome Iesus loued vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, hee girded his coat to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by ship (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits) and they drew the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they saw hore coales, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundredth sifte and thre: and albeit they were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the Disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knew that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Ie-sus shewed himselfe vnto his Disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee more then these? Hee sayd vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee sayd vnto him, Feede my lambs.

16 He said to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee? Hee sayd vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee said vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 He said vnto him the third time, Simon the sonne of Iona louest thou mee? Peter was soze because he said to him the third time, Louest thou mee? and sayd vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus sayd vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Clerely, verely I say vnto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt bee old, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shall gird thee and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And thus spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when hee had said this, he said to him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and saw the Disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also leane on his breast at supper, and had said, Lord, which is he that betrayereth thee?

21 When Peter therefore saw him, hee sayd to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Iesus sayd vnto him, If I will that he tary till I come, what is it to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this Disciple should not die. Per Iesus said not to him, He shall not die: but, If I will that he tary till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that Disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimonie is true.

25 ¶ Now there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose the world could not containe the bookes that should be written, Amen.

c The Minister cannot wel teach his Congregation, except he loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feed not the flocke.

d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ causeth him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.

e In stead of a girdle, thou shalt bee tyed with bands & coards: and whereas now thou goest at liberty, then thou shalt bee drawn to punishment, when thy flesh shall after a tort resist.

f But God would not charge vs with so great an heape: seeing therefore that we haue so much as is necessary, we ought to content our selues and praise his mercy.

The Actes of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGUMENT.

Christ after his Ascension performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby that he was not onely mindfull of his Church, but would bee the head and maintainer thereof for ever. Wherein also his mighty power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a few simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the sound of his Gospel. And here in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, we may plainly perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppress and overthrow the Gospel: he raiseth conspiracies, tumults, commotions, persecutions, slanders, and all kind of crueltie. Again, we shal here behold the providence of God, who overthroweth his enemies enterprises, delivereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtne: h and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to follow their Captaine Christ, leauing a Albeit they knew him not, yet they followed his counsell, because they had all night taken paines in vaine.

|| Or, lake of Genesareth.

|| Or, children.

b It was some linnen garment, which fishers vsed to weare, which being trusted vnto him, couered his nether parts, and also lested not his swimming.

leaving as it were by this historie a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that the Crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of another: Yet neuerthelesse God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisoning, and tentations of his to a good issue, giving them as it were in sorrow, ioy: in bonds, freedom: in prison deliverance: in trouble, quietnesse: in death, life. Finall^y, this booke containeth many excellent Sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercy of God. Of the grace and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortallitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christs flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall points of our faith, so that this onely historie in a maner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and Religion.

Reade Zachar. 6. 14. h For this passeth our capacite, and God reserueth it to himselfe. i To stand in the face of the whole world, which signifieth that they must enter into heauen by afflictions, and therefore must fight before they get the victorie. k Hereby they might learne that the Messias was not onely for the Iewes, but also for the Gentiles, Luke 24. 51. l Whereby they knew certainly whither hee went. m Which were Angels in mens forme. n And seeking him with carnall eyes.

Have made the former treatise, O Theophilus, of all that Iesus began to doe and teach.

2 Until the day that hee was taken vp, after that hee through the holy Ghost, had given commandements vnto the Apostles, whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also hee presented himselfe aliuie after that hee had suffered, by many infallible tokens, being seene of them by the space of forty dayes, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the kingdom of God.

4 And when hee had gathered them together, he commanded them that they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the Father, which, sayd he, ye haue heard of me.

5 For Iohn inderde baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost within these few dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?

And he said vnto them, it is not for you to know the times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But ye shall receiue power of the holy Ghost, when he shal come on you: and ye shal be witnesses vnto mee both in Ierusalem and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things while they beheld, he was taken: vp for a cloud tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as hee went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparell,

11 Which also sayd, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing into heauen? This

Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall so come, as ye haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Olives, which is neere to Ierusalem, containing a Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper chamber, where abode both Peter, and James, and Iohn, and Andrew, Phillip, and Thomas, Bartlemew, and Mattheu, James the sonne of Alphbus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas James brother.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in those dayes Peter stood by in the middes of the Disciples, and sayd, (now the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundred and twentie.)

16 Ye men and brethren, this Scripture must needs haue bene fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was guide to them that tooke Iesus.

17 For hee was numbered with vs, and had obtained fellowship in this ministration.

18 He therefore hath purchased a field with the reward of iniquitie: and when hee had throwen downe himselfe headlong, he brast asunder in the mids, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is known vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, inasmuch that that field is called in their owne language, Aceldama, that is, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, Let his habitation be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: also let another take his charge.

21 Wherefore, of these men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was conuerfant among vs,

22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that hee was taken vp from vs, must one of them bee made a witness with vs of his resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Mattheus.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, o As the true redeemer to gather vs vnto him.

p Which was two mile, according to the Iewes tradition, albeit it was not so appointed by the Scriptures.

26 Then they gave forth their lots: and the lot fell on Matthias, and hee was by a common consent counted with the eleven Apostles.

7 The lame is restored to his feet. 12 Peter preacheth Christ vnto the people.

NOW Peter and John went by together vnto the Temple, at the ninth houre of prayer.
a Which is with vs three a clocke
after noone, which was their euening sacrifice, at which the Apostles were present, to teach that the shadowes of the Law were abolished by that Lambe that tooke away the sinnes of the world.

33 Since then that he by the right hand of God hath bene exalted, and hath recei-ued of his Father the promise of the holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this which yee now see and heare.

34 For David is not ascended into heauen, but hee sayeth, * The Lord sayd to my Lord, * Sit at my right hand,

35 Untill I make thine enemies thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know for a surety, that God hath made him both Lord & Christ, this Iesus, I say, whom ye haue crucified.

37 Now when they heard it, they were pricked in their hearts, and said vnto Peter and the other Apostles, Men and brethren,
what shall we doe?

38 Then Peter said vnto them, Amend your liues, and be baptized euery one of you in the Name of Iesus Christ for the remission of sinnes: and ye shall receiue the gift of the holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is made vnto you, and to your children, and to all that are as farre off, euen as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words he besought, & exhorted them saying, Sauue your selues from this froward generation.

41 Then they that gladly receiued his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added to the Church about three thousand // soules.

42 And they continued in the Apostles doctrine, and fellowship, and breaking of bread, and prayers.

43 And feare came vpon euery soule:
and many wonders and signes were done by the Apostles.

44 And all that beleeued, were in one place, and had things common.

45 And they solde their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as euery one had need.

46 And they continued dayly with one accord in the Temple, and breaking bread // at home, did eat their meat together with gladnesse and singlenesse of heart,

47 Praising God, and had fauour with all the people: and the Lord added to the Church // from day to day, such as should be saued.

2 And a certaine man which was a cree-ple from his mothers wombe was carryed, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple called Beautifull, to aske almes of them that entered into the Temple.

3 Who seeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, desired to receiue an almes.

4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with John, said, Looke on vs.

5 And he gaue heed vnto them, trusting to receiue some thing of them.

6 Then said Peter, Siluer and gold haue
I none, but such as I haue, that I giue thee:
In the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, rise vp and walke.

7 And hee tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his feet and ankle bones receiued strength.

8 And hee leaped vp, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the Temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walke, and praising God.

10 And they knew him, that it was hee which sat for the almes at the Beautifull gate of the Temple, and they were amazed, and loze astonied at that which was come vnto him.

11 And as the creeple which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people can amazed vnto them in the porch which is called Salomons.

12 So when Peter saw it, hee answered vnto the people, Pee men of Israel, why marueile yee at this? or why looke yee so stedfastly on vs, as though by our owne power or godlinesse we had made this man goe?

13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, * the God of our fathers hath glorified his Sonne Iesus, whom yee betrayed, and denyed in the presence of He-late, when hee had iudged him to be deliue-red.

14 * But ye denyed the Holy one and the Iust, and desired a murderer to be giuen you,

15 And killed the Lord of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, wherof wee are witnesses.

16 And his Name hath made this man sound, whom yee see, and knowe, through faith in his Name: and the faith which is by him, hath giuen to him this disposition of his whole body in the presence of you all.

17 And now brethren, I know that through ignorance yee did it, as did also your gouernours.

18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his Prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath thus fulfilled.

19 Amend your liues therefore, and turne, that your sinnes may be put away, when the time of refreshing // shall come from the presence of the Lord.

2 Taking it grievously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word, beleeued, and the number of the men was aboute fife thousand.

5 And it came to passe on the morrow, that their Rulers and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, & Caiaphas, and Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high Priests.

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the holy Ghost, said vnto them, Ye Rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 For as much as wee this day are examined of the good dedde done to the impotent man, to wite, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Be it known vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye haue crucified, whome God raised againe from the dead, euen by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is the stone cast aside of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name vnder heauen, whereby wee must be saued.

13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and understood that they were vnlearned men, and without knowledge, they maruelled, and knew them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commaunded them to goe aside out of the Councill, and conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall wee doe to these men? For surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly known to all them that dwell in Ierusalem, and we cannot denie it.

17 But that it bee noyled no further among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 So they called them, and commaunded them, that in no wise they should speake or teach in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and said, Whether it bee right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, Iudge ye.

20 For wee cannot but speake the things which we haue scene and heard.

21 So they threatened them, and let them goe, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboute forty yere old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then as soone as they were let goe, they came to their fellowes, and shewed all that the high Priests and Elders had said vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voices to God with one accord, & said, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea & all things that are in them.

25 Which by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast said, Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

26 The kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For doubtes against thine holy Sonne Iesus, whom thou hast appointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered them selues together.

28 To doe whatsoener thine hand and thy counsell had determined before to bee done.

29 And now, O Lord, behold their threatening, and graunt vnto thy seruants with all boldnesse to speake thy word, 30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes and wonders may be done by the Name of thine holy Sonne Iesus.

31 And when as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled

30 The God of our fathers hath raiſed vp Ieſus, whom yee ſlew, and hanged on a

31 Him hath God liſt vp with his right obey him.

33 Now when they heard it, they braſt

34 Then ſtood there vp in the Council a certaine Pharife named Gamaliel, a doctor of the Law, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apoſtles forth a litle ſpace,

35 And ſaid vnto them, Men of Iſrael, das boaiſting himſelfe, to whom reſorted a was ſlaue: and they all which obeyed him, were ſcattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man, roſe vp Judas of Galile, in the dayes of the tribute, and drew away much people after him: hee alſo per-ſhed, and all that obeyed him, were ſcattered abroad.

38 And now I ſay vnto you, Refraine for if this counſell, or this worke be of men,

it will come to nought:

39 But if it bee of God, yee cannot de-

7 And the word of God increaſed, & the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran, and after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this land wherein pee

5 And hee gaue him none inheritance in it, no, nor the breadth of a foot: yet he promised that he would giue it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no childre.

6 But God make thus, that his * seede should bee a sojourner in a strange land, and that they should keepe it in bondage, and entreate it euill⁴ foure hundred peeres.

7 But the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I * iudge, saith God: and after that, they shall come forth and serue me in this place.

8 * We gaue him also the couenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate * Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day: and Isaac begate * Jacob, and Jacob the twelue * Patriarkes.

9 And the Patriarkes moued with enuie, sold * Ioseph into Egypt: but God, was
* with him,

10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and * gaue him fauour and wise-doine in the sight of Pharaoh King of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and ouer his whole house.

11 Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no lustenance.

12 But when * Jacob heard that there was come in Egypt, hee sent our fathers first.

13 * And at the second time Ioseph was known of his brethren, and Iosephs kined was made known vnto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Ioseph and caused his father to be brought, and all his kined, euen e threescore and sifreene soules.

15 So * Jacob went downe into Egypt, and he * died and our fathers,

16 And were remooued vnto * Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that * Abraham had bought * for money of the sonnes of Emor, sonne of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew neere, which God had swoyne to Abraham, the people * grew and multiplied in Egypt.

18 Till another King arose, which knew not Ioseph.

19 The same deale * subtilly with our kined, and euill intreated our fathers, and made them to cast out their young childre, that || they should not remaine aliuie.

20 * The same time was Moyses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house thre moneths.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter tooke him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moyses was learned in all the wisdomme of the Egyptians, and was mightie in words and in deedes.

23 Now when he was full forty yere old, it came into his heart to visite his brethren
the children of Israel.

24 * And when he saw one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarrel that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For hee supposed his brethren would haue understood that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they vn-derstood it not.

26 * And the next day hee shewed himselfe vnto them as they stroue, and would haue set them at one againe, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren, why doe ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill mee, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moyses at that saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

30 And when forty peeres were expired, there appeared to him in the * wilderness of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame¹ of fire, in a bush.

31 And when Moyses saw it, hee wondered at the sight: and as hee drew neere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

32 I am the * God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moyses trembled, and durst not behold it.

33 Then the Lord said to him, ^m But off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I haue seene, I haue seene the afflic-tion of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, & am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moyses whom they forsooke, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a Judge?
the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hand of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He * brought them out, doing wonders and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red Sea, and in the wilderness * for tie yeres.

37 This is that Moyses which said vnto the children of Israel, * A * Prophet shall the Lord your God raise vp vnto you, euen of your brethren, like vnto mee, him shall pee heare.

38 * This is he that was in the Congregation, in the wilderness with the * Angel, which spake to him in mount Sina, & with our fathers, who receiued the * liuely oracles

54 But when they heard these things, their hearts brast for anger, & they gnashed at him with their teeth.

55 But he being full of the holy Ghost, looked stedfastly into heauen, and saw the glory of God, and Iesus standing at the right hand of God,

56 And said, Behold, I see the heauens open, and the Sonne of man standing at the right hand of God.

57 Then they gaue a shout with a loude voice, and stopped their eares, and ran vpon him all at once,

58 And cast him out of the cite, and fla-ned him: and the witnesses layd downe their clothes at a young mans feete, named Saul.

59 And they stoned Steuen, who called on God, and sayd, Lord Iesus receiue my spirit.

60 And hee kneeled downe, and cryed with a loud voice, * Lord, lay not this sinne to their charge. And when hee had thus spoken, he slept.

And Saul consented to his death, and at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Jerusalem, and they were all scattered abroad through the regions of Iudea, and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, * carried Steuen among them to bee buried, and made great lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, and entred into euery house, and drew out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 Then came Philip into the cite of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loud voice, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in that cite.

9 And there was before in the cite a certaine man called Simon, which vied witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, That hee himselfe was some great man.

10 To whom they gaue heede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And they gaue heede vnto him, because that of long time hee had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But as soone as they beleued Philip, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, and the Name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe beleued also and was baptized, and continued with Philip, and wondered, when he saw the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 Now when the Apostles which were at Iherusalem, heard say that Samaria had receiued the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and John.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the holy Ghost.

16 For as yet hee was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized only in the Name of the Lord Iesus)

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise, and goe toward the South, vnto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem vnto Gaza, which is waste.

27 And he arose, & went on: and beholde, a certaine Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe gouernor, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Jerusalem to worship:

28 And as he returned sitting in his charret he read Ezechias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philip, Go neere, and li yne thy selfe to yonder charret.

30 And Philip ranne thither, and heard him read the Prophet Ezechias, and said, Vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except I had a guide? & he desired Philip that hee would come vp and sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which hee read, was this, Hee was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe dumbe before his shearer so opened hee not his mouth.

33 In his humilitie, his iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, & the Eunuch said, See, here is water: what doest thou me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said vnto him, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. Then hee answered, and said, I beleue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then hee commaunded the charret to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And as soone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch saw him no moze: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus, and he walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

4 And hee fell to the earth, and heard a voyce saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a baskett.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, hee assayed to ioyne himselfe with the Disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleeued not that hee was a Disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, & brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how hee had seene the Lord in the way, and that hee had spoken vnto him, and how hee had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.

5 Now therefore send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the Angel which spake unto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his servants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morrow as they went on their journey, and drew neere unto the citie, Peter went up vpon the house to pray, about the sixth hour.

10 Then waied he an hungred, and would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And hee saw heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheet, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were all manner of foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eate.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted or vnclane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

16 This was done thrise: and the vessel was drawen up againe into heauen.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which hee had seene meant, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had enquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate.

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit said vnto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, and doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 Then Peter went downe to the men which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and said, Behold, I am hee whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the capitaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them, and the next day Peter went forth with them, and certaine brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the day after, they entred into Cæsarea. Now Cornelius waied for them, and had called together his kinsmen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter tooke him up, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my selfe am a man.

27 And as hee talked with him, hee came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye know that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Jew, to company or come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man polluted, or vnclane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for mee?

30 Then Cornelius said, Foure dayes agoe, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and behold, a man stood before mee in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who when hee cometh, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediately, and thou hast well done to come. Now therefore are wee all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truer I perceiue, that God is no acceptor of persons.

35 But in every nation he that feareth him and worketh righteousnesse, is accepted with him.

36 Ye know the word which God hath sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lord of all.

4 Peter sheweth the cause wherefore he went to the Gentiles. 18 The Church approacheth it. 21 The Church increaseth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia. 23 Agabus prophesieth dearth to come. 29 and the remedie.

Now the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come by to Jerusalem, they of the circumcision contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the cite of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I saw this vision. A certaine vessel coming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me:

6 Toward the which, when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: Eate and eate.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done thre times, and all were taken by againe into heauen.

11 Then behold, immediately there were thre men already come vnto y house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto mee, that I should goe with them without doubting: moreover thesē fixe brethren came with me, and we entred into the mans house.

13 And hee shewed vs how hee had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 Hee shall speake wordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how hee sayd, John baptized with water, but yeshalbe baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gaue them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when we believed in the Lord Iesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance vnto life.

19 And they which were scattered abroad because of the affliction that arose about Streuen, walked throughout till they came vnto Phenice, and Cyprius, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprius and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number beleueed and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Jerusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas that he should goe vnto Antiochia.

23 And when he was come, and had seene the grace of God, was gladd, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would cleane vnto the Lord.

24 For hee was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people toynded themselves vnto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when hee had found him, hee brought him vnto Antiochia, and it came to passe, that a whole yeere they were conuening with the Church, and taught much people. insomuch, that the Disciples were first called Christians in Antiochia.

27 In those dayes also came Prophets from Jerusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stood vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great famine throughout all the world, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples every man according to his abilitie, purposed to send succour vnto y brethren which dwelt in Iudea.

Chap. 5. 19.

o Reade Marke 6. 9.

f For they thought that Herod would put him to death, as he had purposed.

g For they did know by Gods word, that Angels were appointed to defend the faithful, and also in those dayes they were accustomed to see such sights.
h Which was lesse suspected, by reason of the brethren,

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.
3 And when hee saw that it pleased the Jewes, hee proceeded further to take Peter also (then were the dayes of unleavened bread.)
4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passouer to bring him forth to the people.
5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.
6 And when Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betwene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.
7 And behold, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and called him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands,
8 And the Angel said vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and binde on thy sandals. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.
9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knew not that it was true which was done by the Angel, but thought he had seene a vision.
10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate that leadeth vnto the cite, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.
11 And when Peter was come to himselfe, hee sayd, Now I know for a crutch that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Jewes.
12 And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together and prayed.
13 And when Peter knocked at the entry doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.
14 But when she knew Peters voice, she opened not the entry doore for gladnesse, but ran in and tolde how Peter stood before the entrie.
15 But they sayde vnto her, Thou art madde. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then sayd they, It is his Angel.
16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.
17 And he beckened vnto them with the hand to hold their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And hee sayd, Goe shew these things vnto James and to the brethren: and he departed and went into another place.
18 Nowe also as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him and found him not, he examined the keepers and commanded them to bee led to her punished. And hee went downe from Iudaea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herod intended to make war against them of Tyne and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and persuaded Blastus the kings chamberlain, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herod arrayed himselfe in royall apparell, and sat on the iudgement seate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shout, saying, The voice of God, and not of man.

23 But immediately the Angel of the Lord smote him, because hee gaue not glory vnto God, so that hee was eaten of worms, and gaue vp the Ghost.

24 And the word of God grew, and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas and Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and tooke with them John whose surname was Marke.

m The more that tyrants got about to suppress Gods word, the more doth it increase. n Which was to distribute the almes lent from Antiochia, Chap. 11. 29.

CHAP. XIII.

2 Paul and Barnabas are called to preach among the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus and Elymas the soecrer. 13 The departure of Marke. 14 Paul preacheth at Antiochia. 42 The faith of the Gentiles. 46 The leues reuised. 48 They that are ordained to life, beleue. 52 The fruits of faith.

There were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine prophets and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon called Nigir, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Mana-hen, (which had bene brought vp with Herod the Tetrarch) and Saul.

1 Now as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

2 Then fasted they, and prayed, and laid their hands on them, and let them goe.

3 And they, after they were sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus.

4 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Jewes: and they had also John to their minister.

5 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they found a certaine soecrer, a false prophet, being a Jew, named Barisus,

6 Which was with the Deputy Sergius Paulus a prudent man. Hee called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.

7 But Elymas the soecrer (for so is his name)

i Both by flatterring words, and also by bribes.

name by interpretation.) withstood them, and sought to turne away the Departe from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, let his eyes on him,

10 And said, I ful of all subtilty and all mischief, the childe of the devill, and enemye of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not cease to pervert the straight wayes of the Lord?

11 Now therefore behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt bee blinde, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediately there fell on him a miste and darkness, and he went about, seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputy when he saw what was done, beleueed, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him, were departed by ship from Paphos, they came to Perga, a cite of Pamphylia: then John departed from them, and returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antiochia, a cite of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and late downe.

15 And after the lecture of the Law and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Vee men and brethren, if wee haue any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood vp and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of Egypt, and with an high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the time of forty yeres, suffered hee their manners in the wilkenesse.

19 And he destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, and diuided their lande to them by lot.

20 Then afterward hee gaue vnto them Iudges about foure hundred and fiftie yeres, vnto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a King, and God gaue vnto them Saul the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of fortie yeres.

22 And after he had taken him away, hee raised vp Dauid to be their king, of whom hee witnessed, saying, I haue found Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will do all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seede hath God accor- ding to his promise raised vp to Israel the Saviour Iesus:

24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when John had fulfilled his course, he sayd, whom ye thinke that I am, I am not hee: but beholde, there cometh one after me, whose shoe of his fette I am not worthy to loose.

26 Vee men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophets, which are read euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they took him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him vp from the dead.

31 And hee was seene many dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galilee to Ierusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And wee declare vnto you, that touching the promise made vnto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that hee raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in y second Psalm, * Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Now as concerning that hee raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, hee hath sayd thus, * I will giue you the holy things of Dauid which are sayd full.

35 Wherefore hee sayeth also in another place, * Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Wherefore, Dauid after hee had serued his time by the counsell of God, hee slept, and was layd with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But hee whom God raised vp, saw no corruption.

38 Bec it known vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiveness of sinnes.

39 And from all things from which ye could not bee iustified by the Law of Moses, by him euery one that beleueth is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets,

41 Behold, yee despisers, and wonder, and banish away: for I worke a worke in your dayes, a worke which yee shall not beleue, if a man would declare it you.

42 And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, that they would preach these wordes to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolved, many of the Iewes, and Professors that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath day came al-worde of God.

45 But when the Jewes saw the people, they were full of enuie, and spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying them, and railing on them.
46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, * It was necessary that the worde of God should first haue bene spoken and iudge your selues unworthie of euer-vs, saying, * I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be the saluation

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lord, and as many as were: ordeined vnto

49 Thus the word of the Lord was published throughout the whole countrey.
50 But the Jewes stirred certaine de-uout and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the cite, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expell'd them out of their coastes.
51 But they shooke off the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.
52 And the disciples were filled with ioy and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIII.

13 God giueth successe to his word. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium and are persecuted 13
At Lystra they would doe sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which refuse it, and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 23 They confirm the disciples in faith and patience. 23 Appoint ministers. 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

And it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Jewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jewes and of the Greecians beleued.

2 But the vnbeleuing Jewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lorde, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to bee done
by their hands.

4 But the people of the cite were diuided: and some were with the Jewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Jewes with the rulers, to doe them violence, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about.

7 And there were preaching the Gospel.

8 Now there sat a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his fette, which was a criple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked:

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed,

10 Sayde with a loud voyce, † Stand vpright on thy fette. And he leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Iupiters Priest, which was before their cite, brought bulles with gar-lands vnto the gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard it, they rent their clothes, and ranne in among the people, crying,

15 And saying, Men, why doe yee these things? Wee are euen men: subject to the like passions that yee bee, and preach vnto you, that yee should turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, which made heauen and earth, and the sea, and all things that in them are.

16 Who in times past suffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne wayes.

17 Neuerthelesse, hee left not himselte without witness, in that he did good and gaue vs raine from heauen, and fruitfull seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladnesse.

18 And speaking these things, scarce refrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them.

19 Then there came certaine Jewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perwaded the people, † stoned Paul, and drew him out of the cite, supposing he had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the ci-tie, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that cite, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antio-chia.

22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming, that we must thorow many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by election in euery Church, & prayed, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleued.

24 Thus they went throughout Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they came down to Attalia.

26 And thence sailed to Antiochia, from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that God had done by them, and how he had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

Gal. 5. 1, 2.

Then came downe certaine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye cannot be saued.

2 And when there was great dissension and disputation by Paul and Barnabas, against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of them should goe up to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But sayd they, certaine of the sect of the Pharises, which did beleue, rose up, saying, that it was needefull to circumcise them, and to commaund them to keepe the Law of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And when there had bene great disputation, Peter rose up, and sayd vnto them, Ye men and brethren, ye knowe that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out mee, that the Gentiles, by my mouth should heare the word of the Gospel, and beleue.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnesse, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

9 And hee put no difference betwene vs, and them, after that by faith hee had purified their hearts.

10 Now therefore, why tempt ye God, to lay a yoke on the disciples neckes, which neither our fathers, nor wee were able to beare?

11 But wee beleue, through the grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to bee saued, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which told what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren hearken vnto me.

14 Simeon hath declared how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the words of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 After this, I will returne, and will build againe the Tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I build againe, and I will see it up.

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lord, and all the Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, saith the Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God.

20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstaine themselves from filthinesse of idoles, and fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in euery citie them that preach him, seeing he to be read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their owne companie to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas, to wit, Judas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren.

23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 For as much as we haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with words, and cumbrd your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised and keepe the Law: to whom we gaue no such commandement,

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul.

26 Men that haue giuen by their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 Wee haue therefore sent Judas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay no more burthen vpon you, then these necessary things.

29 That is, that ye abstaine from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, and after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioyced for the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas being Prophets, exhorted the brethren with many words and strengthened them.

33 And after they had taried there a space, they were let goe in peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding Silas thought good to abide there still.

Which are gathered into one familie with the Jewes, to the intent they should acknowledge all one God & one Sauour Christ Iesus.

i For some thought it none offence to be present in the idoles temples, and thereto banquet: which S. Paul saith, is to drinke the cup of the deulls, 1. Cor. 10. 21.

k The heathen thought this no vice, but made it a common custome. As touching a strangled thing and blood, they were not vnlawfull of themselves, and therefore were obserued but for a time.

l And what soeuer they would not do to themselves, that they should not doe it to others.

m Therefore the ceremonies commanded by God, could not so soone be abolished, till the liberty of the Gospel were better knowne.

38 But Paul thought it not meet to take him vnto their companie, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 Then were they so stirred, that they departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Marke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

2 Of whom the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, reposed well.

3 Therefore Paul would that he should goe forth with him, and tooke and * circumcised him, because of the Jewes, which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went thorow the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe, ordained of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number dayly.

6 ¶ Now when they had gone thorow our Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were * forbidden of the holy Ghost, to preach the word in Asia.

7 Then came they to Mysia, and sought to goe into Bithinia: but the Spirit † suffered them not.

8 Therefore they passed thorow Mysia, and came downe to Troas,

9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 And after hee had seene the vision, immediately wee prepared to goe into Macedonia, being * assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a straight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis.

12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe cite in the parts of Macedonia, and s^t whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and wee were in that cite abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day, wee went out of the cite, besides a riuer where they were wont to pray: and we sat downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the cite of the Thyatirians, which worshipped God, heard vs: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended vnto the things which Paul spake.

15 And when shee was baptized and her household, shee besought vs, saying, If ye haue indged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house and abide there: and she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to prayer, a certaine mayd hauing * a spirit of divination, met vs, which gave her masters much vantage with diuining.

17 She followed Paul and vs, and cryed, saying, These men are the seruantes of the most high God, which shewe vnto vs the way of saluation.

18 And this did shee many dayes: but Paul being grieved, turned about, and sayd to the spirit, I commaund thee in the name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Now when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market place vnto the Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the Gouernours, saying, These men which are Iewes, trouble our cite,

21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the Gouernours rent * their clothes, and * commanded them to be beaten with rods.

23 And when they had beaten them sore, they cast them into prison commaunding the layler to keepe them surely.

24 Who hauing receiued such commandement, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 Now at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a Psalm vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, and euery mans hands were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when hee saw the prison doores open, he drew out his sword, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed with a loud voice, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for wee are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I doe to be saved?

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beate vs openly vncondemned, which are Romans, they haue cast vs into prison, and now would they put vs out priuily: may verely: but let them come and bring vs out.

38 And the sergeants tolde these wordes vnto the Gouernours, who feared when they heard that they were Romans.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica, 4 where some receive him, and others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 Hee disputeth at Athens, and the fruite of his doctrine.

Nowe as they passed throught Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures.

3 Opening & alledging that Christ must haue suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, sayd he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleued, and ioyned in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God, a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleue not, moued with envy, tooke vnto them certaine vagabonds and wicked fellows, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the cite, & made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drew Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the cite, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are.

7 Whom Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Caesar, saying, that there is an other King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people and the heads of the cite, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither entered into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readinesse, and searched the Scriptures dayly, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knew, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to goe as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there till.

15 And they that did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the cite subject to idolatrie.

17 Therefore hee disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market, dayly, with whomsoever he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoicks, disputed with him, and some said, What will this babblers say? Others sayd, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because hee preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into Mars street, saying, May wee not know, what this new doctrine whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine strange things vnto our eares: wee would knowe therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers which dwelt there, gaue themselves to nothing els, but either to tell, or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stood in the middes of Mars street, and sayd, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things yet are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your deuotions, I founde an altar wherein

His faith in the providence of God, 22 and care for the brethren, 24 The praise of Apollas.

A fter these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Jew named * Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italy, and his wife Priscilla (because that * Claudius had commaunded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them,

3 And because hee was of the same craft, he abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tents.)

4 And hee disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grecians.

5 Now when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul ^d burned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphe-med, he ^e shooke his raiment, and said vnto them, * Your blood be vpon your own head:
I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Titus, a worshipper of God, whose house toyne hard to the Synagogue.

8 And * Crispus the chiefe Ruler of the Synagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleued and were baptized.

9 Then sayd the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall lay handes on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this cite.

11 So he continued there a yere and sixe monethes, and taught the word of God among them.

12 ¶ Now when Gallio was deputie of || Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought them to the Iudgement seat,

13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth man to worship God contrary to the ^s Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio layd vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deed, I yee Iewes, I would according to reason maintaine you.

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your Lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I will be no Iudge of those things.

16 And hee draue them from the Iudge-ment seat.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians ^h Sosthenes, the chiefe Ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the Iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he took leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that hee had ⁱ shorne his head in Cenchrea, for hee had a ^j vow.

19 Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but hee entred into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes,

20 Who desired him to tary a longer time with them: but he would not consent.

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needs keepe this Feast that commeth vnto you, * If God will. So he sailed from Ephesus.

22 ¶ And when he came downe to ^k Co-had saluted the Church, he went downe vnto

23 Now when he had taried there a while,
he departed, and went thorow the countrey

6 The holy Ghost is given by Pauls hands. 9 The Jewes blaspheme his doctrine, which was confirmed by miracles. 13 The rashnesse and punishment of the Conuersers, and the fruit that came thereof. 24 Demetrius raiseth sedition vnder pretence of Diana. 41 Tet God deliuereth his, and appeaseth it by the Townes Clerke.

And it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed thorow the vpper coasts, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples;

2 And said vnto them, Haue yee receiued the holy Ghost since ye beleued? And they said vnto him, We haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.

3 And he said vnto them, Vnto what were ye then baptized? And they said, Vnto Johns baptisme.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying, vnto the people, that they should beleue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

6 And Paul laid his hands vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 Moreover, he went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three monethes, disputing and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the kingdome of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, hee departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schoole of one Tyrannus.

Jewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul.

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke, kerchiefs, or handkerchiefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them.

13 Then certaine of the vagabond Jewes, exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We adjure you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Sceua a Jew, the High Priest, about seuen which did this.)

15 And the euill spirit answered and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I know: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the euill spirit was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and pveailed against them, so that they fledde out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was knowne to all the Jewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleued, came and confessed, and shewed their workes.

19 Many also of them which bled curious arts, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the word of God grew mightily, and pveailed.

21 Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed by the Spirit to passe thorow Macedonia and Achaia, and to goe to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent hee into Macedonia two of them that ministered vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but hee remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius, a siluer smith, which made siluer temples of Diana, brought great gaires vnto the craftsmen:

25 Whom hee called together, with the workmen of like things, and said, Sirs, yee know that by this craft we haue our goods.

26 Moreover, ye see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath perswaded, and turned away much people, saying, That they bee not gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, that the State should bee reprooued, but also that the Temple of the great Goddess Diana should bee nothing esteemed, and that it would come to passe, that her magnificence, which all

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia.
2 Hee celebrateth the Lords Supper, and preacheth.
3 At Troas he raiſed vp Eutychus. 17 At Ephelus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods ſheeke vnto them, warneth them of falſe teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ſhip towards Ieruſalem.

Now after the tumult was ceaſed, Paul called the diſciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when hee had gone through thoſe parts, and had exhorted them with many wordes, hee came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried there three moneths, becauſe the Jewes laid waite for him, as hee was about to ſaile into Syria, hee purpoſed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Alia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thellalonica, Ariſtarchus, and Secundus, and Scaus of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Alia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 Theſe went beſore, and taried vs at Troas.

6 And we ſailed ſooth from Philippi, after the dayes of vneleuened bread, and came vnto them to Troas in ſiue dayes, where we abode ſeuē dayes.

7 And the firſt day of the weeke, the diſciples being come together to breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued the preaching vnto midnight.

8 And there were many lights in an upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there ſate in a windowe a certain yong man, named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe ſleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, hee ouercome with ſleepe, fell downe from the third loſt, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went down, and laid him ſelfe vpon him, and embraced him, ſaying, Trouble not your ſelues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, hee communed a long while till the dawning of the day, and ſo he departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliuē, and they were not a litle comforted.

13 Then wee went ſooth to ſhip, and ſailed vnto the citie of Allos, that wee might receiue Paul there: for ſo had he appointed, and would himſelfe goe aſoote.

14 Now when hee was come vnto vs to Allos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And wee ſayled thence, and came the next day ouer againſt Chios, and the next day wee arrived at Samos, and taried at Trogyllum: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to ſaile by Ephelus, becauſe hee would not ſpend the time in Alia: for he haſted to bee, if he could poſſible, at Ieruſalem, at the day of Pentecoſt.

17 Wherefore from Miletum hee ſent to Ephelus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, hee ſaid vnto them, Pee know from the firſt day that I came into Alia, after what maner I haue been with you at all ſeaſons.

19 Seruing the Lord with all modeſtie, and with many teares, and tentations, which came vnto me by the layings awaie of the Jewes, things shall come vnto me there.

23 Saue that the holy Ghost witnesseth

24 But I passe not at all, neither is my life deare vnto my selfe, so that I may fulfill my course with ioy, and the ministrati-testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that henceforth yee all, through whom I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you all the counsell of God.

28 Take heed therefore vnto your selues, and to remember the words of the Lord Ie-sus, how that he said, It is a blessed thing to giue rather then to receiue.

36 And when hee had thus spoken, hee kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him,

38 Being chiefly sorry for the words which hee spake, That they should see his face no

CHAP. XXI.

5 The common prayers of the faithfull. 9 Philipps four daughters propheticall. 13 Pauls constancie to beare the crosse, as Agabus and others foretold, although hee was otherwise counselled by the brethren.
28 The great danger that hee was in, and how hee escaped.

As as we lancheth forth, and were departed from them, wee came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.

2 And wee found a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboard, & set forth.

3 And when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed toward Syria, and arrived at Tyrrus: for there the ship vnladed the burden.

4 And when we had found disciples, we taried there seuen daies. And they told Paul through the Spirit, that hee should not goe vp to Ierusalem.

5 But when the dayes were ended, wee departed and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wiues and children euenuot of the citie: and we kneeling down on the shore, prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, wee tooke shippe and they returned home.

7 And when wee had ended the course from Tyrrus we arrived at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day Paul and they that were with him departed, and came vnto Cesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the Euangelist, which was one of the seuen Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as wee taried there many dayes, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudaea, named Agabus,

11 And when hee was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdle, and bound his owne hands and feete, and sayd, Thus sayth the holy Ghost, So shall the Jewes at Ierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, both wee & other of the same place besought him, that he would not goe vp to Ierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe yee weeping and breaking mine heart?
For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when he would not be perswaded we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord bee done.

15 And after those dayes wee trusted by our fardels, and went vp to Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus an olde disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when wee were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto James, and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, hee told by order all things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministration.

And the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest brother, how many thousand Jewes there are which beleue, and they are all zealous of the law.

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and saist, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to linge after the customs.

22 What is then to bee done? the multitude must needs come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that we say to thee. Wee haue ^h foure men, which haue made a voto.

24 Them take, and ⁱ purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, that they may ^{*} shawe their heads: and all shall know, that those things, whereof they haue been informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and kceppest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleue, wee haue written, and determined ^{*} that they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselves from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entered into the Temple, ^{*} declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntill that an offering should be offered for euery one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Jewes which were of Asia (when they saw him in the Temple) moued all the people, and ^{*} layd handes on him,

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the law, and this place: moreover, he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath ⁱ polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seen before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whome they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was moued, and the people ranne together: and they tooke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an uprore.

32 Who immediately tooke souldiers, and Centurions, and ranne ^a downe vnto them: and when they saw the chiefe Captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe captaine came neere and tooke him, and commanded him to bee bound with two chains, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cried this, another that, among the people. So when hee could not know the certaintie for the tumult, he commanded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when hee came vnto the grieces, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bin led into the castle, hee said vnto the chiefe captaine, Day I speake vnto thee: Who said, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the ^{*} Egyptian who before these dayes raised a sedition, and led out into the wilderness foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul said, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Jew, and citizen of ^{*} Carthus a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beseech thee, suffer to me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when hee had giuen him licence, Paul stood on the grieces, and beckned with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

3 Paul rendereth an account of his life, and doctrine. 25 He escapeth the wholy reason he was a citizen of Rome.

Y E men, brethren, and fathers, heare my defence now toward you.

2 (And when they heard that hee spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he said.)

3 I am verely a man which am a Jew, borne in ^{} Carthus in Cilicia, but brought vp in this citie at the ^{} feete of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect manner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 ^{*} And I persecuted this way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into prison both men and women,

5 As also the chiefe Priest doth beare me witnesse, and all the state of the Elders: of whom also I receiued letters vnto the brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 And so it was, as Iourneyed and was come nere vnto Damascus about noon, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voyce, saying vnto mee, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Iesus of Nazaret, whom thou persecutest.

9 Whereupon, they that were with mee, saw indeede a light, and were afraid, but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and goe vnto Damascus: and there it shall bee tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with mee, and came into Damascus.

g That is, according to the manners that our fathers obserued, which were commanded by God.

12 And one Amias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Law, having good report of all the Jewes which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight: and that same houre I looked upon him.
14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that Iust one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.
15 For thou shalt be his witnesse unto all men, of the things which thou hast seene and heard.
16 Now therefore why tarrest thou? Arise, and bee baptized, and wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the Name of the Lord.
17 And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Jerusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And saw him saying unto mee, Wake haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy witnesse concerning mee.
19 Then I sayd, Lord, they know that I am prisioned, and beat in every Synagogue them that beleue in thee.
20 And when the blood of thy Martyr Stephen was shed, I also stood by, and consented unto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.
21 Then he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence unto the Gentiles.
22 And they heard him unto this word: but then they lift up their voyces, and sayd, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meete that he should live.
23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust in the ayre,
24 The chiefe Captaine commaunded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that hee should bee scourged and examined, that hee might know wherfore they cried so on him.
25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is a Romane, and not condemned?
26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went and told the chiefe Captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.
27 Then the chiefe Captaine came, and said to him, Tell mee, Art thou a Romane? And he said, Yea.
28 And the chiefe Captaine answered, With a great summe obtained I this // burgeship. Then Paul said, But I was borne.
29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chiefe Captaine also was afraid, after he knew that hee was a Romane, and that hee had bound him.
30 On the next day, because hee would have knownen the certaintie wherfore hee was accused of the Jewes, hee loosed him from his bonds, and commaunded the hie Priestes and all their Councill to come together: and he brought Paul, and let him befoze them.

And Paul beheld earnestly the Council, and said, Men and brethren, I have in all good conscience served God untill this day.
2 Then the high Priest Ananias commaunded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.
3 Then said Paul to him, God will smite thee thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Law, and commaundest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Law?
4 And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou Gods hie Priest?
5 Then said Paul, I knew not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speake euill of the Ruler of thy people.
6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were of the Sadduces, and the other of the Pharisees, he cryed in the Council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharisee: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.
7 And when he had said this, there was a dissention betwene the Pharisees and the Sadduces, so that the multitude was diuided.
8 For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, no spirit: but the Pharisees confesse both.
9 Then there was a great cry: and the scribes of the Pharisees part rose up, and stroue, saying, Wee finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.
10 And when there was a great dissention, the chiefe Captaine fearing lest Paul should have bene pulled in pieces of them, commaunded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle.
11 Now the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mee in Jerusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.
12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Jewes made an assembly, and bound themselves with an oath, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.
13 And they were more then foure, which had made this conspiracie.
14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes and Elders, and sayd, Wee have bound our selues with a solemne oath, that we will eate nothing untill we have slaine Paul.
15 Now therefore, ye and the Councill, signifie to the chiefe Captaine, that he bring him forth unto you to morrow, as though yee would know some thing more perfectly of him, and we, or ener he come neere, will be ready to kill him.
16 But when Pauls sisters sonne heard of Paul doth not curse the high Priest, but denounceth sharply the punishment of God which should light vpon him, who vnder pretence of maintaining the Law, doth transgressioit.
d He made this excuse as it were in mockery, as if he would say, I know nothing in this man worthy the office of the high Priest, Exod. 22.28. phil. 3.5. chap. 24.22.
e He denieth not but there were other points, but hee expresseth that for which the Sadduces that were the chiefe gouernours hated him most. Mat. 23.23.
d Vnderstanding both kindes, the Angels, and the spirits, which he concluded vnder one, and the resurrection which is the other part.
e The word signifie cursing, as when a man either sweareth, voweth, or wisheth himselfe to die, or to be giue to the deuill, except he bring his purpose to passe.
f This declareth that God hath so many means to deliuer his children out of danger, as there are creatures in the world, so that the aduersaries cannot conspire so craftily against them, but he hath infinite means to defeat their wicked practises.

of their laying await, hee went, and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and said, Bring this young man vnto the chiefe Captaine: for hee hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So hee tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe Captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed mee to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe Captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he said, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the Councill, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in wait for him of them more then fortie men, which haue bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, and wait for thy promise,

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

23 And hee called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may goe to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and tenne, and two hundred with darts, at the third houre of the night.

24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And he wrote an Epistle in this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, & rescued him, perceiving that he was a Romane.

28 And when I would haue knownen the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Councill.

29 There I perceived that hee was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed mee, how that the Iewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commaunded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the castle.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they delivered the Epistle to the Gouernour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouernour had read it, hee asked of what Province hee was: and when he understood that he was of Cilicia,

35 I will heare thee, said hee, when thine accusers also are come, and commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix gropeth him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28. and after leaneth him in prison.

Now after fūe dayes, Ananias the high Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Orator, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing, that wee haue obtained great quietnesse through thee, and that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix with all thanks.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest heare vs of thy curtesie a few words.

5 Certainly we haue found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the world, and a chiefe maintainer of the sect of the Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our Law:

7 But the chiefe captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying, that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckned vnto him that he should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answer for my selfe, forasmuch as I know that thou hast bene of many yeeres a iudge vnto this nation.

11 Seeing that thou mayest know, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp to worship in Ierusalem.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither making brouce among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the city.

13 Neither can they proue the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call heresie) so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets.

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they themselves looke for also, shall be both of iust and vniust.

23 Now when Felix heard these things, he deferred them, and said, When I shall more perfectly know the things which concerne this way, by the comming of Lysias the chiefe captaine, I will decide your matter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that hee should haue ease, and that hee should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 And after certaine dayes came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewesse, and he called forth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

26 And as he disputed of Righteouslines, and Temperance, and of the Iudgement to come, Felix trembled, and answered, See thy way for this time, and when I haue convenient time, I will call for thee.

27 He hoped also that money should haue bene giuen him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore hee sent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

28 When two yeres were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix rouse: and Felix willing to get fauour of the Jewes, left Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The Jewes accuse Paul before Festus. 8 Hee answereth for himselfe. 11 and appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa. 23 and he is brought forth.

VVhen Festus was then come into the prouince, after three dayes hee went vp from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Jewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that he would send for him to Ierusalem: and they laid wait to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should bee kept at Cesarea, and that hee himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, said hee, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickednesse in the man, let them accuse him.

6 Now when hee had taried among them no more then tenne dayes, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next day late in the iudgement seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Jewes which were come from Ierusalem, stood about him, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prooue.

8 Forasmuch as hee answered: that hee had neither offended any thing against the Law of the Jewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 Pet Festus willing to get fauour of the Jewes, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou goe vp to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to bee iudged: to the Jewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there bee none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Councell, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 And after certaine dayes, King Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whom when I came to Ierusalem, the high Priests and Elders of the Jewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to death, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following, I sate on the iudgement seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth:

18 Against whom when the accusers stood vp, they brought no crime of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him, whether hee would goe to Ierusalem, and there bee iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to be referred to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to bee kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrow, said he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morrow when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entered into the common hall with the chiefe Captaines and chiefe men of the Citie, at Festus com- mande-

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jewes haue called vpon me, both at Ierusalem, and here, crying, that he ought not to liue any longer.

25 Yet haue I found nothing worthy of death, that he hath committed: neuertheless, seeing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whom I haue no certaine thing to write vnto my lord: wherefore I haue brought him forth vnto you, and specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue some what to write.

27 For mee thinketh it unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shew the causes which are layd against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approved by recovering his conversation, 2 his modest answer against the iniurie of Festus.

Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answer this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Jewes:

3 Chastely, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Jewes: wherefore, I beseech thee to heare me patiently.

4 As touching my life from my childhood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Jewes.

5 Which knew mee heretofore (if they would testifie) that after the most strait sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelve tribes instantly turning God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O King Agrippa, I am accused of the Jewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to do many contrary things against the name of Iesus of Nazaret.

10 Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saints, I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the high Priests, and when they were put to death, I gaue my sentence.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being moze madde against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the high Priests;

13 At mid day, O King, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightness of the sunne, shine round about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto mee, and saying in the希伯来 tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

15 Then I sayd, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feet: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witness, both of the things which thou hast scene, and of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee.

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee.

18 To open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision, 20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe workes worthy amendment of life.

21 For this cause the Jewes caught mee in the Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Nevertheless I obteyned helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Apostles did say should come.

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that hee should bee the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as hee thus answered for himselfe, Festus layd with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee madde.

25 But hee sayd, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of truth and sobernesse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O King Agrippa, beseekest thou the Prophets? I know that thou dost.

28 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest mee to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul sayde, I would to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bondes.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage, and his company toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arrive.

Now when it was concluded, that wee should saile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certain other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Iulius, of the band of Augustus.

a. Cor. 1. 15.

2 And we entered into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to saile by the coastes of Asia, and launched forth, and had Artarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arrived at Sidon: and Iulius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched & sailed hard by Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphilia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lyka.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sailing into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when wee had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Ouidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sailed hard by Candie, neere to Salomone.

8 And with much adoe sailed beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the citie Laia.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was now leopordous, because also the fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And sayd vnto them, Syrs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuerthelesse the Centurion beleued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul,

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an haven of Candie, and lieth toward the Southwest and by West, and North-west and by West.

13 And when the Southerne wind blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sailed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie wind called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wind, we let her goe, and were carryed away.

16 And wee ranne vnder a litle Ile named Claudia, and had much adoe to get the boate, 17 Which they tooke vp and vsed all helpe, vndergirding the shippe, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Spites, and they let downe the vessel, and so were carryed.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that wee should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and said, Syrs, yee should haue hearkened to mee, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to bee of good courage: for there shall bee no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

23 For there stood by mee this night the Angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serue.

24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Celsar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto thee all that saile with thee.

25 Wherefore, syrs, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shall bee so as it hath bene tolde me.

26 Howbeit, wee must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as wee were carryed to and fro in the Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approached vnto them,

28 And sounded, and found it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a litle further, they sounded againe and found fifteene fathoms.

29 Then fearing least they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ankers out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Nowe as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ankers out of the fore shippe,

31 Paul said vnto the Centurion, and the souldiers, Except these abide in the shippe, we cannot be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue carryed, and continued fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your safegarde: for there shall not an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it and began to eate.

Or, boate.

Or, cast out the warre.

f That is, ye should haue saued the losse by auoyding the danger.

g They could not then reprove him of rashnesse seeing that this was the ordinance of God.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meate.

37 Now we were in the shippe in all two hundred threelcore and sixtene soules.

38 And when they had eaten enough they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the Sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the country, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken up the anchors, they committed the shippe unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bonds, and hoysed up the maine saile to the winde, and drew to the shoare.

41 And when they fell into a place where two seas met, they thrust in the ship, and the forepart stucke fast, and could not be moued, but the hinderpart was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsell was * to kill the prisoners: least any of them when he had swomme out, should flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, slayed them from this counsell, and commanded that they that could swimme, should cast themselves first into the sea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other some on boards, and some on certaine pieces of the shippe: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 Paul with his company are gently treated of the barbarous people. 3 The viper hurteth him not.

8 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessary, he saied toward Rome. 15 Where being receiued of the brethren, he declareth his business. 30 And there preacheth two yerres.

And when they were come safe, then they knew that the yle was called Malta.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no little kinde of kinde: for they kindled a fire, and receiued vs euery one, because of the present shoure, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of sickes, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and leapt on his hand.

4 Now when the Barbarians saw the worme hang on his hand, they said among themselves, This man surely is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

5 But hee shooke off the worme into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when he should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no inconuenience come to him, they changed their minds, and said, That he was a God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the yle (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, and lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was that the father of Publius lay sick of the feuer, and of a bloody fluxe, to whom Paul entred in, and when hee prayed, hee layd his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the yle, which had diseases, came to him and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when wee departed they laden vs with things necessary.

11 Now after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the yle, whose badge was Castor and Pollux.

12 And when wee arrived at Syracuse we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we set a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the South wind blew, and we came the second day to Puttoli.

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tary with them seuen daies, and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meet vs at the Mark of Appius, and at the thirde Taverna, whom when Paul saw, hee thanked God, and waxed bold.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he sayd vnto them, Men, and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined mee, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you and to speake with you: for the hope of Israels sake, I am bound with this chaine.

21 When they said vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any euill of thee.

22 But wee will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, wee knowe that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom hee expounded and testified the kingdom of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus both out of the Lawe of Moses, and out of the Prophets from morning to night.

24 And some were perswaded with the things which were spoken, and some beleued not.

25 Wherefore when they agreed not among them-

These the Poenims fained to be Jupiters children and gods of the sea.

No doubt the captaine vnderstood both by Festus letters, and also by the report of the vndercaptaine, that Paul had committed no fault.

That is, for Iesus Christs cause whom they had long looked for, as he that should be the Redeemer of the world.

That this kingdom, which was spoken of by the Prophets, was offered vnto them by the coming of Christ.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGVMENT.

The great mercy of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousness is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption could not fulfil the Law. yea, committed most abominably, both against the law of God and nature, the infinite bounty of God, mindful of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordained that mans saluation should onely stand in the perfect obedience of his Son Iesus Christ: So that not onely the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saued by faith in him: even as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust onely through faith, and yet afterward receiued circumcision as a seale or badge of the same righteousness by faith. And to intent that none should thinke that the couenant which God made to him, and his posteritie was not Performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ (which was the blessed seed) or els beleued not that he was the true Redeemer, because he did not onely, or at the least more notably preferre the Iewes: the examples of Ismael & Elau declareth that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promise. The cause whereof is the only will of God: forasmuch as of his free mercy he electeth some to be saued, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth other to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beaten down, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias proueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberal mercy of God, which he at length will stretch toward the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This groundworke of faith & doctrine laid, instructions of Christian maners follow, teaching euery man to walke in soundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenesse, reuerencing and obeying the Magistrate, exercising charity, putting off the old man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weak, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally, Saint Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vnity, and to flee false Preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (but some fruit also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men, and to the vnwise.
15 Therefore as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome,
16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God vnto saluation to every one that belieueth, to the Jew first, and also to the Grecian.
17 For by it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The iust shall liue by faith.
18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heauen against all vngodlinesse, and vnrighteousnesse of men, which withhold the truth in unrighteousnesse.
19 For as much as that, which may be known of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.
20 For the invisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they should be without excuse.
21 Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vaine in their imaginacions, and their foolish heart was full of darkenesse.
22 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.
23 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds and foure footed beastes, and of creeping things.
24 Therefore also God gave them vp to their heartes lusts, vnto uncleannesse, to desire their owne bodies betwene themselves:
25 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, || forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for ever. Amen.
26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women distorted their naturall vse into that which is against nature.
27 And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and received in themselves such recompence of their errour, as was meete.
28 For as they regarded not to know are not conuenient, 29 Being full of all vnrightheousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, couerousnesse, maliciousnesse, full of enuie, of murder, of debate,

7 And comforteth the faithfull, 12 To boaste

Jewes by the Law written.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, in that that thou iudgest another, thou cono In the inward man and heart.

9 Tribulation and anguish shall be vpon the soule of every man that doeth euill: of the Jew first, and also of the Grecian.
10 But to every man that doth good, shall be glory, and honour, and peace, to the Iew first, and also to the Grecian.
11 For there is no respect of persons with God.
12 For as many as haue sinned without the Law, shall perishe also without the Law: and as many as haue sinned in the Law, shall be iudged by the Law.
13 (* For the hearers of the Law are not righteous before God: but the doers of the Law shall be iustified.)
14 For when the Gentiles which haue not the Law, doe by nature the things contained in the Law, they hauing not the Law, are a Law vnto themselves, 15 Which shew the effect of the Lawe written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witnesse, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing.)
16 At the day when God shall iudge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.
17 Behold, thou art called a Iew, and rekest in the Law, and gloriest in God, 18 And knowest his will, and allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Law:
19 And perswadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darknesse,
20 An instructor of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the forme of knowledge, and of the truth in the Law.
21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man should not steale, dost thou steale?
22 Thou that sayest, A man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrificed?
23 Thou that gloriest in the Lawe, through breaking the Lawe, dishonourest thou God?
24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, * as it is written.
25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou doe the Law: but if thou bee a transgressor of the Law, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.
26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Law, shall not his vncircumcision bee counted for circumcision?
27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Law) iudge thee, which by the letter and circumcision are a transgression of the Law?
28 For hee is not a Jew which is one outwardly: neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:
29 But he is a Jewe which is one within, and the circumcision is of the heart. in the spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

Having granted some prerogatives to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, 10 he proueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes and Gentiles to bee sinners, 21. 24 and to be iustified by grace through faith, and not by works, 31 and so the Law to be established.
What is then the preferment of the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision?
2 Such every manner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the oracles of God.
3 For what though some did not beleene? shall their vnbellefe make the faith of God without effect?
4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, and every man a liar, as it is written, * What thou mightest bee iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome when thou art iudged.
5 Now if our vnrightheousnesse commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrightheous which punisheth? (I speake as a man)
6 God forbid: else how shall God iudge the world?
7 For if the veritie of God hath more abounded through my lie, vnto his glory, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?
8 And (as wee are blamed, and as some affirme that wee say) why doe wee not euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.
9 What then? are wee more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are vnder sinne, 10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one.
11 There is none, that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.
12 They haue all gone out of the way: they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.
13 * Their throte is an open sepulchre: they haue vsed their tongues to deccit: * the poyson of aspes is vnder their lips.
14 * Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.
15 * Their feet are swift to shed blood.
16 Destruction and calamitie are in their wayes,
17 And the way of peace they haue not known.
18 * The feare of God is not before their eyes.
19 Now wee know that whatsoever the Law saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the Law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world bee culpable before God.
20 * Therefore by the workes of the Law shall no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Lawe commeth the knowledge of sinne.

k Or fidelitie in performing his promise.
l The lawe of faith is the Gospel, which offereth saluation with condition (if thou beleueest) which condition also Christ freely giueth to vs. So the condition of the Law is (if thou doest all these things) the which onely Christ hath fulfilled for vs.
m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one meane, and if they will haue any difference, it onely standeth in words: for in effect there is none.
n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Law: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hath satisfied the Law: so that the Law which could not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is now made effectually to vs by Christ Iesus.

21 But now is the righteousnes of God made manifest without the Lawe, having witnesse of the Law and of the Prophets.
22 To wit, the righteousnes of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleue.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are deuyed of the glory of God.

24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus.

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousnesse, by the forgiveness of the sinnes that are past, through the patience of God.

26 To shew at this time his righteousnesse, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the Law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.

29 God, is he the God of the Iewes only, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

31 Doe we then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the Law.

CHAP. III.

1. 17. Hee declareth that iustification is a free gift, euen by them themselves of whom the Iewes most boasted, as of Abraham and of David, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

What shall wee say then, that Abraham our father hath found concerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, hee hath wherein to reioyce, but not with God.

3 For what saith the Scripture? Abraham beleued God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by debt:

5 But to him that worketh not, but beleueth in him that iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Euen as David declareth the blessednesse of the man vnto whom God imputeth righteousness without workes, saying,

7 Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are covered.

8 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednesse then vpon the circumcision only, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as the scale of the righteousnesse of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleue, not being circumcised, & righteousness might be imputed to them also.

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should bee the heire of the world, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Law bee heires, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Law causeth wrath: for where no Law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to that onely which is of the Law: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all.

17 (As it is written, I haue made thee a father of many nations) euen before God whom hee beleued, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham about hope beleued vnder hope, that hee should bee the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, So shall thy seed be.

19 And he not weake in the faith, considered not his owne body, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yeres old, neither the deadnes of Saras wombe, 20 Neither did hee doubt of the promise of God through vncircumcision, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue glory to God.

21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it is not witten for him onely, that it was imputed vnto him for righteousness.

24 But also for vs, to whom it shall be imputed for righteousness, which beleue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead.

25 Who was deliuered to death, for our sinnes, and is risen againe for our iustification.

and constant. r In that he was past childbearing. s For his mercy and truth. t For our instruction, for we shall bee iustified by the same means. u To accomplish and make perfect our iustification.

Then being iustified by faith, wee haue peace toward God through our Lord Iesus Christ.

2 By whom also wee haue access through faith vnto this grace, wherein we stand, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glorie of God.

3 Neither doe we so onely, but also we reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope.

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ when wee were yet of no strength, at his time died for the vngodly.

7 Doubtlesse one will scarce die for a righteous man: but yet for a good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while wee were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then being now iustified by his blood, wee shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For if when wee were enemies, wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shall be saved by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom wee haue now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore as by one man sinne entered into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went over all men so much as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time of the Law was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses, euen over them also that sinned not after the like manner of the transgression of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entered in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receive the abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, reigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one, the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefice abounded toward all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Wherefore, the Law entered thereupon, that the offence should abound: neither the less, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousness vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glory in the flesh, but rather seek to subdue it to the spirit, 3 He sheweth by the vertue and end of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 21 Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousness.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall wee that are dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that all we which haue bene baptizd into Iesus Christ, haue bene baptizd into his death?

4 We are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also should walke in newnes of life.

5 For if wee be grafted with him to the similitude of his death, euen so shall wee be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the body of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth wee should not serue sinne.

7 For hee that is dead is freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall liue also with him.

9 Knowing that Christ being raised fro the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that hee died, hee died once to sinne: but in that hee liueth, hee liueth to God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that yee are dead to sinne, but are aliuē to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall body, that yee should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither giue yee your members as weapons of vnrightheousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliuē from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

14 Being dead we cannot sinne, 2 That he might destroy sin in our flesh. h And sitteth at the right hand of the Father. i We may gather that we are dead to sinne, when sinne becometh to die in vs, which is by the participation of Christs death, by whom also being quickned, we liue to God, that is, to righteousness.

k In that ye are led with the Spirit of God. l The mind first ministrerth euill motions, whereby mans will is enticed: thence burst forth the lusts, by them the body is prouoked, and the body by his actions doth sollicite the mind: therefore he commandeth at the least, that we rule our bodies. || Or, instruments, by armour.

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bin the seruants of sin: but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye were delivered.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the manner of man, because of the infirmite of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to uncleannes and to iniquity, to commit iniquity, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousness in holinesse.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sin, ye were freed from righteousness.

21 What fruite had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your fruite in holinesse, and the end euermolting life.

23 For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1. 7. 12. The vse of the Law, 6. 24. and how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmity of the flesh. 23 The dangerous fight betweene the flesh and the spirit.

Know ye not brethren (for I speake to them that know the Lawe) that the Law hath dominion over a man as long as he liueth?

2 For the woman which is in subjection to a man, is bound by the Law to the man while hee liueth: but if the man bee dead, shee is deliuered from the law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, shee shall be called an adulteresse: but if the man be dead, shee is free from the Law, so that shee is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Law, by the body of Christ, that ye should be vnto another, euen vnto him that is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit vnto God.

5 For when wee were in the flesh, the motions of sinnes, which were by the law, had force in our members, to bring forth fruit vnto death.

6 But now wee are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead vnto it, wherein wee were holden, that wee should serue in newnesse of spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 What shall wee say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the law: for I had not knowne lust, except the Law had said, Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in mee all manner of concupiscence: for without the law sinne is dead.

9 But I once was aloue without the law: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued.

10 But I died: and the same commandement which was ordeined vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued mee, and thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is holy, and the Commandement is holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was then that which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in mee by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the commandement.

14 For we know that the law is spirituall, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.

15 For I allow not that which I do: for what I would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I do then that which I would not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I, that doe it: but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with mee: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I do not the good thing which I would, but the euill, which I would not, that doe I.

20 Now if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Law, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Law of God, concerning the inner man:

23 But I see another Law in my members, rebelling against the Law of my minde, and leading mee captiue vnto the Law of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I say selle in my minde serue the Law of God, but in my flesh the law of sinne.

|| Or, of so be.

|| Or, flesh.

h The spirit of regeneration, which abolisheth sinne in our flesh, not all at once, but by degrees: wherefore

we must in the meantime call to God through patience.

i But to liue after the Spirit.

k So he nameth the holy Ghost of the Father, which hee causeth in vs, when hee proposeth vs saluation by the law, with an impossible condition, who also doth seale our saluation in our hearts by Christs free adoption, that we consider not God now as a rigorous Lord, but as a most mercifull Father. Gal. 4.

6. l So that we haue two witnesses, Gods Spirit, and ours, who certified by the Spirit of God,

NOW then there is no^a condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not^b after the flesh, but after the spirit,

2 For the^c Law of the Spirit of life, which is in^d Christ Iesus, hath freed mee from the law of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the Law, in as much as it was || weake, because of the flesh) God sendeth his owne Sonne, in the^e similitude of sinfull flesh, and || for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the^f righteousnesse of the Law, might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, loue the^g thinges of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the thinges of the Spirit.

6 For the wisdom of the flesh is death: but the wisdom of the Spirit is life and peace,

7 Because the wisdom of the flesh, is enmity against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now yee are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, || because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ bee in you, the || body is dead because of sinne: but the^h Spirit is life for righteousnesse sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised by Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised by Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, wee are debtors not to the flesh, to liue after theⁱ flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For yee haue not received the spirit of bondage to feare againe: but yee haue receiued the spirit of^j adoption, whereby wee cry^k Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit^l beareth witnesse with our Spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are also^m heires, in Freely made euery the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ, if so bee that wee suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not || worthy of the glory || Or, of like value, which shall be shewed vnto vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shall be re- uelled.

20 Because theⁿ creature is subiect to n The creatures shall not be re- stored before that Gods chil- dren be brought to their perfecti- on: in the meane season they wait, o That is, to de- struction, because of mans sinne, p He meaneth not the Angels, neither deuils, nor men, q And yet are farre from the perfection. Luke 21. 28. r Which shall be in the resurrection, when we shall be made con- formable to our head Christ. f By hope is meant that thing which we hope for, t In that he stir- reth their hearts to pray, and sheweth both whom to aske, and how, u He sheweth by the order of our election, that af- flictions are meane to make vs like the Sonne of God,

21 Because the creature also shall be de- liuered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the sonnes of God.

22 For wee know that euery^p creature groaneth with vs also, and travaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the^q first fruites of the Spirit, euen wee doe sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the^r redemption of our^s body.

24 For wee are saved by hope: but^t hope that is seeme, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for wee know not what to pray as we ought: but the Spirit it selfe maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be^u expressed.

27 But he that searcheth the hearts, know- ceth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he^v maketh request for the^w Saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his pur- pose.

29 For those which he^x knew, before hee also predestinated to be made like to the i- mage of his Son, that he might bee the first borne among many brethren.

30 Whereouer, whom hee predestinated, them also hee called, & whom hee called, them also hee iustified, and whom hee iustified, them hee also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God bee on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gave him for vs all to death, how shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? It is God that^y iustifi- eth.

34 Who shall condemne? It is Christ which is dead, yea, or rather which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or pe- rill, or sword?

36 As it is written, For thy sake are we^z killed and the seruice of God, and the promises.

5 Of whom are the fathers, and of whom concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is God ouer all, blessed for ever Amen.

6 Notwithstanding, it cannot bee that the word of God should take none effect: for all they are not Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither are they all children, because they are the seed of Abraham: * but, in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

8 That is, they which are the children of the flesh, are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is a word of promise, * In this saue time will I come, and Sara shall haue a sonne.

10 Neither he onely selet this, but also * Rebecca, when she had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac.

11 For, yee the children were borne, and when they had neither done good nor euill, (that the purpose of God might remaine according to election, not by works, but by him that calleth.)

12 It was said vnto her, * The elder shall serue the younger,

13 As it is written, * I haue loued Jacob, and haue hated Esau.

14 What shall we say then? Is there vnrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, * I will haue mercie on him to whom I will shew mercie:
and will haue compassion on him, on whom

I will haue compassion.

16 So then it is not in him that willet, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercie.

17 For the Scripture saith vnto Pharao, * For this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shewe my power in thee, and that my name might bee declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore he hath mercie on whom he will, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto mee, * Why doth he yet complain: for who hath resisted

20 But, I man, who art thou which 22 What and if God would, to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, suffer with long patience the vessels of wrath prepared to destruction?

23 And that he might declare the riches of his glory vpon the vessels of mercie, which he hath prepared vnto glory?

24 Euen vs, whom he hath called, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles,

25 As he saith also in Osee, * I will call them my people, which were not my people:
and her. Beloued, which was not beloued.

26 And it shall bee in the place where it was said vnto them, * Ye are not my people, that there they shall be called, * The children of the liuing God.

27 Also Elias crieth concerning Israel,
* Though the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saued.

28 For hee will make his account, and gather it into a sheaf summe with righteou-nesse: for the Lord will make a sheaf count in the earth.

29 And as Elias said before, Except the Lord of hosts had left vs a seed, wee had been made as Sodom, and had been like to Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousness, haue attained vnto righteousness, euen the righteousnesse which is of faith.

31 But Israel which followed the Law of righteousness, could not attaine vnto the Law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Law: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone,

33 As it is written, * Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, and a rocke to make men fall: and euery one that beleueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

destruction, an
to the faithfull life and retrirection.

Bethen, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I heare them record, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and going about to establish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the ende of the Law for righteousness vnto every one that beleueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the Law, * That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue.)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deepe? (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what sauyeth it? * The worde is neere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the word of faith which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man beleueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoever beleueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betwene the Jew and the Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoever shall call vpon the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

14 But how shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleued? and how shall they beleue in him, of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautifull are the feet of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Elias saith, * Lord, who hath beleued our report?

17 Then faith is by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I demand, Haue they not heard? * No doubt their sound went out through all the earth, and their words into the ends of the world.

19 But I demand, Did not Israel know God? First Moses saith, * I will prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 And Elias is bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after mee.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All thy day long haue I stretched forth mine hand vnto all disobedient and gaine saying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church, although it be not seene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reuealed himselfe to the Gentiles. 18 Whom he warneth to humble themselves. 29 The gifts of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

I Demand then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which hee knew before. Know ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how hee maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seek my life?

4 But what saith the answer of God to him? * I haue reserved vnto my selfe seven thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of works: or else grace were no more grace: but if it be of works, it is no more grace: or else were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that hee sought: but the election hath obtained it, and the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And David saith, * Let their table be made a snare, and a nette, and a stumbling block, euen for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, & bow downe their backes alwayes.

11 I demand then, Haue they stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation cometh vnto the Gentiles, to prouoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them bee the riches of the world: and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles: how much more shall their abundance be?

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office,

14 To trie if by any meanes I might prouoke them of my flesh to follow them, and might saue some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the retaining be but life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruits be holy, so is the whole lump: and if the roote be holy, so are the branches.

17 And though some of the branches bee broken off, and thou being a wilde Olive tree, wast grafted in for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of the Olive tree,

18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches: and if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well: though unbelieve they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: bee not high minded, but feare.

21 For if God spared not the naturall branches, take heed, lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the bountifullnesse and severity of God: toward them which haue fallen, severity: but toward thee bountifullnesse, if thou continue in his bountifullnesse: or else thou shalt also be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelieve, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the Olive tree, which was wilde by nature, and wast grafted contrary to nature in a right Olive tree, how much more shall they that are by nature, be grafted in their owne Olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that yee should bee ignorant of this secret, (least yee should be arrogant in your selues) that partly obstinate is come to Israel, vntill the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saued, as it is written, The delinquer shall come out of Sion, and shall rurne away the vngodlinesse from Jacob,

27 And this is my covenant to them When I shall take away their sinnes.

31 Euen so now haue they not beleued by the mercie shewed vnto you, that they also may obtaine mercie.

32 For God hath shut vp all in unbelieve, that he might haue mercie on all.

33 O the deepenesse of the riches, both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how vnsearchable are his iudgements, and his wayes past finding out!

34 For who hath knowen the mind of the Lord? or who was his counsell?

35 Or who hath giuen vnto him first, and he shall be recompensed?

36 For of him, and through him, and for him are all things: to him be glory for euer. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and workes of such as beloue in Christ. 19 Not to seeke vengeance.

I Beseech you therefore brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye giue vp your bodies as a liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your reasonable seruing of God.

2 And fashion not your selues like vnto this world, but be ye changed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may proue what is the good will of God, and acceptable, and perfect.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to understand, aboue that which is meete to understand, but that hee vnderstand according to his measure, as God hath dealt to euery man the measure of faith.

4 For as wee haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office,

5 So wee being many are one bodie in Christ, and euery one, one anothers members.

6 Seeing then that we haue gifts that are diuers, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether wee haue prophesie, let vs prophesie according to the proportion of faith:

7 Or an office, let vs waite on the office: or be that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or be that exhorteth, on exhortation: hee that distributeth, let him doe it with simplicity: hee that ruleth, with diligence: hee that sheweth mercie, with cheerefulness.

9 Let loue be without dissimulation. Abhorre that which is euill, and cleaue vnto that which is good.

10 Bee affectioned to loue one another with brotherly loue. In giuing honour, goe one before another.

11 Be not slothfull to doe seruice: seruent in spirit, seruing the Lord,

12 Reioycing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing in prayer,

1 The obedience to the rulers. 4 Why they have the sword. 8 Charity ought to measure all our doings. 11 An exhortation to innocencie and puritie of life.

Let every soule be subject unto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therfore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receive to themselves iudge-ment.

3 For princes are not to be feared for good workes, but for euill. Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? doe well: so shalt thou haue prayse of the same.

4 For hee is the minister of God for thy wealch: but if thou doe euill, feare: for hee beareth not the sword for nought: for hee is the minister of God to take vengeance on him that doth euill.

5 Therefore wee must be subject, not because of wrath onely, but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause ye pay also tribute:
for they are Gods ministers, applying themselves for the same thing.

7 Give to all men therfore their duty:
tribute, to whom ye owe tribute: custome, to whom custome: feare, to whom feare: honor, to whom ye owe honour.

8 Dwe nothing to any man: but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the Law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false wit-nesse, Thou shalt not couet: and if there bee any other commandement, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, even in this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

10 Loue doeth not euill to his neighbour: therfore is loue the fulfilling of the Law.

11 And that considering the season, that is now time that wee should arise from sleepe: for now is our saluation: neerer the when we beleueued it.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hand: let vs therfore cast away the workes of darkenes, and let vs put on the armour of light,

13 So that wee walke honestly, as in the day: not in gluttonie and drunkenness, neither in chambering and wantonnesse, nor in strife and enuying:

14 But put yee on the Lord IESVS Christ, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts of it.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The weake ought not to be despised, 10 No man should offend anothers conscience. 15 But one support another in charitie and faith.

Am that is weake in the faith, receiue unto you, but not for controuerfies of disputations.

2 One beleueueth that hee may eate of all things: and another, which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not iudge him that eateth: for God hath re-ceiued him.

4 Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? hee standeth or falleth to his owne master: yea, hee shall bee established: for God is able to make him stand.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboue another day, and another man counteth every day alike: let every man be fully perswaded in his minde.

6 Wee that obserueth the day, obserueth it to the Lord: and hee that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. Wee that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for hee giueth God thanks: and he that eateth not, eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thanks.

7 For none of vs lueth to himselfe, neither doth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether wee liue, wee liue vnto the Lord: or whether wee die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether wee liue therfore, or die, we are the Lords.

9 For Christ therfore died, and rose againe, and reuiued, that he might bee Lord both of the dead and the quick.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brother?
for wee shall all appeare before the iudge-ment seate of Christ.

11 For it is written, I will line, saith the Lord, and every knee shall bow to mee, and all tongues shall confesse vnto God.

Cor. 8. 11. n Which is the benefit of Christian libertie, by abusing whereof ye cause the weakelings to blaspheme the Gospel, which might seeme to them contrary to Gods wil, and the doctrine of the law. o God will not reigne ouer his by such obseruations. p In peace and righteousness. Titus 1. 13. q Faith here is taken for a full perswasion of the Christian liberty in things indifferent, as the Apostle interpreteth it in the 14. vers. r Which hath none euill remors of conscience in his doing. s Meaning of a right conscience.

12 So then every one of vs shall glue accounts of himselfe to God.
13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.
14 I know, and am perswaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to bee vncleane, to him it is vncleane.
15 But if thy brother bee grieved for the meate, now walkest thou not charitably: destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ dyed.
16 Cause not your^a commoditie to be vnil spoken of.
17 For the^b kingdom of God is not meate nor drinke, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the holy Ghost.
18 For whosoever^c in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable to God, and is approved of men.
19 Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.
20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: all things indrede are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.
21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth or is offended, or made weake.
22 Hast thou^d faith? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is he that^e condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.
23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if hee eate, because hee eateth not of faith: and whatsoeuer is not of faith is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ. 9 and by the only mercie of God, which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 Hee sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 And requireth the same of them.

Which are strong ought to beare the infirmities of the weak, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let every man please his neighbour in that that is good to^a edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fell^b on me.

14 For whatsoeuer things are written afore time, are written for our learning, that wee through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures, might haue hope.

7 Wherefore, receiue yee one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the^e glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision, for the^f truth of God: to confirme the promises made vnto the Fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercy, as it is written, For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

11 And againe, Praise the Lord all yee Gentiles, and laud ye him all people together.

12 And againe Elisas saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and e hee that shall rise to reigne ouer the^g Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy, and peace in believing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Remembered be ye brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen mee of God.

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might bee acceptable^h being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore wherof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare notⁱ speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by mee, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deed,

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Ierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation, 21 But as it is written, To whom hee was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

22 Therefore also I haue bene^j off let to come vnto you.

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue^k bene desirous many yeeres agoe to come vnto you, debtors are they: * for if the Gentiles bee made partakers of their spirituall things, their duettie is also to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, & haue sealed them this fruit, I will passe by you into Spaine.

29 * And I know when I come, that I shall come to you with * abundance of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

30 Also brethren, I beseech you for our

32 That I may come vnto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you bee refreshed.

33 Thus the * God of peace be with you

1 After many recommendations, 17 he admoni-sheth them to beware of false brethren, and to bee circumspet, 20 He prayeth for them, and giueth thanks to God.

I Commend vnto you Phoebe our sister, which is a seruant of the Church of Cenchrea,

2 That yee receiue her in the Lord, as it becometh Saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoeuer businesse she needeth of your aid:
for shee hath giuen hospitalitie vnto many,
and to me also.

3 Greete * Pricilla and Aquila my fellow helpers in Christ Iesus.

4 (Which haue for my life laid downe their owne necke, vnto whom not I onely giue thanks, but also all the Churches of the Gentiles.)

5 Likewise greets the Church, that is in their house. Salute my beloued Epnetus, which is the * first fruite of Achata in Christ.

6 Greete Marie, which bestowed much labour on vs.

7 Salute Andronicus, and Junia, my

9 Salute Archippus our fellow helper in Christ, and Stachis my beloued.

10 Salute Apelles approued in Christ, Salute them which are of Aristobulus
friends.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them which are of the friends of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, which women labour in the Lord. Salute the beloued Persis, which woman hath laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Greete Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Percurtus, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus and Iulias, Re-reas, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the Saints which are with them.

16 Salute one another with an * holy kisse. The Churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you brethren, marke them diligently which cause diuision and offences, contrary to the doctrine which yee haue learned, and * auoyd them.

18 For they that are such, serue not the Lord Iesus Christ, but their owne bellies, and with * faire speech & flattering decieve
the hearts of the simple.

19 For your obedience is come abroad among all: I am glad therefore of you:
but yet I would haue you wise vnto that which is good, and simple concerning euil.

20 The God of peace shall tread Satan vnder your feete shortly. The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you.

21 * Timotheus my companion, and Lucius, and Iason, and Sosipater my kinsmen salute you.

22 I Tertius, which wrote out this Epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 * Salus mine hoste, and of the whole Church saluteth you. Erastus the Cham-berlaine of the city saluteth you, and Quar-tus a brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, be with you all. Amen.

25 * To him now that is of power to establish you according to my Gospel, and preaching of Iesus Christ, by the reuelation of the myserie, which was kept secret since the world began:

26 (But now is opened, and published among all Nations by the Scriptures of

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that Saint Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeere and a halfe, hee was compelled by the wickednes of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glorie, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefe points of Christian Religion. Against these evils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproveth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to concord and humilitie, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heauenly wisdom of the Gospel, which cannot be perswaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is reuealed by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this salutation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued himselfe skillfully, building according to the foundation (which is in Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they bee not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he hath declared by manifest signes that he neuer sought his owne glory, neither yet how he might liue, but onely the glory of Christ: which thing at his comming he would declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine-glorious braggars, who sought themelues onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproved and unpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before Infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duty of marriage, of discord and dissention among the married, of virginie, and second marriage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, hee warneth them to haue respect to their weaker brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindred, and their consciences wounded, which thing rather then he would doe, he would neuer vie that libertie, which God had given him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfe will was the cause of those great evils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glory in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to follow Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behaviour of me, and women in their assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the Spirituall gifts, which God hath giuen to maintaine loue, and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all, he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and welldoing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

2 He praiseth the great graces of God shewed to ward them, 10. Exhorting them to concord and humilitie, 19. Hee beateth downe all pride, and wisdom which is not grounded on God, 26. Shewing whom God hath chosen to confound the wisdoms of the world.

knit together in one mind, and in one iudge-
ment.

11 For it hath beene declared vnto mee, my brethren, of you, by them that are of the house of ¹ Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Nowe this I say, that enery one of you sayeth, I am Pauls, and I am ² Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christs.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were yee baptized ³ into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but ⁴ Crispus, and ⁵ Gaius,

15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the household of Ste-phanas: furthermore know I not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent mee not to ⁶ baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with ⁷ a wis-dome of wordes, ⁸ lest the crosse of Christ should be made of one effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs which are saved, it is the ⁹ power of God.

19 For it is written, ¹⁰ I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will cast away the vnderstanding of the Prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the ¹¹ Scrbe? where is the ¹² disputer of this world? hath not God made the wisdom of this world foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the world by wisdom knew not God in the wisdom of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to save them that beleue:

22 Seeing also that the Jewes require a ¹³ signe, and the Grecians seeke after wis-dome.

23 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto the Jewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto
the Grecians foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Jewes and Grecians, wee preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 For the ¹⁴ foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weaknesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not many wise men ¹⁵ after the flesh, nor many mighty, nor many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world, to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to confound the mighty things.

28 And vile things of the world, & things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things ¹⁶ which are not, to bring to nought things ¹⁷ that are,

29 That no ¹⁸ flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But yet are of him in Christ Iesus, ¹⁹ who of God is made vnto vs ²⁰ wisdom, and righteousnesse, and sanctification, and redemption,

31 That according as it is written, ²¹ We that reioyce, let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 He putteth for example his manner of preaching, which was according to the tenour of the Gospel.
2 Which Gospel was contemptible and hid to the earnall, 3 And againe honorable and manifest to the spirituall.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you,
I came not with ²² excellencie of wordes, or of wisdom, shewing vnto you the ²³ testi-monie of God.

2 For I esteemed not to ²⁴ know any thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was among you in ²⁵ weaknesse and in feare, and in much trembling.

4 Neither stood my word, and my preaching in the ²⁶ intiking speech of mans wis-dome, but in plaine euidence of ²⁷ the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith should not bee in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisdom among them that are ²⁸ perfit: not the wisdom of this world, neither of the ²⁹ princes of this world, which come to nought:

7 But wee speake the wisdom of God in a mystery, euen the hid wisdom, which God hath determined before the world, vnto our glory.

8 Which ³⁰ none of the Princes of this world hath known: for had they known it, they would not haue crucified the ³¹ Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, ³² The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare hath heard, neither came into mans heart, are, which ³³ God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuelled them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit ³⁴ searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue the Spirit ³⁵ of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, saue the Spirit of God.

12 Now wee haue ³⁶ received not the Spirit of the world, but the Spirit, which is of ³⁷ God, that wee might know the ³⁸ things that are giuen to vs of God.

AND I could not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spirituall men, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not meate: for yee were not yet able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For yee are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are yee not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then, and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye beleueed, and as the Lord gaue to euery man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watered, but God gaue the increase.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and he that watereth are one, and euery man shall receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods labourers: yee are Gods husbandry, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to mee, as a skilfull master builder, I haue laide the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let euery man take heede how hee buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is laide, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man build on this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble,

13 Euery mans worke shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be reuealed by the fire: and the fire shall triuie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that he hath builded vpon, abide, he shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, hee shall lose it, but hee shall bee safe himselfe: neuertheless yet as it were by the fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe. If any man among you seeme to bee wise in this world, let him bee a foole, that hee may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishnesse with God: for is written, He catcheth the wise in their owne craftinesse.

20 And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it bee Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death: whether they bee things present, or things to come, euen all are yours,

23 And yet Christ, and Christ Gods.

which they laide for others, Psal. 94. 11. But in God who worke by his ministers to his owne glory and the comfort of his Church.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 Hee appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Beating down their glory which hindered them to praise that which they dispraised in him. 19 Hee sheweth what he requirerh on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

Let a man so thinke of vs, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that euery man be found faithfull.

3 As touching me, I passe very little to bee iudged of you, or of mans iudgement: no, I Iudge not mine owne selfe.

4 For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustificed: but hee that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore Iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall euery man haue praise of God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applyed vnto mine owne selfe and Apollos for your sakes, that ye might learne by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swell not against another for any mans cause.

7 For who separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou haddest not receiued it?

8 Now ye are full: now ye are made rich: ye reigne as kings without vs, and would to God, ye did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs as his last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gazing stocke vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christs sake, and we are wise in Christ: we are weak, and yet strong: we are honourable, and we are despised.

11 Vnto this houre we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place,

12 And labour, working with our owne hands: we are reviled, and yet we blesse: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 We are evil spoken of, and we pray: we are made as the filth of the world, the outscouring of all things vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children, I admonish you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet haue ye not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lord, which shall put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christ, as I teach every where in every Church.

18 Some are puffed up as though I would not come to you.

19 But I wil come to you shortly, if the Lords will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the Kingdome of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come vnto you with a rodde, or in loue, and in the spirit of meeknesse?

CHAP. V.

1 Hee reproveth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Wiling them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace purity, 9 And flee wickednesse.

It is heard certainly, that there is, fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the Gentiles, that one should haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and haue not rather sorrowed, that he which hath done this deed, might be put from among you.

3 For I verely as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already, as though I were present, that hee that hath thus done this thing,

5 Bee deliuered vnto Satan, for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saued in the day of the Lord Iesus.

6 Your reioycing is not good: know ye not that a little leauen leaueth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened: for Christ our Passouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with olde leauen, neither in the leauen of malitiousnesse and wickednesse: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truerh.

9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, that ye should not company together with fornicators,

10 And not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must goe out of the world.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye company not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or an idolater, or a rader, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

12 For what haue I to doe to iudge them also, which are without? doe ye not iudge them that are within?

13 But God iudgeth them that are without. Put away therefore from among your selues that wicked man.

1 Hee rebuketh them for going to Law together before the heathen, 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 He reproveth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15 And sheweth that we ought to serue God purely both in body and soule.

Are any of you, hauing businessse against another, be iudged vnder the vnjust, and not vnder the Saints?

2 Doe ye not know, that the Saints shall iudge the world? If the world then shall be iudged by you, are ye unworthy to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that wee shall iudge the Angels? how much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgement of things pertaining to this life, set vp them which are least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to Law with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault esteemed your iudge: for it is most easie to iudge betweene brethren, Or, impotencie of minde.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certaine questions, which the Corinthians desired to know, 2 As of single life, 3 Of the dutie of marriage, 11 Of discords and dissention in marriage, 13 Of marriage betweene the faithfull and vnfaithfull, 18 Of vncircumcising the circumcised, 21 Of seruitude, 25 Of virginities, 32 And second marriage.

a Or, expedient because marriage, through mans corruption, and not by Gods institution, bringeth cares and troubles. b Speaking to all men in generall,

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote vnto me, It were good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to auoyd fornication, let every man haue his wife, and let euery woman haue her owne husband.

3 * Let the husband giue vnto the wife due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the husband.

4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wife.

5 Defraud not one another, except it bee with consent for a time, that yee may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, and againe come together, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, not by commandement.

7 For I would that all men were euen as I my selfe am: but euery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarrid, and vnto the widowes, It is good for them if they abide euen as I doe.

9 But if they cannot abstaine, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to burne.

10 And vnto the married I command, not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband.

11 But as if she depart, let her remaine vnmarrid, or bee reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, and not the Lord, If any brother haue a wife, that beleueth not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that beleueth not, if hee be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbelleuing husband is sanctified by the wife, and the vnbelleuing wife is sanctified by the husband, els were your children vncleane: but now are they hol.

15 But if the vnbelleuing depart, let him depart: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thine husband? What knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lord hath called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordaine I in all Churches.

18 As any man called being circumcised: let him not gather his vncircumcision: is any called vncircumcised: let him not bee circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandements of God.

cation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord being a seruant, is the Lords freeman: likewise also hee that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 We are bought with a price: bee not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man wherein hee was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, I haue no commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose then this to be good for the present necessity: I meane, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marry, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, hereafter that both they which haue wiues, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that weepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this world as though they vsted it not: for the fashion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would haue you without care. The unmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also betweene a virgine and a wife: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that shee may bee holy, both in body and in spirit: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the world, how shee may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your owne commodities, not to tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that which is honest, and that ye may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 But if any man thinketh that it is vncome for his virgine, if shee passe the flower of her age, and neede so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuertheless, he that standeth firme in his heart, that he hath no need, but hath power ouer his owne will, and hath so desired in his heart, that hee will keepe his virginie, he doth well.

38 So then hee that giueth her to marriage, doth well, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doth better.

39 The wife is bound by the Law, as long as her husband liueth: but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to marry with whom she will, only in the Lord.

40 But shee is more blessed, if shee so abide, in my iudgement: and I thinke that I haue also the Spirit of God.

k And more commodious for his children in preteruing them from cares. l Of matrimonie. Rom. 7. 2. 1. Ths. 4. 9.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Hee rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue them toward such as be weake.

As touching things sacrificed vnto idols, we know that we all haue knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is knowne of him.

4 Concerning therefore meate sacrificed vnto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all things, and wee in him: and one Lord Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and wee by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some haue conscience of the idol, vntill this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idol, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God: for neither if wee eate, haue wee the more: neither if wee eate not, haue wee the lesse.

9 But take heed lest by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weake, be boldened to eate those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weake brother perish, for whom Christ died.

12 Now when ye sinne so against the brethren, and wound their weake conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 Wherefore if meate offend my brother, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

s. Chap. 6. 12.
t. 1. Cor. 10. 37. 27.

u. For in those dayes they were accustomed to sell certaine of the fleſh of beaſtes ſacrificed in the ſhambles, and turned the money to the Priests profit. f. Or, doubt not. Psal. 24. 1.

9. Neither let vs tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted him, & were destroyed of serpents.

10. Neither murmure ye as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11. Now all these things came vnto them for examples, and were written to admo-nition vs, vpon whom the ends of the world are come.

12. Wherefore let him that thinketh hee standeth, take heed lest hee fall.

13. There hath no temptation taken you, but such as appertaineth to man, and God is faithful, which will not suffer you to be tempted aboue that you be able, but will euen giue the issue with the temptation, that ye may be able to beare it.

14. Wherefore my beloved, flee from idolatry.

15. I ſpeake as vnto them which haue vn-derſtanding: iudge ye what I ſay.

16. The cuppe of blessing which wee bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which wee breake is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17. For we that are many are one bread and one body, because we are all partakers of one bread.

18. Behold Israel which is after the flesh are not they which eate of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19. What ſay I then? that the ſoule is any thing? or that that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing?

20. Nay, but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, and not vnto God: and I would not that ye should haue fellowship with the de-uils.

21. Pre cannot drinke the cup of the Lord and the cup of the devil. Ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table, and of the table of deuils.

22. Doe wee prouoke the Lord to anger?
are we stronger then he?

23. All things are lawfull for mee, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawfull for me, but all things edifie not.

24. Let no man ſeek his owne, but euery man anothers wealth.

25. Whatſoeuer is ſold in the ſhambles eate ye, and aſke no queſtion for conſcience ſake.

26. For the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is.

27. If any of them which beleeue not call you to a feaſt, and if ye will go, whatſoeuer is ſet before you, eate, aſking no queſtion for conſcience ſake.

28. But if any man ſay vnto you, This is ſacrificed vnto idoles, eate it not, becauſe of him that ſhewed it, and for the conſcience, (for the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is.)

29. And the conſcience I ſay, not thine, but of that other: for why ſhould my con-ſcience be condemned of another mans con-ſcience?

30. For if I through Gods benefite be partaker, why am I cuil ſpoken of, for that wherefore I giue thanks?

31. Whether therefore ye eate or drinke, or whatſoeuer you doe, doe all to the glory of God.

32. Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

33. Euen as I pleaſe all men in all things, not ſeeking mine owne proſite, but the proſite of many, that they might be ſaved.

CHAP. XI.

Hee rebuketh the abuſes which were crept into their Church, 4. As touching prayer, prophecyng, 18. And miniſtring of the Lords Supper, 23. Bringing them again to the firſt inſtitution thereof.

Be ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.

2. Now, brethren, I commend you, that ye remember ſail my things, and keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.

3. But I will that ye know that Christ is the head of euery man: and the man is the womans head: and God is Christs head.

4. Euery man praying, or prophecyng haueing anything on his head, diſhonoureth his head.

5. But euery woman that prayeth or propheſieth bare headed, diſhonoureth her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though ſhe were ſhauen.

6. Therefore if the woman be not cou-ered, let her alſo be ſhorne: and if it be ſhame for a woman to be ſhorne or ſhauen, let her be couered.

7. For a man ought not to couer his head for ſomuch as hee is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8. For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9. For the man was not created for the womans ſake: but the woman for the mans ſake.

10. Therefore ought the woman to haue power on her head, becauſe of the Angels.

11.ouer heeſſe, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.

12. For as the woman is of the man, ſo is the man alſo by the woman: but all things are of God.

13. Iudge in your ſelues, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God vncouered?

14. Doeth not nature it ſelfe teach you, a praife vnto her: for her haire is giuen her for a covering.

16 But if any man liſt to be contentious, we haue no ſuch cuſtome, neither the Churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare, I praife you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For ſirſt of all when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are diſſentions among you: and I beleue it to be true in ſome part.

19 For there muſt be hereties euen among you, that they which are approued among you, might be knowne.

20 When yee come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lords Supper.

21 For euery man when they ſhould eate, taketh his own ſupper afore, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 Haue yee not houſes to eate and to drinke in? help ſe ye the Church of God, and ſhame them that haue not: what ſhall I ſay to you? ſhall I praife you in this? I praife you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the Lord that which I alſo haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lord Ieſus in the night that he was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 And when he had giuen thanks, hee broke it, and ſaid, Take, eat: this is my body which is broken for you: this doe yee in remembrance of me.

25 After the ſame manner alſo he tooke the cup when he had ſupped, ſaying, This cup is the new Teſtament in my blood, this doe aſo as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For aſo often as ye ſhall eat this bread, and drinke this cup, ye ſhew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whoſoever ſhall eate this bread, & drinke the cup of the Lord unworthily, ſhall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 Let a man therefore examine himſelfe, and ſo let him eat of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh un-worthily, eateth and drinketh his own damnation, becauſe he diſcerneth not the Lords body.

30 For this cauſe many are weake, and ſicke among you, and many ſleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our ſelues, we ſhould not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are cha-ſtened of the Lord, becauſe we ſhould not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tary one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eat at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I ſet in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 The diſpenſation of the gifts of the holy Ghoſt ought to be viſed to the edifying of Chriffs Church, 12 as the members of mans body ſerue to the uſe one of another.

Now concerning ſpiritual gifts, brethren
I would not haue you ignorant.

Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and were caried away vnto the dumb images, as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I declare vnto you, that no man ſpeaking by the Spirit of God, called Ieſus excreable: alſo no man can ſay that Ieſus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghoſt.

4 Now there are diuerſities of gifts, but the ſame Spirit.

5 And there are diuerſities of adminiſtrations, but the ſame Lord.

6 And there are diuerſities of operations, but God is the ſame, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifeſtation of the Spirit is giuen to every man, to profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of wiſdom, and to another the word of knowledge by the ſame Spirit:

9 And to another is giuen faith, by the ſame Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing by the ſame Spirit:

10 And to another the operations of great works: and to another, propheſie:
and to another, the diſcerning of ſpirits:
and to another, diuerſities of tongues:
and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 And all theſe things worketh euen the ſelfe ſame Spirit, diſtributing to every man ſeuerally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: euen ſo is Chriſt.

13 For by one Spirit are wee all baptized into one body, whether wee be Jewes or Grecians, whether wee be bond or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body alſo is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote would ſay, Becauſe I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would ſay, Becauſe I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the ſmelling?

18 But now God hath diſpoſed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleaſure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members, yet but one body?

21 And the eye cannot ſay vnto the hand,
I haue no need of thee: nor the head againe to the feet, I haue no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather thoſe members of the body, which ſeeme to be more feeble, are incorporate into Chriſts body to be gouerned by the ſame ſpi-
rit. m And therefore whatſoever the diuerſitie is, yet the profit ought to be common, and ſerue to the edification of the Church are necessary.

23 And upon those members of the body, which wee thinke most vn honest, put wee more honesty on: and our vncomely parts haue more comeltnesse on.

24 For our comely parts need it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that part which lacked.

25 Lett there shoulde be any diuision in the body: but that the members shoulde haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now wee are the body of Christ, and members \parallel for your part.

28 And God hath ordeined some in the Church: as first Apostles, secondly Prophets, thirdly Teachers, then them that doe miracles: after that, the giftes of healing, helpers, gouernours, diuersiti of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all Teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the giftes of healing? do all speake with tongues? doe all interpret?

31 But \parallel desire you the best gifts, and I will yet shew you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, hee setteth forth the nature, office and praise thereof.

Though I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I had the gift of prophesie, and knew all secrets, and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I could remoue mountaynes, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long: it is bountifull: loue enuyeth not: loue doth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed vp:

5 It disdaineth not: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it tinketh not euill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the truth:

7 It suffereth all things: it beleueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.

8 Loue doth neuer fall away, though that prophesyngs be abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanishe away.

9 For we know in part, and we \parallel know the faith that iustifieth in effect cannot, as 1. John 2.9. Mai. 17. 20. Luke 17. 6. c North that it suffereth it selfe to be abused, but iudgeth others by all loue and humanity. d Which may be without offence of Gods word. e Knowledge it selfe shall be perfected in the world to come and not abolished: but the manner of knowing and teaching shall cease when wee shall be before Gods presence, where we shall need neither schooles nor teachers. That is, imperfectly. \parallel Or, teach.

phesie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, shalbe abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstood as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now wee see as thorow a glasse darkly, but then shall we see face to face. Now I know in part: but then shall I know euery as I am \parallel knowen.

13 And now abideth faith, hope and loue, even these three: but the chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIII.

Hee exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spiritual gifts, 5 But chiefly prophesying. 34 He commendeth women to keepe silence in the Church. 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be obserued in the Church.

Follow after loue, and conet spiritual gifts, and rather that ye may prophesie.

2 For hee that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man heareth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth himselfe: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that ye all spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, then hee that speaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profit you, except I speake to you, either by reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 Whereouer, things without life, which giue a sound, whether it bee a pipe, or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be knowen what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to battell?

9 So likewise you by the tongue, except ye utter words that haue signification, how shall it be vnderstood what is spoken? for ye shall speake in the ayre.

10 There are so many kindes of voyces (\parallel as it cometh to passe) in the world, and none of them is dumb.

11 Except I know when the power of the voyce, I shall be vnto him that speaketh, a Barbarian, and hee that speaketh, shall be a Barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, forasmuch as ye conet spiritual gifts, seeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh a strange tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit prayeth: but mine vnderstanding is without fruit.

o He threatneth them most sharply, that God will punish the contempt of his word, and their counterteife ignorance, forasmuch as to speak with vnknewen tongues is a signe of Gods curse toward the wicked.

p Of Gods curse when they are not vnderstood. q By hearing his secret faults ript vp, and his sinnes reprooued by Gods word, hee is compelled by his owne conscience to praise God.

r Which expoud the word of God. s Paul beareth as yet with their weaknesse, because also these were the gifts of God: but yet he sheweth that they should not passe this measure, that first one, after another, and at the vtmost the third should read in a strange language, which was to declare Gods miracle in the gift of tongues: but chiefly hee commandeth that nothing be done without interpretation. t Or, learning, which Gods Spirit moueth them to viter.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the vnderstanding also: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Else, when thou bleisest with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the roume of the vnlearned, say, Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verely giuest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake five wordes with mine vnderstanding, than I might also instruct others, then tenne thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in vnderstanding, but as concerning malicioussnesse be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Lawe it is written, By men of other tongues, & by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to them that beleue not: but prophesying serueth not for them that beleue not, but for them which beleue.

23 If therefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speak strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wits?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face, and worship God, and say plainly, that God is in you indeed.

26 What is to bee done then, brethren? when yee come together, according as euery one of you hath a psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things bee done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him kepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake, two or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing bee revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For yee may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the spirits of the Prophets are subject to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subject, as also the Law saith.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Came the word of God out from you: either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to bee a Prophet, or spirituall, let him acknowledge that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, conet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly, and by order.

abuse before, yet he referred it to this place to be reproofed, because there hee brought it in for another purpose. Gen. 3. 16. y Are ye the first or the last Christians, that yee neither submit your selues to the Churches, of whom ye haue received the Gospel, nor haue respect to the others, to whom the Gospel doeth likewise appertaine? z To haue vnderstanding of spirituall things. A If any man haue iudgement, let him acknowledge that I speake of the Spirit of God, and so let him obey: and if he haue no iudgement, let him acknowledge his ignorance, and trouble not the Church, but credit them that are learned.

CHAP. XV.

Hee prooueth the resurrection of the dead, 3 And first that Christ is risen: 22 Then that we shall rise: 52 And the manner how.

Mououer, brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospel, which I preached vnto you, which ye haue also received, and wherein ye continue,

2 And whereby yee are saued, if yee keepe in memorie after what manner I preached it vnto you, except yee haue beleueed in daine.

3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which I receiued, how that Christ died for our sinnes, according to the Scriptures,

4 And that he was buried, and that hee arose the third day, according to the Scriptures,

5 And that hee was scene of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that hee was scene of more then fiftie hundred brethren at once: whereof many remaine vnto this present, and some also are asleepe.

7 After that hee was scene of James: then of all the Apostles.

8 And last of all, hee was scene also of me, as of one bozne out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the Apostles, which am not meete to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 But by the grace of God, I am that u To the intent that others may iudge of him, that hath spoken, if he hath passed the compass of Gods word, wherefore Saint Iohn commandeth to trie the spirits, whether they be of God.

d For he was but the instrument and minister, and giueth the whole glory to God.

I am: and his grace which is in mee, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Therefore, whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleueed.

12 Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whom hee hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your sinnes.

18 And so they which are asleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life // onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the first fruits of them that sleepe.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in Christ shall all be made alieue.

23 But euerie man in his owne order: the first fruits is Christ, afterward they that are of Christ, at his coming, shall rise again.

24 Then shall be the end, when hee hath deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when hee hath put down all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must raigne, till hee hath put all his enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is death.

27 For hee hath put downe all things vnder his feete: (And when hee saith that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe bee subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may bee all in all.

29 Else, what shall they doe which are baptized for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

e Christs death is not effectually, except he rise from death.

f For if Christ be swallowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.

g As mortification and remission of sinnes depend on Christs death: so our quickening and restoring to life stand in his resurrection.

h You are not forgiven nor sanctified.

i Or, onely for this life sake.

Col. 1. 18. rom. 1. 5

i As by the offering of the first fruit the whole fruit is sanctified, so by Christ which is the first that is raised, all haue assurance of the resurrection.

n We shall be perfectly fulfilled with his glory and felicity.

That is, as dead, and because they were but newly come to Christ, could be baptized before they died.

p Except these things be true of Christs kingdome, and his subiection, what shall become of them whom the Church daily baptizeth, for to destroy death in them, which is the end of baptism, and so they to life againe?

30 Why are wee also in jeopardy euery houre?

31 By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus after the manner of men, what advantage it me, if the dead be not raised vp? let vs eate and drinke: for to morrow we shall die.

33 Bee not deceived: euill speakings corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God: I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised vp, and with what bodie come they forth?

36 O foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a bodie at his pleasure, euen to euery seed his owne bodie.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also heavenly bodie, and earthly bodie: but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sown in dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sown in weakenesse, and is raised in power.

44 It is sown a naturall body, and is raised a spirituall body: there is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 As it is also written, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first made which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth earthly: the second man is the Lord from heauen.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as wee haue borne the image of the earthly: so shall wee beare the image of the heavenly.

50 This say I, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdome of God, neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a secret thing, which shall not all sleepe, but we shall all be changed.

This naturall body as it is now, till it be made new by the Spirit of Christ.

c When the Lord commeth to iudgement, some of the Saints shall be alieue, whom he will change euen as if they were dead, so that this change is in stead of death to them.

q I take to witnesse all my sorrowes wherein I may iustly reioyce in the Lord, that I haue subueined them among you.

r That is, having regard to this present life, and not to Gods glory, and to life euertlasting.

54 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortal hath put on immortality, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, * Death is swallowed up into victory.

55 * Death, where is thy sting? Death, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sinne: and the strength of sinne is the Law.

57 But thanks be unto God, which hath given us victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, abundant alwayes in the worke of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vaine in the Lord.

The hope of resurrection causeth the faithfull to surmount all difficulties.

CHAP. XVI.

Hee putteth them in remembrance of the gathering for the poore brethren at Jerusalem. 13 Wee must perseuere in faith, in the love of Christ and our neighbour. 15 After his commendations hee wisheth to them all prosperitie.

Concerning the gathering for the Saints, as I haue ordained in the Churches of Galatia, so doe ye also.

2 Every first day of the weeke, let every one of you put aside by himselfe, and lay up as God hath prospered him, that then there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I am come, whomsoever ye shall allow by letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I goe also, they shall goe with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia, (for I will passe through Macedonia.)

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, or winter with you, that ye may bring me on my way whithersoever I goe.

7 For I will not see you now in my passage; but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tarrie at Ephesus untill Pentecost.

9 For a great doore, and effectfull is opened unto mee: but there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see ye that hee be without feare with you, for hee doeth the worke of the Lord, such as I doe.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conuey him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I looke for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit hee will come when hee shall haue convenient time.

13 Watch ye: stand fast in the faith: quite yelike men, and be strong.

14 Let all your things be done in loue.

15 Now, brethren, I beseech you (yet know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselves to minister unto the Saints.)

16 That ye be obedient even unto such, and to all that helpe with vs and labour.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for they haue supplied the want of you.

18 For they haue comforted my spirit and yours: acknowledge therefore such men.

19 The Churches of Asia salute your Aquila and Priscilla with the Church that is in their house, salute you greatly in the Lord.

20 All the brethren greete you. Greete ye one another with an holy kisse.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine owne hand.

22 If any man loue not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be had in execration, yea, communicate to death.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My loue be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

As nothing can be written either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the purity and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them farre passing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profit all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbornnesse, & contemne the Apostles authority. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begun among them. First therefore he wisheth them well in the Lord, declaring that that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were necessary schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, he should have been compelled to vse rigor and severity. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former Epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euident both in that that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authoritie, he confuteth their arrogant brags, and commendeth his office and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatry, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrowe which ingendred true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicity of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the truth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas hee contrariwise sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his coming he menaceth such as rebell against his authority, that hee will declare by liuely example that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ,

CHAP. I.

4 Hee declareth the great profite that cometh to the faithfull by their afflictions, 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnesse, that hee deferred his coming contrary to his promise, hee prooueth his constancie, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

P A L an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, your brother Timotheus, to the Church of God which is at Corinthus, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our father, and from our Lord Iesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation, and saluation, which is wrought in the induring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether wee be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as we know that as pee are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation,

8 For brethren, wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how we were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that wee altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, wee received the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God which raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom wee trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs, 11 So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thanks may bee given for many persons for vs.

12 For our reioycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly purenesse, and not in fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God we haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to you wards.

13 For we write none other things vnto you, then that ye read, or else that ye acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the end.

14 Euen as pee haue acknowledged vs partly that wee are your reioycing, euen as pee are ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus,

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that pee might haue had a double grace,

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth toward Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightnesse, or mind I those things which I minded according to the flesh, that with mee should bee Yea, yea, and Nay nay.

18 Yea, God is faithfull that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay,

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is, by mee, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glorie of God through vs.

21 And it is God which establisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs.

22 Who hath also sealed vs, and hath given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

CHAP. III.

1 He declareth his diligence and roundness in his office. 8 And that which his enemies tooke for his disadvantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which hee endured, hee turneth to his great advantage. 11. 17 shewing what profit commeth thereby.

Therefore, seeing that we haue this ministration, as wee haue receiued mercy, * wee faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the * clothes of shame, and * walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the truth we approue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel bee then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the * god of this world hath blinded the minds, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the * image of God, should not shine vnto them.

5 For wee preach not * our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God that * commaunded the light to shine out of darkenesse, is hee which hath shined in * our hearts, to giue the * light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we haue this * treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of that power might be of God, and not of vs.

8 Wee are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouerty, but not ouercome of pouerty.

9 Wee are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but perish not.

10 Euery where wee beare about in our body the * dying of our Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For wee which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 For wee must all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are done in his body, according to that hee hath done, whether it be * good or rill.

12 So then * death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And because we haue the same * spirit of faith according as it is written, * I beleue, and therefore haue I spoken, we also beleue, and therefore speake,

14 Knowing that hee which hath raised by the Lord Iesus, shall * raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plentious grace by the thanksgiving of * many, may redound to the praise of God.

16 Therefore wee faint not, but though our outward man // perish, yet the inward man is * renewed daily.

17 For our * light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre most excellent and an eternall waight of glory:

18 While wee looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene: for the things which are seene, are temporall: but the things which are not seene, are eternall.

you all, which are both partakers of mine affliction and comfort, may abundantly see forth his glorie. // Or, hee corrupted, o Groweth stronger. p Which is so called in respect of the everlasting life.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the vtilitie that commeth by the crosse. 4 How wee ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 by whom, 9 and for what end. 14

19 He setteth forth the grace of Christ, 20 and the office of ministers, and all the faithful.

For wee know, that if * our earthly house of this Tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with hands, but eternall in the heauens.

2 For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen.

3 // Because that if wee be clothed, wee shall not be found * naked.

4 For indeed we that are in this Tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, // because wee would not be vnclodged, but would be clothed vpon, that mortallitie might be swallowed vp of life.

5 And hee that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the * earnest of the spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway * bold, though we know that whilst wee are // at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we * walke by faith, and not by sight.)

8 Neuerthelesse, we are bold, and loue rather to remoue out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.

9 Therefore also wee conet, that both dwelling * at home, and remoouing * from home, we may be acceptable to him.

10 * For wee must all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are done in his body, according to that hee hath done, whether it be * good or rill.

11 Knowing therefore the * terror of the h He prooneth the dignity of his ministry by the fruit and effect thereof, which is to bring men to Christ.

i By embracing the same faith which we teach to others.

k As they, which more esteemed the outward shew of wisdom and eloquence, than true godliness.

l As the adversaries said, which could not abide to heare them prayed.

m Our folly ferueth to Gods glory.

n Therefore whosoever giueth place to ambition or vaine glory, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.

o As the onely faithfull doe in Christ.

p According to the estimation of the world: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God.

q We doe not esteeme, nor commend Christ himselfe now, as he was an excellent man: but as he was the Sonne of God partaker of his glory, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and do you thinke that I will flatter my selfe or any man in setting forth his gifts? Yea, when I prayse my ministerie, I commend the power of God: when I commend our worthy facts, I praise the mighty power of God set forth by vs wormes and wretches.

r Let him be regenerate, and renounce himselfe, else all the rest is nothing.

s Therefore without Christ we cannot enioy the life everlasting, nor come to God.

t That is, a sacrifice for sinne.

u By imputation, when we shall be clad with Christs iustice.

the Lord, wee perswade men, and wee are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that wee are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For wee praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that yee may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether we be out of our wit, we are it to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

14 For the lone of Christ constraineth vs: because wee thus iudge, that if one bee dead for all, then were all dead.

15 And hee died for all, that they which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselves, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 Therefore, henceforth know wee no man after the flesh, yea, though we had knowne Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth we know him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him bee a new creature. All things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then are wee ambassadors for Christ: as though God did beseech you through vs, wee pray you in Christs stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For hee hath made him to bee sinne for vs, which knew no sinne, that wee should bee made the righteousness of God in him.

C A H P. VI.

1 An exhortation to Christian life. 2 And to beare him like affection as hee doeth them. 3 Also to keepe themselves from all pollution of idolatry both in body and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

¶ Wee therefore as workers together beseech you, that yee receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

2 For hee saith, *I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: beholde now the accepted time, beholde now the day of saluation.

3 ¶ Wee giue no occasion of offence in any thing, that our ministry should not bee reproached.

4 But in all things wee approue our selues as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours,

6 By watchings, by fastings, by purity, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindness, by the holy Ghost, by loue vnafeined,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by reuilement, and good report, as deceiters, and yet true:

9 As vnknewen, and yet knowne: as dying, and behold, wee liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

10 As sorrowing, and yet alway reioicing: as poore, and yet make many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 ¶ Corinthians, our mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath the beleuer with the infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idols? for yee are the Temple of the liuing God: as God hath sayd, ¶ I will dwell among them, and walke there: and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 ¶ Therefore, come out from among them, and separate your selues, sayth the Lord: and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

1. Pet. 2. 19.
g Whole heart Gods spirit doth touch, he is sorie for his sinnes committed against so mercifull a Father, and these are the fruits of his repentance, as witnesseth Davids and Peters teares: others which are sorie for their sinnes onely for feare of punishment and Gods vengeance, fall into desperation, as Cain, Saul, Achitophel, and Iudas.

h In asking God forgiveness.
i For in iudging and chastising your selues, you prevented Gods anger.

|| Or, iudg.
k The Greeke word signifieth his bowels, whereby is meant most great Ioue and tender affections.
l Both in thinking and reporting well of you.

2 Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: wee haue consumed no man: wee haue defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue said before, that yee are in our hearts to die and liue together.

4 I ble great boldnesse of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when wee were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on every side, fightings without, and terrors within.

6 But God that comforteth the abject, comforted vs at the coming of Titus:

7 And not by his coming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent minde to me-ward, so that I reioyced much more.

8 For though I made you sorie with a letter, I repented not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same Epistle made you sorie, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that yee were sorie, but that ye loomed to repentance: for ye sorrowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 For godly sorrow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorrow causeth death.

11 For behold, this thing that yee haue bene godly sorie, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what zeale: yea, what punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore wee were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when hee remembreth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, hee exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saintes, commending their good beginning.

23 After hee commendeth Titus, and his folowes vnto them.

Woe you also to wle, brethren, of the Churches of Macedonia, grace of God bestowed vpon the 2 Because in great tryall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouerty abounded vnto their rich liberality.

3 For to their power (I beare record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance that wee would receiue the grace and fellowship of the ministring which is toward the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as he had begun, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as yee abound in euery thing, in faith, and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue toward vs, euen so see that yee abound in this grace also.

8 This I say I not by commandment, but because of the diligence of others: therefore psume I the naturalnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that he being rich, for your sakes became poore, that yee through his pouertie might be made rich.

10 And I shew my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun so to doe onely, but also to will, a yere agoe.

11 Now therefore pforme to doe it also, that as there was a readinesse to will, euen so yee may pforme it of that which yee haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should be eased and you grieved.

14 But vpon like condition at this time your abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may bee for your lacke, that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, Hee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thankes bee vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you,

17 Because hee accepted the exhortation, yea, hee was so carefull, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches,

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to bee a fellow in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde.)

20 Anoyding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs, 21 Prouiding for honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

22 And

a This benefite of God appeared in two things, first, that the Macedonians being in so great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others: and next, that being in great pouerty, were very liberal towards others, so that a most abundant riuier of riches flowed out of their pouerty.

c So he calleth their liberality, either because they were the bestowers of Gods graces, or because they receiued them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to see to the distribution thereof.

Chap. 9. 12.
d Euery man may doe good that hath abilities thereunto: but to will, and haue a minde to doe good, cometh of perfect charitie.

i His well doing is approued before God and man.

22 And we haue sent with them our brother whom wee haue oft times proued to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper to youward: or of our brethren, they are the messengers of the Churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew toward them, and before the Churches the prooue of your loue, and of the reioycing that we haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them, 6 He exhorteth to giue alms cheerfully, 7 Shewing what fruits will come thereof.

For as touching the ministering to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of minde, whereof I boast myselfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that yee (as I haue said) be ready:

4 Lest if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you vnprepared, wee (I need not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appoynted afore, that it might be ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and hee that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly, or of necessity: * For God loveth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that ye alwayes hauing * all sufficiency in all things, may abound in euery * good worke.

9 * As it is written, He hath sparred abroad, and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also he that sowerth seed to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplie your seede, and increaseth the fruites of your beneuolence,

11 That on all parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberallitie, which causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God:

12 For the ministration of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thanksgiuing of many vnto God:

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministration praye God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberall distribution to them, and to all men.)

14 And by their prayer for you, desiring after you greatly for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thanks therefore bee vnto God for his unspeakable gift.

CHAP. X.

Hee toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his authority, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he vseth it.

Now I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenesse, and gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, am * base, but I am bold toward you being absent.

2 And this I require you, that I neede not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked according to the flesh.

3 Neuerthelesse, though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to cast downe holds.)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing readie the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on things after the appearance: If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christ, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christ, euen so are we Christ.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as if wee were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, * saith he, are soe and strong, but his bodily presence is weaker, and his speech is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in word by letters when wee are absent, such will we be also indeed, when wee are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them which praysse themselves: but they understand not that they * measure themselves with themselves, and compare themselves with themselves.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the * measure of the line, wherof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For wee stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though wee had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching the Gospel of Christ.

W Duld to God yee could ſuffer a little my fooliſhneſſe, and indeed yee ſuffer mee.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly ielouſie: for I haue prepared you for one huſband, to preſent you as a pure virgin to Chriſt:

3 But I feare leſt as the ſerpent beguiled Eue through his ſubtiltie, ſo your minds ſhould bee corrupt from the ſimplicitie that is in Chriſt.

4 For if he that commeth preacheth another Jeſus then him whom we haue preached: or if yee receiue another ſpirit then that which ye haue receiued, either another Goſpel, then that ye haue receiued, ye might well haue ſuffered him.

5 Cleerly I ſuppoſe that I was not inferior to the very chiefe Apoſtles.

6 And though I bee rude in ſpeaking, yet I am not ſo in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifeſt to the vtmoſt, in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, becauſe I abaſed my ſelfe, that yee might be exalted, and becauſe I preached to you the Goſpel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you ſeruice.

9 And when I was preſent with you and had neede, I was not ſlothfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia ſupplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my ſelfe, that I ſhould not bee grieuous to you.

10 The truth of Chriſt is in mee, that this reioycing ſhal not be ſhut vp againſt me in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? becauſe I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occaſion from them which deſire occaſion, that they might bee found like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

13 I laboure with my hands for my living, but in his extreme poverty preached diligently without burdening any man, or els waking ſlothfull to doe his daetie to every man.

14 Let not the truth of Chriſt be thought to be in me, if I ſuffer my ioy to be ſhut vp, which I haue conceiued of Grecia. 1 To ſlander my miniſterie, if I ſhould receiue wages.

13 For ſuch falſe Apoſtles are deceitfull workers, and tranſforme themſelues into the Apoſtles of Chriſt.

14 And no marueile: for Satan himſelfe is tranſformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his miniſters tranſforme themſelues, as though they were the miniſters of righteouſneſſe, whole ende ſhall be according to their workes.

16 I ſay againe, let no man thinke that I am fooliſh: or elſe take me euen as a foole that I alſo may boaſt my ſelfe a little.

17 That I ſpeake, I ſpeake it not after the Lord: but as it were fooliſhly, in this my great boaſting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce after the fleſh, I will reioyce alſo.

19 For yee ſuffer foolcs gladly, becauſe that ye are wiſe.

20 For yee ſuffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himſelfe, if a man ſmite you on the face.

21 I ſpeake as concerning the reproch: as though that were had bene weakneſſe: but wherein any man is bolde (I ſpeake fooliſhly) I am bolde alſo.

22 They are Chiewes, ſo am I: they are Iſraelites, ſo am I: they are the ſeede of Abraham, ſo am I:

23 They are the miniſters of Chriſt, (I ſpeake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundante: in ſtripes aboue meaſure: in priſon more plentifully: in death oft.

24 Of the Jewes ſue times receiued I ſortie ſtripes ſaued one.

25 I was thiſe beaten with rodde: I was once ſtoned: I ſuffered thiſe ſhipwracke: night and day haue I bene in the deepe ſea.

26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the citie, in perils in wilderneſſe, in perils in the ſea, in perils among falſe brethren,

27 In wearineſſe and painefulneſſe, in watching often, in hunger, and thirſt, in faſtings often, in cold and nakedneſſe.

28 Beſide the things which are outward, I am cumbered daily, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I muſt needes reioyce, I will reioyce of mine infirmitieſ.

It is not expedient for me no doubt, to reioyce: for I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2. I know a man in Christ about fouretee yeres agoe, (whether hee were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the third heauen.

3. And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4. How that he was taken vp into Paradise, and heard words which cannot be spoken, which are not possible for man to utter.

5. Of such a man will I reioyce, of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6. For though I would reioyce, I should not be a foole: for I will say the truth, but I refraine lest any man should thinke of me above that he seeth in me, or that he beareth of me.

7. And lest I should bee exalted out of measure, through the abundance of revelations, there was given vnto mee a piske in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8. For this thing I besought the Lord: that it might depart from me.

9. And he saith vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weakenes. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in mee.

10. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in needes, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11. I was a foole to boast my selfe, ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bin commended of you, for in nothing was I inferior vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12. The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes and wonders, and great workes.

13. For what is it wherein ye were inferior vnto other Churches, except that I haue not bin slouthfull to your hinderance? for giue me this wrong.

14. Behold, the third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be slouthfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15. And I will most gladly bestowe, and will bee bestowed for your soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16. But bee it that I charged you not:

yet forasmuch as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17. Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18. I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked wee not in the selfe same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19. Again, thinke yee that we excuse our selues vnto you? wee speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearly beloued, for your edifying.

20. For I feare, lest when I come, I shall not find you such as I would: and that I shall bee found vnto you such as yee would not, and lest there be strife, envying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings and discords.

21. I feare lest when I come againe, my God abase me among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the uncleauenesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

7. Now I pray vnto God, that yee doe none euill, not that we should seeme approved, but that ye should doe that which is honest: though we be as reprobates.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe Galatians, after they had bin instructed by Saint Paul in the truth of the Gospel, gave place to false apostles, who entering in in his absence, corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, & taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that hee prooueth that the granting thereof is the overthrow of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authority, but spake of himselfe, he prooueth both that he is an Apostle ordeined by God, and also that he is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commodity: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the truth and the end thereof is come. Wherefore men ought now to embrace that liberty, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the gennes of mens traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this liberty standeth: and what exercises appertaineth thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancy which suffered themselves to be seduced by the false apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the law were necessary to saluation, 8 and detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 He sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equall with the chiefe Apostles.

6 I maruelle that yee are so soone removed away vnto another || Gospel from him that had called you in the ^a grace of Christ,

7 Which is not another Gospel, saue that there be some which trouble you, and intend to * peruert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that wee, or an ^a Angel from heauen preach vnto you otherwile then that which wee haue preached vnto you, let him be || accursed.

9 As wee sayd before, so I say now againe, If any man preach vnto you otherwile then that ye haue receiued, let him bee accursed.

10 For ^s now we preach I mans doctrine, or Gods: or goe I about to please men: for if I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after ^a man.

12 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the ⁱ reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For yee haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Iewish religion, how that I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it, Confirming his Apostleship to bee of God, 3 Hee sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 and that hee is nothing inferior to other Apostles: 11 Yes, and that hee hath reproved Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After his cometh to the principall scope, which is to proue that iustification onely cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Law.

Then foure teene yeeres after I went by againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also.

2 And I went by by reuelation, and communicated with them of the Gospel which I preached among the Gentiles, but particularly with them that were the chiefe, least by any meanes I should runne, or had runne in vaine:

3 But neither yet Titus which was with mee, though he were a Grecian, was compelled to be circumcised,

6 And of them which seemed to be great I was not thought what they were in time past, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no mans person: neuerthelesse, they that are the chiefe, did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise when they saw that the Gospel over the vncircumcision was committed vnto mee, as the Gospel over the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For he that was mighty by Peter in the Apostleship over the circumcision, was also mightie by mee toward the Gentiles.)

hands of fellowship, that wee should preach vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision,

10 Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from James, hee ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I saw that they went not the right way to the truth of the Gospel, I layde vnto Peter before all men, If thou being a Jew, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, why constrainest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Iewes?

15 Wee which are Iewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Lawe, but by the faith of Iesus Christ, euen wee I say, haue beleued in Iesus Christ, that wee might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe, because that by the workes of the Lawe, no flesh shall be iustified.

17 If then while wee seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are found sinners, Is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I haue destroyed, I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I through the Lawe am dead to the Lawe, and that I might liue vnto God, I am crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet not I now, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 I do not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousness be by the Lawe, then Christ died without a cause.

of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

2 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begun in the spirit, ye would now be made perfect by the flesh.

4 Haue ye suffered so many things in vaine: if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 Wherefore that ministrereth to you the spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doth hee it through the workes of the law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Yea rather as Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, * In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which bee of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the workes of the Law, are vnder the curse: for it is written, * Cursed is every man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: * for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 And the Law is not of faith: but the man that shall doe those things, shall liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, when hee was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Cursed is every one that hangeth on tree.)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus that we might receiue the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speake as men doe, though it be but a mans couenant, when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or addeth any thing thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. Hee saith not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many but, And to thy seede, as of one, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Law which was foure hundred and thirty yeeres after, cannot disanull the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the transgressions, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordained by Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediator of one: but God is one.

21 Is the Law then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Law given which could haue given life, surely righteousness should haue bene by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded all vnder sin, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should be giuen to them that beleue.

23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Law, and shut vp vnto the faith which should afterward be renewed.

24 Wherefore the Law was our schoolmaster to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, wee are no longer vnder a schoolmaster.

26 For ye are all the sonnes of God by faith in Christ Iesus.

27 For all ye that are baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Grecian: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Iesus.

29 And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seede, and heires by promise.

8 But even then when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them, which by nature are not gods.
9 But now seeing ye know God, yea, rather are knowne of God, how turne ye againe unto impotent and beggerly rudiments whereunto as from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?
10 Perceive dayes, and moneths, and times and yeres.
11 I am in feare of you, lest I have bestowed on you labour in vaine.
12 Be ye as I: for I am even as you: brethren, I beseech you: ye have not hurt me at all.
13 And ye know, how through infirmities of the flesh, I preached the Gospel unto you at the first.
14 And the triall of mee which was in my flesh, ye despised not, neither abhorred: but ye received mee as an Angel of God, yea, as Christ Jesus.
15 What was then your felicitie? for I beare you record, that if it had bene possible, ye would have plucked out your owne eyes, and have given them to me.
16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?
17 They are enemies over you: amisse: yea, they would exclude you that ye should altogether love them.
18 But it is a good thing to love earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you.
19 My little children of whom I travaile in birth againe, untill Christ be formed in you.
20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doubt of you.
21 Tell mee, yee that will be under the Law, doe ye not heare the Law?
22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, one by a servant, and one by a free woman.
23 But he which was of the servant, was borne after the flesh: and hee which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.
24 By the which things another thing is meant: for these mothers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mount Sina, which gendereth unto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, and it answereth to Jerusalem which now is) and shee is in bondage with her children.
26 But Jerusalem, which is above, is free: which is the mother of us all.
27 For it is written, Rejoyce thou barren, ren that bearest no children: break forth, and cry thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children then shee which hath an husband.

28 Therefore, brethren, we are after the manner of Isaac children of the promise.
29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the Spirit, even so it is now.
30 But what saith the Scripture? Put out the servant and her sonne: for the sonne of the servant shall not be heire with the son of the free woman.
31 Then brethren, we are not children of the servant, but of the free woman.

CHAP. V.

2 He laboureth to draw them away from circumcision, 17 And sheweth them the battell betwixt the Spirit and the flesh, and the fruits of them both.
Stand fast therefore in the liberty where-with Christ hath made us free, and bee not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.
2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.
3 For I testifie againe to every man, which is circumcised, that he is bound to keepe the whole Law.
4 Ye are abolished from Christ, who occur are justified by the Law, ye are fallen from grace.
5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness through faith.

8 For hee that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reape corruption: but hee that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reape life everlasting.

9 Let vs not therefore be weary of well doing: for in due season we shall reape, if we faint not.

10 While we have therefore time, let vs doe good vnto all men, but specially vnto them that are of the household of faith.

11 See how large a letter I have written vnto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be Circumcised, onely because they would not suffer persecution for the crosse of Christ.

14 But God forbid that I should reioyce, but in the Crosse of our Lord Iesus Christ, whereby the world is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither Circumcision auaileth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this Rule, peace shall be vpon them, and mercie, and vpon the Israel of God.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGUMENT.

WHILE Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which hee had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, hee assureth them of saluation, because they were thereunto predestinate by the free Election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to his eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mystrie hee prayeth God to confirme toward them: And to the intent they should not glorie in themselves, hee sheweth them their extreme miserie wherein they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom whom the promises were not made, and yet by the free mercy of God in Christ Iesus they were saved, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfect vnderstanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewise to be mindful of so great benefits, neither to be moved with the false Apostles which seeke to overthrow their faith and tread vnder foot the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counsell of God: who by this meanes preferueth onely his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, forasmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring forth most plentifull fruits, as innocencie, holinesse, with all such offices appertaining to godlinesse. Last of all, he declareth not onely in generall, what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne every mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his saluation, 4. Hee sheweth that the chiefe cause of their saluation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16. Hee declareth his good will toward them, giuing thanks and praying God for their faith. 21. The manifest of Christ.

A L L an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, to the Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Christ Iesus:

Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all spirituall blessing in heavenly things in Christ.

As he hath chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the world that wee should bee holy, and without blame before him in loue:

Who hath predestinate vs, to bee adopted through Iesus Christ vnto himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will.

To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherewith hee hath made vs accepted in his beloued,

By whom we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiveness of sinnes according to his rich grace:

Wherby he hath bin abundant toward vs in all wisdom and vnderstanding,

And hath opened vnto vs the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed in him,

That in the dispensation of the fulnes of the times, hee might gather together in one all things, both which are in heauen, and which are in earth, euen in Christ:

In whom also we are chosen when wee were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will,

That we which first trusted in Christ should be vnto the praise of his glory:

In whom also ye haue trusted after that ye heard the word of truth euen the Gospel of your saluation, whereto also after that ye were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise,

Which is the earnest of our inheritance, vntill the redemption of the possession, also the faithfull which remaine in earth, stand of the Iewes and the Gentiles. To wit, the Iewes. Though we be redeemed from the bondage of sinne by the death of Christ, Rom. 6. 23. yet we hope for this second redemption, which shall be when we shall possesse our inheritance in the heauens, wherof we haue the holy Ghost for a gage, as Chap. 4. 30.

Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers.

That the God of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the knowledge of him,

That the eyes of your vnderstanding may bee lightened, that ye may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints.

And what is the exceeding greatnesse of his power toward vs, which beleeue, according vnto the working of his mighty power,

Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his right hand in the heauenly places,

Far above all principality and power, and might and domination, and every name that is named, not in this world onely, but also in that that is to come.

Wherin in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, and after the prince that ruleth in the ayre, euen the spirit, that now worketh in the children of disobedience,

Among whom we also had our conversation in time past, in the lusts of our flesh, in fulfilling the will of the flesh, and of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath, as well as others:

⁸ For by grace are yee saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gift of God,

⁹ Not of workes, lest any man should boast himselfe.

¹⁰ For we are his ^e workemanship created in Christ Iesus unto good workes, which God hath ordeined that wee should walke in them.

¹¹ Wherefore ^f remember, that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called ^g vncircumcision of them which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands,

¹² That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were allants from the common wealth of Israel, and were ^h strangers from the covenants of promise, and had no ⁱ hope, and were ^j without God in the world.

¹³ But now in Christ Iesus, yee which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

¹⁴ For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the ^k stop of the partition wall,

¹⁵ In abrogating through his ^l flesh the hatred, that is, the law of commandements which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in himselfe, so making peace,

¹⁶ And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one ^m body by his ⁿ crosse, and slay hatred thereby,

¹⁷ And came and preached peace to you, which were as farre off, and to them that were neere.

¹⁸ ^o For through him we both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

¹⁹ Now therefore, yee are no more strangers and foreigners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God,

²⁰ And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Iesus Christ himselfe being the chiefe corner stone,

²¹ In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord, ²² In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

¹ Hee sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, ² Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble, ³ And praeth God to make them stedfast in his spirit.

⁴ Of this cause, I Paul am the ⁵ prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

⁸ That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mystrie vnto mee (as I wrote

⁴ Whereby when yee reade, yee may know mine vnderstanding in the mystery of Christ.)

⁵ Which in other ages was ^b not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reuealed vnto his holy Apostles & Prophets by the Spirit,

⁶ That the Gentiles should be inheritours also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel.

⁷ Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto mee through the working of his power.

⁸ Euen vnto me the least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the ^c Gentiles the vnsearchable riches of Christ.

⁹ And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the ^d mystrie is, which from the beginning of the world hath bene hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ.

¹⁰ To the intent that now vnto ^e principalities & powers in heavenly places might be knowne ^f by the Church the manifolde wisdom of God,

¹¹ According to the eternall purpose, which hee wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord.

¹² By whom we haue boldnesse, and entrance with confidence by faith in him.

¹³ Wherefore I desire that yee faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

¹⁴ For this cause I bow my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ,

¹⁵ Of whom is named the whole ^g samity in ^h heauen and in earth.)

¹⁶ That he might grante you according to the riches of his glory, that yee may be strengthened by his spirit in the inner man,

¹⁷ That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye bring rooted and grounded in loue,

¹⁸ May be able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the ⁱ breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

¹⁹ And to know the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that yee may be filled with all ^j fulnesse of God.

17 This I say therefore, and testifie in the Lord, that ye henceforth walke not as other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their minde,
18 Hauing their cogitation darkened, and being strangers from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardnesse of their heart:
19 Which being past feeling, haue giuen themselves vnto wantonnesse to worke all uncleannesse, euen with greedinesse.

 22 Wives, Submit your selues vnto your husbands, as vnto the Lord.
 23 For the husband is the wines head, euen as Christ is the head of the Church, and the same is the Saviour of his body.
 24 Therefore, as the Church is in subiection to Christ, euen so let the wines bee to their husbands in euery thing.
 25 Husbands, loue your wines, euen as Christ loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it,
 26 That he might sanctifie it, & cleanse it, by the washing of water through the word.
 27 That he might make it vnto himselfe a glorious Church, not hauing spotte or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy, and without blame.
 28 So ought men to loue their wines, as their owne bodies: he that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.
 29 For no man euer yet hated his owne flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the Lord doeth the Church.
 30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
 31 For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shal cleaue to his wife: and they twaine shall be one flesh.
 32 This is a great secret, but I speake concerning Christ and concerning the Church.
 33 Therefore euerie one of you, do ye so: let euery one loue his wife, euen as himselfe, and let the wife see that she feare her husband.

The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holy Ghost to goe to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a city of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preach the Gospel vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he travelled from place to place: till at length he was taken prisoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stood manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrinke: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himselfe would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, he comforteth their false doctrine, by prouing onely Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and generall, with reification of his affection toward them, and thankfull accepting of their beneuolence.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing, that hee that hath begunne this good worke in you, will perfourme it vntill the day of Iesus Christ.

7 As it becommeth mee so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance, that both in my hands, and in my defence and confirmation of the Gospel, you all were partakers of my ^dgrace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart root in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement.

12 ¶ I would yee understood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel.

13 So that my bands in ^fChrist are famous throughout all the ^giudgement hall, and in all other places.

14 In so much that many of the brethren in the Loyde are boldened through my bands, and dare more frankly speake the ^hword.

16 The one part preacheth Christ of contention and not ⁱpurely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bands:

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all maner wayes, whether it bee ^junder a pretence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I know that this shall turne to my saluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ.

20 As I heartely looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it bee by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me both in life, and in death aduantage.

CHAP. II.

3 He exhortheth them above all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintained, 19 Promising that hee and Timotheus will speedily come unto them, 27 and excuseth the long tarrying of Epaphroditus.

a If ye so love me, that you desire my comfort:

b From the consent of wils and mindes hee proceedeth to the agreement in doctrine, that there might be full and perfect concord.

Rom. 12. 10.

c If Christ being very God equall with the Father, layd aside his glory, and being Lord, became a servant, and willingly submitted himselfe to most shamefull death, in shame as a man.

d He which was nothing but vile slaues, showed arrogancie head downe our brethren, and preserue our selves? d For he that is God, should have done none injury to the Godhead. Matth. 23. e The poore and weake nature of man. f He was seene and heard of men, so that his person and behaviour declared that he was a miserable man, Hebr. 2. 9.

I If there bee therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercy,

2 Fulfill my joy, that yee be like minded, having the same love, being of one accord, and of one iudgement.

3 That nothing be done through contention of vaine glorie, but that in meeknesse of mind every man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Look not every man on his owne things, but every man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same mind be in you that was even in Christ Iesus.

6 Who being in the forme of God, thought it no robbery to be equall w God:

7 But he made himselfe of no reputation, and took on him the forme of a servant, and was made like unto men, and was found in shape as a man.

8 Hee humbled himselfe, and became obedient unto the death, even the death of the crosse.

9 And whether to live in the flesh, were profitable for mee, and what to choole, I know not.

Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him, and given him a name above every name.

10 That at the Name of Iesus should every knee bow, both of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

11 And that every tongue should confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lord, unto the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloved, as ye have alwayes obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in mine absence, so make an end of your owne salvation with feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, even of his good pleasure.

14 Doe all things without murmuring and reasonings;

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the lonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughty and crooked nation, among whom yee shine, as lights in the world.

16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I have not runne in vaine, neither have laboured in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be offered by you on the sacrifice, and service of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you: that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 For all seeke their owne, and not that which is Iesus Christs.

22 But yee know the prooffe of him, that as a sonne with the father, hee hath served with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send alldone as I know how it will goe with me.

24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessary to send my brother Epaphroditus unto you, my companion in labour, and fellow souldier, even your messenger, and he that ministered unto me such things as I wanted.

26 For hee longed after all you, and was full of heavinesse, because hee had heard that he had bene sicke.

27 And no doubt he was sicke, very nere unto death: but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when yee should see him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

30 Because that for the worke of Christ he was nere unto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfil that service which was lacking on your part toward me.

Moreover, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. It grieveth me not to write the same things to you, and for you it is a sure thing.

2 Beware of ^b dogges: beware of euill workers: beware of the ^c concision.

3 For wee are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence ^d in the flesh.

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that hee hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, much more I:

5 Circumcised the right day, of the kinred of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, ^e an Hebrew of the Hebrewes, ^f by the ^g law a Pharise.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the Church: touching the righteousness which is in the law, I was unbeakeable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto mee, the same I counted losse for Christes sake.

8 Yea, doubtlesse I thinke all things but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lord, for whom I haue counted all things losse, and doe iudge them to bee doing, that I might winne Christ.

9 And might bee ^a found in him, that is, not hauing mine owne righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, even the righteousness which is of God through faith.

10 That I may know him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and bee made conformed vnto his death,

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the ^b resurrection of the dead:

12 ^c Not as though I had already attained to it, either were already perfect: but I follow, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am ^d comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behinde, and in deuour may selfe vnto that which is before,

14 And follow hard toward the ^e mark, for the price of the high calling of God by Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as ^f be ^g perfect, be thus minded: and if ye bee otherwise minded, God shall reueale euen the ^h same vnto you.

16ouertheless, in that wherunto we are come, let vs proceede by one rule, ^a that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, bee followers of mee, and looke on them: which walke so, as yee haue vs for an example.

18 ^b For many walke, of whom I haue told you often, and now tel you weeping, that they are the enemies of the ^c crosse of Christ,

19 whose ^d stude is damnation, whose God is their belly, and whose ^e glory is in their shame, which minde earthly things.

20 But our ^f conuersation is in heauen, from whence also wee looke for the ^g Son of our euen the Lord Iesus Christ.

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may bee fashioned like ^h his glorious body, according to the ⁱ working whereby he is able euen to subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. IIIL

8 Hee exhorteth them to be of honest conuersation, 15 and thanketh them, because of the promise that they made for him being in prison, 21 and so concludeth with salutations.

Therefore, my brethren, beloved and longed for, my Ioy, and my crowne, so continue in the Lord, ye beloved.

2 I pray Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.

3 Psea, and I beseech thee, faithfull pokers fellow, helpe those women, which laboured with mee in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the ^a booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient mind be known vnto all men. The Lord is ^b at hand.

6 ^c Be nothing carefull, but in all things let your requests bee shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication, with giuing of thanks.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall ^d presterne your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are iust, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things pertaine to loue, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there bee any praise, thinke on these things,

9 Which ye haue both learned and receiued, and heard, and seene in me: those things doe, and the God of peace shall bee with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last yee are ^a renewed againe to care for mee, wherein notwithstanding yee were carefull, but yee lacked opportunity.

11 I speake not because of ^b want: for I haue learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 And I can bee abased, and I can abound: euery where in all things I am instructed both to bee full, & to bee hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of ^c Christ, which strengtheneth mee.

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

In this Epistle Saint Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectuall and true Christ, and the fained, counterfeite, and imagined Christ, whom the false Apostles taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefite toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoever good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whome onely wee imbrace by the Gospel. But forasmuch as the false brethren would haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, he toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whome all things are but meere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meats, externall holinesse, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, hee vtiely condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 9 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayereth for the increase of their faith, 13 Hee sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discovereth the counterfeits Christ of the false Apostles, 25 He approueth his authority and charge, 28 and of his faithfull executing of the same.

Paul an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

2 To them which are at Colosse, Saints and faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 We giue thanks to God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, alwayes praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Iesus, and of your loue towards all Saints,

5 For the hopes sake which is layd vp for you in heauen, whereof yee haue heard before by the word of truth, which is the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day that yee heard and truly knew the grace of God.

7 As yee also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue by the spirit.

9 For this cause wee also, since the day we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that yee might be fulfilled with knowledge of his will, in all wisdom, and spirituall understanding,

10 That ye might walke worthy of the Lord, and please him in all things, being fruitful in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long suffering with ioyfulness,

12 Giuing thanks vnto the Father, which hath made vs meete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenesse, and hath translated vs into the kingdome of his deare Sonne,

14 In whome wee haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiveness of sinnes, 15 Who is the image of the Inuisible God, the first borne of euerie creature.

16 For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and inuisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalties, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him.

17 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.

18 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: he is the beginning, and the first borne of the dead, that in all things he might haue the preeminence.

19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulnesse dwell,

20 And by him to reconcile all things vnto himselfe, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse, both the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

21 And you which were in times past strangers, and enemies, because your mindes were set in euill workes, hath he now also reconciled, ches of the full assurance of vnderstanding,

ther, and of Christ:

3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdome and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with intilling words:

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit reioycing, and beholding your order, and your stedfast faith in Christ.

6 As ye haue therefore receiued Christ
Iesus the Lord, so walke in him,

7 Rooted and built in him, and stabilished in the faith, as ye haue bin taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest there bee any man that poyse you through philosophy, and vaine deceit, though the traditions of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For in him dwelleth all the fulnesse of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principallities and power.

11 In whom also ye are circumcised with circumcision made without hands, by putting off the sinfull body of the flesh, through the circumcision of Christ,

12 In that ye are buried with him through baptism, in whom ye are also raised vp together through the faith of the operation of God which raised him from the dead.

13 And ye which were dead in sinnes, and in the vncircumcision of your flesh, hath hee quickened together with him, forgiving you all your trespasses,

14 And putting out the band writing of ordinances that was against vs, which was contrary to vs, hee euen took it out of the way, and fastened it vpon the crosse,

15 And hath spoiled the principallities, and powers, and hath made a shew of them openly, and hath triumphed ouer them in the same crosse.

16 Let no man therefore condemne you in meat and drinke, or in respect of an holy day, or of the new moone, or of the Sabbath dayes.

17 Which are but a shadow of things to worshipping of Angels, aduancing himselfe in those things which hee neuer saw, rashly puffe vp with his fleshly minde,

19 And holdeth not the head, whereof all teth at the right hand of God.

5 * Mortifie therefore your members which are on the earth, fornication, uncleannes, the inordinate affection, euill concupiscence, and couetousnes which is idolatry.

6 For the which things takes the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience,

7 Wherein ye also walked once, when ye liued in them.

8 * But now put yee away euery all these things; wrath, anger, malitiousnesse, cursed speaking, filthy speaking out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye haue put off the old man with his workes,

10 And haue put on the new, which is renewed in knowledge * after the image of him that created him,

11 Where is neither Grecian, nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond, free: But Christ is all and in all things.

12 * Now therefore, as the elect of God * holy and beloued, put on || tender mercie, kindnesse, humblenesse of mind, meekenesse, long suffering:

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man haue a quarrell to another: euery as Christ forgave you, euery so doe ye.

14 And about all these things, put on love, which is the bond of perfectnesse.

15 And let the peace of God * rule in your hearts, to the which ye are called in one bodie, and be ye || amiable.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you plentifully in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing your owne selues, in Psalmes and hymnes, and spiritual songs, singing with a *|| grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 * And whatsoever ye shall doe in word or dede, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God, euery the Father by him.

18 * * * * * submit your selues vnto your husbands, as it is comely in the Lord.

19 * * * * * husbands loue your wiues, and be not bitter vnto them.

20 * * * * * Children, obey your parents in all things: for that is well pleasing vnto the Lord.

21 Fathers, * * * * * provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 * * * * * Seruants, be obedient vnto them that are your masters according to the flesh in all things, not with eye seruice as men pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God.

23 And whatsoever ye doe, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not vnto men, 24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receiue the reward of the inheritance: for ye serue the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doth wrong, shall receiue for the wrong that he hath done, and there is no * * * * * respect of persons.

2 Hee exhorteth them to be seruant in prayer, 5 To walke wisely toward them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ. He salutes them, and wisheth them all prosperitie.

Y E masters, doe vnto your seruants, that which is iust and equall, knowing that ye haue also a master in heauen.

2 * Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving,

3 * Praying also for vs, that God may open vnto vs the * doore of utterance, to speake the mystery of Christ: wherefore I am also in bonds.

4 That I may utter it, as it becommeth me to speake.

5 * * * * * wisely toward them that are without, and * * * * * redeeme the time.

The first Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in ffaith, persecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel, arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most carefull for them) sent Timothee to strengthen them, who soone after admonishing him of their estate, gave occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoever God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the purity of their Religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to overthrow their faith, taught falsly, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: whereof hee briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to watch, lest the sudden coming of Christ come vpon them at vnwares: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

3 Without ceasing, remembering your b effectually faith, and c diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lord Iesus Christ in the sight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our d Gospel was not vnto you in word only, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know after what manner wee were among you for your sakes.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with e ioy of the holy Ghost,

7 So that ye were as || enamples to all that beleue in Macedonia and Achaea.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not in Macedonia, and in Achaea onely: but your faith also which is toward God spread abroad in all quarters, that wee need not to speake any thing.

9 For f they themselves shew of you what manner of carrying in we had vnto you, and how ye turned to God from idoles, to serue the g liuing and true God,

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they should not faint vnder the crosse, 2 hee commendeth his diligence in preaching, 11 And theirs in obeying. 18 Hee excuseth his absence, that hee could not come and open his heart to them.

Reuerend your selues know brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in vaine.

2 But euen after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated at b Philippi (as ye know) we were bold in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God with much striving.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by uncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Gospel should be committed vnto vs, we so speake, not as they that please men, but God which trieth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did we euer vse flattering words, as ye know, nor coloured conscience, God is record.

6 Neither sought we praise of men, neither of you, nor of others.

7 When we might haue bin || chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but we were gentle among you, euen as a a nourse cherisheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, * our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, because we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and iustly, and blameably we behaved our selues among c you that beleue.

11 As ye know how that wee exhorted you, and comforted, and besought euery one of you (as a father his children)

13 For this cause also thanke wee God without ceasing, that when ye receiued of vs the word of the preaching of God, ye receiued it not as the word of men, but as it is indeed the word of God, which also worketh in you that beleue.

17 Forasmuch brethren, as we were kept from you for a season, concerning sight, but not in the heart, we enforced the more to see your face with great desire.

18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at least once or twise) but Satan hindered vs.

CHAP. III.

2 He sheweth how greatly hee was affectioned to ward them, both in that hee sent Timotheus to them, 10 And also prayed for them.

Wherefore since we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone.

a Rather seeking your commodity then mine owne, intending Timotheus to you, Actes 16. 1.

2 And haue sent Timotheus our brother, and minister of God, and our labour fellow in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you and to comfort you touching your faith,

3 That no man should be moued with these afflictions: for yet your selues know, that we are appointed therunto.

4 For verily when wee were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and yet know it.

b His great affection toward the small flocke. c Meaning, Satan,

5 Euen for this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent him, that I might know of your faith, lest the tempter had corrupted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith and loue, & that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you.

7 Therefore brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction, and necessity through your faith.

8 For now are we aliue, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can wee recompense to God againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith wee reioyce for your sakes before our God,

10 Night and day praying exceedingly, that we might see your face, and might accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himselfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ, guide our journey vnto you,

12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as wee doe toward you.

And furthermore we beseech you, brethren, & exhort you in the Lord Iesus, that ye increase more and more, as ye haue receiued of us how ye ought to walke, and to please God.

2 For ye know what commandements we gaue you by the Lord Iesus.

3 For this is the will of God, euen your sanctification, and that ye should abstaine from fornication,

4 That euery one of you should know, how to possesse his vessel in holinesse and honour,

5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man oppresse or defraud his brother in any matter: for the Lord is auenger of all such things, as we also haue told you before time, and testified.

7 For God hath not called vs vnto uncleannesse, but vnto holinesse.

8 Wherefore that despiseth these things, despiseth not man, but God who hath euen giuen you his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye need not that I write vnto you: for ye are taught of God to loue one another:

10 Yea, and that thing verily ye doe vnto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but we beseech you brethren, that ye increase more and more,

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to meddle with your owne busines, and to work with your owne hands, as we commanded you,

12 That ye may behaue your selues honestly toward them that are without and that nothing be lacking vnto you.

14 For if we beleene that Iesus is dead, and is risen, euen so them which sleep in Iesus, will God bring with him.

15 For this say we vnto you by the word of the Lord, that we which liue, and are remaining in the coming of the Lord, shall not preuent them which sleepe.

16 For the Lord himselfe shall descend from heauen with a shout, and with the voyce of the Archangell, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

c Here sleepe is taken for contempt of saluation, when men continue in sinnes, and will not awake to godlinesse.

d And not be overcome with the cares of the world. e That is, lightened by the Gospel. f Heere it is taken onely to die, and is meant of the faithfull.

But of the times and seasons, brethren, we haue no need that I write vnto you.

2 For ye your selues know perfectly, that the day of the Lord shall come, euen as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, and safety, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the trouble vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenesse, that that day should come on you, as it were a thiefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkenesse.

6 Therefore let vs not sleepe as doe others, but let vs watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the day, be sober, putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the means of our Lord Iesus Christ,

10 Which died for vs, that whether wee wake or sleepe, wee should liue together with him.

11 Therefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Now wee beseech you, brethren, that ye know them, which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish you, 13 That ye haue them in singular loue for their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 Wee desire you, brethren, admonish them that are vnreuly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weak: be patient toward all men.

15 See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 Reioyce euermore.

17 Pray continually.

18 In all things giue thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not prophesying.

21 Try all things, and keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine from all appearance of euill.

The second Epistle of Paule to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

I Est the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because hee went to other places, rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience and other fruits of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should raigne in the Temple of God: finally, commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, hee willet them to correct such sharply, as liue idly of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

12 That the name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and yee in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

3 He sheweth them that the day of the Lord shall not come, till she departing from the faith come first, 9 And the kingdome of Antichrist, 15 And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceived, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hath taught them.

NOW wee beseech you brethren, by the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,

2 That ye be not suddenly moued from your minde, nor troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

3 Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day shall not come, except there come a departing first, and that that man of sinne be disclosed, euen the sonne of perdition.

4 Which is an aduersarie, and exalteth himselfe against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he doth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe, that he is God.

5 Who sitteth in the Temple of Satan, whereof some were beares, some lions, other leopards, as Daniel, describeth them, and is called the man of sinne, because he setteth himselfe vp against God. e Who as hee destroyeth others, so shall he be destroyed himselfe.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what I withholde that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the myserie of iniquity doeth already worke: onely he which now withholde, shall let, till hee be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall the wicked man be revealed, whose the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightnesse of his coming.

9 Euen him whose comming is by the working of Satan with all power & signes, and lying wonders.

10 And in all deceiuablenesse of vnrigheteousnesse, among them that perish, because they receiued not the loue of the truth, that they might be saued.

11 And therefore God shall send them strong delusion, that they should beleue lies.

12 That all they might be damned, which beleued not the truth, but had pleasure in vnrigheteousnes.

13 But wee ought to giue thanks alway to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord, because that God hath from the beginning, chosen you to saluation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of the truth.

14 Whereunto hee called you by our Gospel, to obtaine the glory of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore brethren, stand fast, and keepe the instructions which ye haue bene taught, either by word, or by our Epistle.

16 Now the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, euen the Father which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs euertlasting consolation, and good hope through grace,

4 And we are perswaded of you through the Lord, that ye both doe, and will doe the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord guide your hearts to the loue of God, and the waiting for of Christ.

f Because the false Apostles had perswaded after a sort the Thessalonians, that the day of the Lord was nere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible dissipation before: and therefore rather to prepare themselves to patience then to rest and quietnesse: for as yet there was a let, is that the Gospel should be preached throughout all, Math. 24. 14.

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN writing this Epistle, Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keep other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Lawe, disquiered the godly with foolish and vprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law, they know not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, hee so confes-seth his vnworthines, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he wilteeth prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his sonne to them all, is indifferent to every sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And so far as much as God hath left ministers as ordinary meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whom the myserie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latters dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion, men shal teach things contrary to the word of God.
This done, hee teacheth what widows should be received or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be choien into office, exhorting them neither to bee hastie in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the due tie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnesse, of rich men, and aboute all things he chargeth him to beware of false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing bee taught but Gods word,
etc. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie, and edification are the end thereof, 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so doe, that thou mayest command some that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neither that they giue heed to * fables and genealogies, * which are endlesse, which ling.

7 They would be Doctors of the Law, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, neither wherof they affirme.

8 * And we know that the Law is good,
if a man vse it lawfully.

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to sinners, to the vnholly, and to the pro-phane, to murthers of fathers and mo-

12 Therefore I thanke him which hath made me strong, that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for he counted me faithful, and put me in his seruice:

13 When before I was a blasphemers, and a persecuter, and an oppressour: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it ignorantly through vnbelleife.

14 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthy to be receiued, that Christ Iesus came into the world to saue sinners of whom I am chiefe.

16 Notwithstanding for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ should first shewe on mee all long suffering vnto the ensample of them which shall in tyme to come beleue in him vnto eternall life.

17 Now vnto the king euerlasting immortal, lausible, vnto God only wise, be honour, and glory for euer, and euer, Amen.

18 This commendement commit I vnto thee, sonne Timotheus, according to the propheties, which went before vpon thee, that thou by them shouldest fight a good fight,

I Exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giuing of thanks be made for all men,

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority, that wee may lead a quiet and a peaceable life, in all godlinesse and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour,

4 Who will that all men shalbe saved, and come vnto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one Mediatour betwene God and man, which is the man Christ Iesus, 11 Let the women learne in silence with all subiection.

12 I permit not a woman to teach, neither to vsurpe authoritie ouer the man, but to be in silence:

13 For Adam was first formed, then Ence.

1 He declareth what is the office of Ministers, 11 and as touching their families. 15 The dignitie of the Church, 16 And the principall point of the heavenly doctrine.

This is a true saying, * If any man desireth the office of a Bishop, hee desireth a worthy worke.

2 A Bishop therefore must be vnreprouable, the husband of one wife, watching, sober, modest, hauberous, apt to teach,

3 Not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre, but gentle, no fighter, not couetous,

4 One that can rule his owne house honestly, hauiing children vnder obedience with all honesty.

5 For if any cannot rule his owne house, how shall he care for the Church of God?

6 He may not be a pong scholler, lest hee being puffed vp fall into the condemnation of the deuill.

7 Hee must also be well reported of, euen of them which are without, lest he fall into rebuke, and the snare of the deuill.

to get about from house to house: yea, they are not only idle, but also peacocks, and on the bodies, speaking things which are not comely.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, and beare children, & gouerne the house, and giue none occasion to the aduersary to speake euill.

15 For certaine are already turned backe after Satan.

16 If any faithfull man, or faithfull woman haue widowes, let them minister vnto them, and let not the Church be charged, that there may be sufficient for them that are widowes: indeed.

17 The Elders that rule wel, are worthy of double honour, especially they which labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture saith, * Thou shalt not moue the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne: and, * The labourer is worthy of his wages.

19 Against an Elder^k receive none accusation, but vnder two or thre witnesses.

20 Them that sinne, rebuke openly, that the rest also may feare.

21 ¶ I charge thee before God and the Lord Iesus Christ, & the Elect Angels, that thou obserue these things without preferring one to another, & do nothing partially.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens sins: keepe thy selfe pure.

23 Drinke no longer water, but vse a little wine for thy stomacks sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some mens sinnes are open before hand, and goe before vnto iudgement: but some mens^p follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works are manifest before hand, and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

1 The duety of seruants toward their masters. 3 Against such as are not satisfied with the word of God 6 Of true godlinesse, and contentation of mind. 9 Against couetousnesse. 11 A charge giuen to Timothy.

¶ Et as many seruants as are vnder the Loke, count their masters worthy of all honour, that the Name of God, and his doctrine be not euill spoken of.

2 And they which haue beleueing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather doe seruice, because they are faithfull, & beloued, & partakers of the benefit. These things teach & exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consenteth not to the wholesome words of our Lord Iesus Christ, & to the doctrine, which is according to godlinesse,

4 Hee is puffed vp, and knoweth nothing, but doeth about questions and strife of words, whereof cometh enuie, strife, railing, enill surmising,

5 Vaine disputations of men of corrupt mindes, and destitute of the truth, which thinke that gaine is godlinesse: from such separate thy selfe.

6 But godlinesse is great gaine, if a man be content with that hee hath.

7 For wee brought nothing into the world, and it is certaine that wee can carie nothing out.

8 Therefore when wee haue foode and raiment, let vs therewith be content.

9 For they that will bee rich, fall into temptation and snares, and into many foolish and noysome lusts, which drowne men in perdition and destruction.

10 For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the faith, and pearced themselves thow with many sorowes.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, loue, patience, and meekenesse.

12 Fight the good fight of faith: lay hold of eternall life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Iesus Christ, which vnder Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession,

14 That thou keepe this commandement without spot, and vnrubkeable, vntill the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 Which in due time hee shall shew, that is blessed and pryncce onely, the King of kings and Lord of lords,

16 Who onely hath immortallitie, and dwelleth in the light that none can attaine vnto, whom neuer man saw, neither can see, vnto whom be honour and power euerlasting, Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high minded, and that they trust not in vncertaine riches, but in the liuing God, (which giueth vs abundantly all things to enioy.)

18 That they doe good, and bee rich in good works, and ready to distribute, and communicate,

19 Laying vp in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obtaine eternall life.

20 O Timotheus, keepe that which is committed vnto thee, and an old prophane and vaine babblings, and oppositions of science, falsely so called,

The second Epistle of Paul to Timothy.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Apostle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospel, and in

in the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue as doe husbandmen, which at length receiue the fruits of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care, as souldiers doe which seeke onely to please their captaines: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel, which he preached, commanding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heed of contentions, curious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Phileus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authoritie and in estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamity, that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods triall come: yet he referueth them whom hee hath elected, even to the end. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures both against the aduersaries, and for the vtility of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessary affaires, and so with his and other salutations endeth.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Iesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloved sonne: Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, whom I serue from mine elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day.

4 Desiring to see thee, mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with joy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

7 For God hath not given to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound mind.

8 Bee not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, neither of mee his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saved vs and called vs with an holy calling, not according to our workes, but according to his owne purpose and grace which was given to vs through Christ Iesus before the world was,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality vnto light through the Gospel.

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is not bound.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whom I haue beleueed, and I am perswaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of the wholesome words, which thou hast heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.

14 That worthe thing, which was committed to thee, keep through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which I am are Hygelus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him that he may finde mercy with the Lord at that day, and in how many things hee hath ministered vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

C H A P. II.

2 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsell touching the saluation of his, 19 and the marks thereof.

Thou therefore my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of mee, by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithful men, which shall bee able to teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himselfe with the affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also strue for a master, he is not crowned, except he strue as he ought to doe.

6 The husbandman must labour before he receiue the fruits.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ, made of the seed of David, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel:

10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternall glory.

11 It is a true saying, For if we be dead with him, we also shall liue with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne with him: if we denie him, he also will denie him.

13 If we were beleue not, yet abideth hee faithfull: hee cannot denie himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they strue not about words, which is to no profit, but to the peruertering of the hearers.

15 Studie to shew thy selfe approued vnto God, a workeman that needeth not to bee ashamed, diuiding the word of truth aright.

16 Stay prophane and vaine babblings: for they shall encrease vnto more vngodliness.

17 And their word shall fret as a canker: of which sort is Hymeneus and Philetus, 18 Which as concerning the truth haue erred, saying, that the resurrection is past already, and doe destroy the faith of certain.

19 But the foundation of God remaineth sure, and hath this seale, The Lord knoweth who are his, and, Let euery one that callet on the name of Christ, depart from iniquitie.

20 Notwithstanding in a great house are not onely vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth, and some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.

21 If any man therefore purge himselfe from these, he shall be a vessel vnto honour, sanctified and meet for the Lord, and prepared vnto euery good worke.

22 Flee also from the lusts of youth, and follow after righteousness, faith, loue, and peace, with them that call on the Lord with pure heart.

23 And put away foolish, and vnlearned questions, knowing that they ingender strife.

24 But the seruant of the Lord must not strue, but must be gentle toward all men, apt to teach, suffering the euill men patiently,

25 Instructing them with meekenes that are contrary minded, proouing if God at any time will giue them repentance, that they may know the truth,

26 And that they may come to amendment out of the snare of the deuill, which are taken of him at his will.

2 For men shall be louers of their owne selues, couetous, boasters, proud, curled speakers, disobedient to parents, vnbankfull, vnholly,

3 Without naturall affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, despisers of them which are good,

4 Traitors, heady, hee minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,

6 For of this sort are they which creepe into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and led with diuers lusts,

7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 And as Iannes and Iambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth, men of corrupt mindes, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall preuaile no longer: for their madness shall be euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.

10 But thou hast fully knowne my doctrine, manner of liuing, purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience, 11 Persecutions, and afflictions which came vnto mee at Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Lystra, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered mee.

12 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Iesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 But the euill men and deceiuers shall waxe worse and worse, deuiuing and being deuiued.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and art perswaded thereof, knowing of whom thou hast learned them.

15 And that thou hast knowne the holy Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.

they bee no fighters, but soft, shewing all meekenesse vnto all men.

3 For we our selues also were in times past vnwise, disobedient, deceiued, seruing the lusts and diuers pleasures, liuing in ma-liciousnes and enuy, hateful, and hating one another.

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witnesse and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the basenesse of his matter, he flyeth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and Maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments proouing the due tie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 Hee reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9 whom hee desireth to forgive his seruant Onesimus, and lovingly to receiue him againe.

P

All a prisoner of Iesus Christ, & our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend & fellow helper, 2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow labourer, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I^a give thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

5 (When I heard of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatsoever good thing is in you^b through Christ Iesus may be known.

7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saints^c hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore though I bee very bold in Christ to command thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, even Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my sonne^e Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds, 11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me.

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue retained with mee, that in thy stead hee might haue ministered vnto me in the bonds of the Gospell.

14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that he therefore^d departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer.

16 Not now as a seruant, but aboute a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, specially to me: how much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count our things common, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If hee hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompence it, albeit I doe not say to thee, that thou owest vnto mee euen thine owne selfe.

20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my^f bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Whereouer also prepare mee lodging for I trust through your prayers I shall bee giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner^g in Christ Iesus,

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knownen, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the author thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authority although we know not with what pen he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophecies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and be the Lord, but so Lord that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe, for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priests were but shadowes, & therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he prooueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 1. vnto the 12. Chap. vers. 8. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18 to the twentie and fife verse of the same Chapter: yea, and is the King to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 25, to the beginning of the last Chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the old fathers, wee

we must constantly beleue in him. that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly and courageously perseuere euen to the end, in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that we may both be thankfull to God, and dutifull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee sheweth the excellency of Christ, A above the Angels, 7 and of their office.

a God, who is euer constant and mercifull to his Church, declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundry sorts: but now last of all he hath fully declared all trueth to vs by his Sonne.

b So that now we may not credit any new revelations after him.

c He intreateth here of Christ both as touching his person, which is very God and very man, by whom all things are made, & also as touching his office, whereby he is King, Prophet and Priest.

1 A lundry times and in diuers maners: God spake in the old time to our fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these last dayes he hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whom hee hath made heire of all things, by whom also he made the world, and the ingraued forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mightie word, hath by himselfe purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hand of his maiesty, in the highest places.

3 And is made so much more excellent then the Angels, inasmuch as hee hath obtained a more excellent name then they.

4 For vnto which of the Angels said he at any time, Thou art my Sonne, & this day begate I thee? And againe, I will bee his Father, and he shall be my Sonne?

5 And againe when hee bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the world, hee saith, And let all the Angels of God worship him.

6 And of the Angels he saith, I will make the Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

7 But vnto the Sonne he saith, O God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the scepter of thy kingdom is a scepter of righteousness.

8 Thou hast loued righteousness, and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath anointed thee with the oyle of gladnesse above thy fellows.

9 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

10 They shall perish, but thou dost remaine: and they all shall waxe old as doth a garment.

11 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

12 Vnto which also of the Angels said he at any time, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

13 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister, for their sake which shall be heires of saluation?

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the new Law which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 And not to be offended at the infirmities, and low degree of Christ,

10 Because it was necessarie that for our sakes hee should take such an humble state vpon him, that hee might be like vnto his brethren.

Verfore we ought diligently to giue heede to the things which wee haue heard, lest at any time wee should let them slippe.

2 For if the worde spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward,

3 How shall we escape, if wee neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to bee preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by them that heard him,

4 God bearing witnesse thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will:

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shouldest be mindfull of him, or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him!

7 Thou madest him a little inferiour to the Angels: thou crownedst him with glorie and honour, and hast set him about the workes of thine hands.

8 Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that hee hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subject vnto him.

9 But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

10 But we see Iesus crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a little inferiour to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

11 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that hee brought many children vnto glorie, that he should consecrate the Prince of their saluation through afflictions.

12 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren, 13 Saying, I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing praises to thee.

CHAP. III.

1 He requirerh them to be obedient vnto the word of Christ, 3 who is more worthy then Moses, 12 The punishment of such as will harden their hearts, and not beleeue that they might haue eternal rest.

Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly vocation, "consider the Apostle and high Priest of our "profession, Christ Iesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appoynted "him, euen as "Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as hee which hath builded the house, "hath more honour

4 For euery house is builded of some man, and he that hath build all things, is "God.

5 Now Moses verily was faithfull in all his house, as a seruant, for a witness of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose "house we are, if we hold

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of need.

CHAP. V.

5 He compareth Iesus Christ with the Leviticall Priests, shewing wherein they either agree, or dissent. 11 Afterward he reproveth the negligence of the Lewes.

For every high Priest is taken from among men, and is ordained for men, in things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both gifts, and sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that he also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 And no man taketh this honoz vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour to be made the high Priest, but he that sayd vnto him, * Thou art my Sonne, this day beget I thee, gaue it him.

6 As hee also in another place speaketh, * Thou art a Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Which in the dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard in that which he feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an high Priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom wee haue many things to say, which are hard to be uttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye neede againe that we teach you the first principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue neede of milke, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that vseth milke, is inexperienced in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wits exercised, to discerne both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

1 He proceedeth in reproofing them, and exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be steadfast and patient, 18 Forasmuch as God is sure in his promise.

Therefore leaving the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptismes, and laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we do if God permit.

4 For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good word of God, & of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they crucifie againe to themselves the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh oft vpon it, & bringeth forth hearbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briars, is reprobous, and is neere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloved, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vniuersal, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue which ye shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministered vnto the Saints, and yet minister.

11 And wee desire that every one of you shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end,

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, which through faith and patience inherite the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because hee had no greater to sweare by, he sweare by himselfe,

14 Saying, * Surely I will abundantly blesse thee, and multiply thee marvellously.

15 And so after that hee had tarped patiently, he enjoyed the promise.

CHAP. VII.

1 Hee compareth the Priesthood of Christ vnto Melchisedec, 11 Also Christs Priesthood with the Leuites.

Gen. 14. 18.
a So called be-

tion of his parents or kinse-

had bin suddenly sent of God into the world to be a figure of Christ

Priest, & shortly taken out of the world againe, so Christ as touching his humani-
tie had no father, and concerning his diuinitie no mother.
b That is, the chiefe of fathers.
Num. 18. 21.
deut. 18. 1, 2.
ioh. 14. 4.
c The Leuites had commandement to receiue that which Abraham gaue freely
to Melchisedec.
d Were begotten of Abraham.
e The Leuites re-ceiued riches of their brethren, but Melchisedec of Abraham the Patriarch: therefore his Priesthood is more excellent then the Leuiticall.
f Because there is no mention of his death,

For this Melchisedec was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as hee returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed
him, 2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithes of all things, who first is by interpretation, King of righteousness: after that, hee is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,
3 Without a father, without mother, without kindred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.
4 Now consider how great this man was vnto whom euen the Patriarch Abraham gaue tithes of the spoiles.
5 For hereby they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthood, haue a commandement to take according to the Law, tithes of the people (that is of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.
6 But hee whose kindred is not counted among them, receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.
7 And without all contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.
8 And here men that die receiue tithes:
but there hee receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed, that he liueth.
9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham.
10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met
him.
11 If therefore perfection had beene by the Priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?
12 For if the Priesthood bee changed, then of necessitie must there bee a change of the Law.

13 For hee of whom these things are spoken, pertained vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the Altar.
14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which Tribe Moses spake nothing touching the Priesthood.
15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchi-sedec there is risen by another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Law of the carnall Commandement, but after the power of the endlesse life.
17 For hee testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec.
18 For the Commandement that went afore, is disannulled, because of the weaknesse thereof, and vnprofitablenesse.
19 For the Law made nothing profit, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfit, whereby we draw nere vnto God.
20 And forasmuch as it is not without an oath (for these are made Priests without an oath:
21 But this, hee is made with an oath by him that sayd vnto him, * The Lord hath sworne, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec.)
22 By so much is Iesus made a surety of a better Testament.
23 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffered to endure by the reason of death.
24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath an everlasting Priesthood.
25 Wherefore, he is able also perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing he euer liueth, to make intercession for them.
26 For such an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmlesse, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:
27 Which needed not daily as those high Priests to offer vp Sacrifice, first for his own sinnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offered by himselfe.
28 For the Law maketh men high Priests, which haue infirmitie: but the word of the oath that was since the Law, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euer more.

CHAP. VIII.

6 Hee proueth the abolishing of all of the Leuiticall Priesthood, as of the old Covenant by the spiritual and euerglasting Priesthood of Christ, 8 And by the New Covenant.

Now of the things which wee haue spoken, this is the summe, that we haue such an high Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the Throne of the Father in hea-uens,
2 And is a minister of the Sanctuary, and

g The Law and the Priesthood are both of one condition: so that both Aarons and Moses Office pertaine to Christ, which is Priest, and Lawmaker.
h Which stood in outward and corporall ceremonies.
i For the Law
hath no vertue.
nor profit, till a man be come to Christ.
j Or, it was an introduction of a better hope.
k Therefore all others are blasphemous, that either make themselves his successors, or pretend any other sacrifice.
l The fruit of his Priesthood is to saue, and that fully, and perfectly, not by supplying that that wanteth, but by taking away the Law, which is vnperfite by reason of our infirmitie.
m And cannot without blasphe-mie be said to be offered againe, or else by any creature: for none could offer him,
but himselfe.
n Not that it was first made after the Law was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternall oath was then revealed vnto the world.

b Which is the body of Christ.

c For else it should be corruptible.

d He prooueth that Christs body is the true tabernacle, and that hec must needs be made man, to the intent that hee might haue a thing to offer, which was his body.

Exod. 25.40. alies 7.44.

e Seeing the offering of the Levites were but shadowes of heavenly things, as appeareth by the oracle to Moses, it followeth then that Christs heavenly Sanctuary, his Tabernacle and Office are farre more excellent.

and of the true Tabernacle, which the Lord pight and not man.

3 For every high Priest is ordained to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man should haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seeing there are Priests that according to the Law offer gifts,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne & shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was warned by God, when he was about to finish the tabernacle. See, said he, that thou make all things according to the paterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our high Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, in as much as he is the Mediator of a better Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bin faultlesse, no place should haue bin sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them, he saith, * Behold, the dayes will come, saith the Lord, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda, a new Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hand, to lead them out of the land of Egypt: for they continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel. After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, & I will be their God, and they shall be my people:

11 And they shall not teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will be mercifull to their iniquities, and I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he saith, A new Testament, he hath abrogate the olde: now that which is disannulled and warded old, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Law are abolished, 11 by the eternitie and perfection of Christs sacrifice

Then the first Testament had also ordinances of religion, and a worship sanctuary.

2 For the first Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the holy places.

3 And after the second vasse was the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Arke of the Testament overlaid round about with golde, wherein the golden pot which had Manna was, and Aarons rod that had budded, and the tables of the Testament.

5 And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the Mercy seat: of which things we will not now speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordeined, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the high Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which he offered for himselfe, and for the ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing.

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that could not make holy, concerning the conscience, him that did the seruice.

10 Which only stood in meats & drinks, and diuers washings, and carnal rites, vntill the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building.

12 Neither by the blood of goates and calves: but by his owne blood entered he in once vnto the holy place, and obtained eternall redemption for vs.

13 For if the blood of buls & of goats, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vne leane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the flesh,

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, which through the eternall spirit offered himselfe without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works, to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediator of the new Testament, that through death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must bee the death of him that made the Testament.

17 For the Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is alue.

18 Wherefore, neither was the first ordeined without blood.

Christ the true and eternall Priest offered his owne blood, which was most holy and pure: the Leviticall Priest offered yeerely, and therefore did onely represent the true holinesse: but Christ by one only sacrifice hath made holy for ever all them that beleue. 1 Outwardly in the sight of man. 2 Pet. 1.19. 3 Iohn 1.7. 4 Iohn 1.5. m Which of themselves procure death, and are the fruits thereof Luk. 7.4. 20 * Saying This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed unto you.

21 Moreover, hee sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heavenly things should be purified with such things: but the heavenly things themselves are purified with better sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places that are made with hands, which are || similitudes of the true Sanctuary: but is entered into, very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs.

25 Not that he should offer himselfe often, as the high Priest entered into the holy place every yeere with other blood,

26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the foundation of the world) but now in the end of the world hath hee appeared once to put away sin, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed unto men that they shall once die, and after that cometh the iudgment,

28 So * Christ was once offered to take away the finnes of many, and unto them that looke for him, shall hee appeare the second time * without sinne unto saluation.

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God, hee taketh away the first that he may establish the second,

10 By the which will wee are sanctified even by the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once made.

11 And every Priest appeareth daily ministering, and oft times offereth one manner of offering, which can neuer take away finnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for finnes, * standeth for euer at the right hand of God.

13 And from henceforth saith * till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For with one offering hath hee consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is, and a commendation of the same. 6 Without faith wee cannot please God. 16 The steadfast beliefs of the Fathers in the old time.

Now faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not seene.

2 For by it our Elders were well reported of. 3 Through faith wee vnderstand that the world was ordeined by the word of God, so that the things which we see, are not made of things which did appeare. 4 By faith Abel offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, by the which he obtained witnes that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: by the which faith also, he being dead, yet speaketh. 5 By faith was Enoch taken away, that he should not see death, neither was he found: for God had taken him away: for before he was taken away, he was reported of that he had pleased God. 6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for hee that cometh to God, must beleue that God is, and that hee is a rewarder of them that seeke him.

7 By faith Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not seene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the saving of his household, through the which Arke hee condemned the world, and was made heire of the righteousnesse which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to go out into a place, which hee should afterward receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whether hee went.

9 By faith hee abode in the land of promise, as in a strange countrey, as one that dwelt in tents with Isaac and Jacob heires with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city hauing a foundation, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith Sara also receiued strength to conceiue seed, and was deliuered of a child, when shee was past age, because shee iudged him faithful which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang there of one ruen of one which was dead, to many as the starrs of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of the Sea shore which is innumerable.

13 All these died in faith, and receiued not the promises, but saw them afarre off, and beleued them, and receiued them thankfully, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a countrey.

15 And if they had bene mindfull of that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for hee hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith Abraham offered by Isaac, when he was tryed, and hee that had receiued the promises, offered his onely begotten Sonne.

18 (To whom it was sayd, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.)

19 For he considered that God was able to raise him vp euen from the dead: from whence he receiued him also after a sort.

20 By faith, Isaac blessed Isaac and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith, Jacob when hee was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Ioseph, and leaning on the end of his staffe, worshipped God.

22 By faith Ioseph when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, & gaue commandement of his bones.

23 By faith Moses when he was borne was hid three moneths of his parents, because they saw hee was a proper child, neither feared they the Kings commandement.

24 By faith Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter,

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures

26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsooke Egypt, and feared not the fiercensse of the king: for he endured as he that saw him which is inuincible.

28 Through faith he ordeined y^e Passouer, and the citation of blood, lest he that destroyed the first borne, should touch them.

29 By faith they passed thorow the red Sea, as by drier land, which when the Egyptians had allayed to doe, they were drowned.

30 By faith the walles of Jericho fell downe, after they were compassed about seuen dayes.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, when she had receiued the spies peaceably.

32 And what shall I more say: for the time would be too short for me to tel of Gedeon, of Barak and of Sampson, and of Iephthah, also of David, and Samuel, and of the Prophets:

33 Which through faith subdued kingdomes, wrought righteousness, obtained the promises, stopped the mouthes of Lyons,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, of weak were made strong, waxed valiant in battell, turned to flight the armies of the almighties.

35 The women receiued their dead raised to life, other also were racked, and would not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better resurrection.

36 And others haue bene tried by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bonds and prisonment,

37 They were stoned, they were beaten allunder, they were tempted, they were slaine with the sword, they wandered by and down in sheeps skinner, and in goats skins, being destitute, afflicted, and tormented:

38 Whom the world was not worthy of: they wandered in wildernesses, and mountaines, and dennes, and caues of the earth.

39 And these all through faith obtained good report, and receiued not the promise,

40 God prouiding a better thing for vs, that they without vs should not bee made perfect.

Wherefore let vs also, seeing that we are compassed with so great a cloud of witnesses, cast away euery thing that presseth downe, and the sinne that hangeth so fast on: let vs runne with patience the race that is set before vs,

2 Looking vnto Iesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him, endured the crosse, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against sinners, lest ye should be wearied, and faint in your mindes.

4 For he haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striving against him.

5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children,

6 For he haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striving against him.

7 If ye endure chastening, God will correct him, whom the Father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore ye bee without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes.

9 Wherefore, we haue had the fathers of our bodies which corrected vs, and we gaue them reverence: should we not much rather be in subiection vnto the Father of spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened vs after their own pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that wee might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastising for the present seemeth to be pynous, but grievous: but afterward it bringeth the quiet fruit of righteousness, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your handes which hang downe, and your weak knees,

13 And make straight steps vnto your feet, lest that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without the which no man shall see the Lord.

15 Take heed that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no roor of bitterness spring up and trouble you, lest thereby many be defiled.

16 Let there be no fornication or profane person as Elias which for a portion of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward also when he would haue inherited the blessing he was reiect: for he found no place to repentance, though he sought the blessing with tears.

18 For ye are not come vnto the mount that might bee touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blackenesse and darknesse, and tempest.

19 Neither vnto the sound of a trumpet, and the voyce of words, which they that heard it, reeused themselves, that the word should not be spoken to them any more.

20 For they were not able to abide that which was commanded, yea, though a beast touch the mountaine, it shall be stoned, or thrust thorow with a dart:

THE ARGUMENT.

IAMES the Apostle and sonne of Alphaeus wrote this Epistle to the Jewes which were converted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countreys, and therefore he exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not to be partiall, neither to boast of an ill faith faith, but to declare a true faith by liuely fruits, to auoid ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to vnder their faults when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way to the knowledge of Christ.

Ames a seruant of God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ, to the twelue tribes which are scattered abroad, salutation.

2 By brethren, count exceeding joy, when ye sal in- o diuers || tentations,

3 Knowing that the trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

4 And let patience haue her b perfect worke, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke wiledome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberal- lie, and repprocheth no man, and it shall bee giuen him.

6 But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for hee that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde and caried away.

7 Fether let that man thinke that hee shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A wauering minded man is unstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of low degree reioyce in that he is exalted:

10 Again, he that is rich, in that he is made low: for as the floure of the grasse shall he vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower filleth away, and the beauty of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man fade away in all his wayes.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth tenta- tion: for when he is tried, hee shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath pro- mitted to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot bee tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawen away by his owne concupiscence, and is enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren.

17 Every good giuing, and euery perfect gift is from aboue, & cometh downe from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadowing by turning.

18 If his owne will begate he vs with the word of truth, that we should be as the first fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, let euery man be swift to heare, slow to speake, and slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluitie of malitiousnes, and receiue with meekenesse the word that is grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 And be ye doers of the word, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the word, and doe it not, he is like vnto a man that beholdeth his naturall face in a glasse.

24 For when hee hath considered him- selfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediatly what manner of one he was.

25 But whoso looketh in the perfect Law of libertie, and continueth therein, hee not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seemeth religi- ous, and reitrateth not his tongue, but de- ceiueth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherles and widowes in their aduersity, and to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

C H A P. II.

He forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons. But to regard the poore as well as the rich. To be lening and mercifull.

14 And not to be ast of faith, where no deedes are: 17 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a gold ring and in goodly apparel and there come in also a poore man in vile taiment.

3 And ye haue a respect to him that wea- reth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footstool.

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euill thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not God chosen the poore of this world, that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which hee promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the rich oppresse you by tyranny, and doe not they draw you before the iudgement seats?

7 Doe not they blasphemie the worthy name after which ye be named.

8 But if ye fulfil the royall law according to the Scripture, which saith, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

11 For he that said, Thou shalt not commit adultery, layd also. Thou shalt not kill.

Now though thou doest none adultery, yet if thou kill it, thou art a transgressor of the Law.

12 So speake yee, and so doe, as they that shall be iudged by the Law of liberty.

13 For there shall be iudgement merciesse to him that sheweth no mercie, and mercie seruethe against iudgement.

14 At anall cher, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, when he hath no workes? can the faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister bee naked and destitute of dayly food,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee giue them not those things which are needfull to the body, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I haue workes: shew me thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God thou doest well: the devils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou baline man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when hee offered Isaac his sonne vpon the Altar?

22 Seest thou not, that the faith wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which sayeth, Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousness: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Perceiue then how that of workes a man is iustified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not? Raba b the harlot iustified through workes, when shee had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way.

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

27 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

28 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

29 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

30 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

31 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

32 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

33 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

34 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

35 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

36 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

37 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

38 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

39 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

40 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

41 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

42 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

My brethren, bee not many masters, knowing that we shall retriue the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things wee sinne all. If any man sinne not in word, he is a perfect man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Behold, wee put bits into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and wee turne about all the body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they bee so great, and are driuen of fierce winde, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whiche serueth the gouernour likerly.

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member, and boalterh of great things: behold, how great a thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a world of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birds, and of creeping things, and things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnruely euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse wee God euen the Father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send forth at one place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bring forth olives, either a vine figges? so can no fountaine make both salt and sweet.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his workes in meeknesse of wisdom.

14 But if yee haue bitter enuyng, and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither be ye against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuillish.

16 For where enuyng and strife is, there is contention, and all manner of euill workes.

17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to bee intreated, full of mercie and good fruits, without iudging, and without hypocrisy.

18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace, of them that make peace.

CHAP. V.

2 He that breatheth the wicked rich men, 7 exhorteth unto patience, 12 to beware of swearing, 16 one to knowlege his faultes to another, 20 and one to labour to bring another to the truth.

He menaceth them with vengeance of God, which shall not only make them to weepe, but to howle & despair. And kindleth the wrath of God against you,

* Ye haue heaped up treasure for the last dayes,

4 Behold, the hire of the laborers, which haue reaped your fieldes (which is of you kept backe by fraud) cryeth, and the cryes of them which haue reaped, are entred into the eares of the Lord of hosts.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse: Ye haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye haue condemned, and haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, vnto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, untill hee receive the former, and the latter raine.

8 Be yee also patient therefore, and settle your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth neere.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest yee bee condemned: behold, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an ensample of suffering adversity, & of long patience, which haue spoken in the Name of the Lord.

11 Behold, we count them blessed which endure. Ye haue heard of the patience of Job, and haue knowen what end the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 But before all things, my brethren, let us be patient, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other thing: but let your yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merrie? Let him sing.

14 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoint him with oyle in the Name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sicke, and the Lord shall raise him vp: and if he haue committed sinne, it shall be forgiven him.

16 Acknowledge your faultes one to another, and pray one for another, that yee may bee healed: for the prayer of a righteous man availeth much, if it bee seruent.

17 * Elias was a man subject to like passions as wee are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for three yeeres and sixe moneths.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you haue erred from the truth, and some man hath conuerted him,

Law, and yet faileth in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Thou shalt not commit adultery, sayd also, Thou shalt not kill. Now though thou doest none adultery, yet if thou killst, thou art a transgressor of the Law.

12 So speake yee, and so doe, as they that shalbe iudged by the Law of liberty.

13 For there shalbe iudgement mercilesse to him that sheweth no mercie, and mercie seruieth against iudgement.

14 At auaileth, my brethren, though a man latly be hath faith, when he hath no workes: can the faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister bee naked and dilute of dayly food,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee giue them not those things which are needfull to the body, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I haue workes: shew me thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God thou doest well: the devils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou understand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the Altar?

22 Seest thou not, that the faith wrought with his workes: and through the workes was the faith made perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which sayth, Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Velle then how that of workes a man is iustified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when shee had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

Here deiles are considered as ioyned with true faith, 1 So that faith was not idle. m The more his faith was declared by his obedience and good workes, the more was it known to men to be perfect as the goodnesse of a tree is known by her good fruites, otherwise no man can haue perfection in this world for every man must pray for remission of his sinnes & increate of faith. Gen. 15. 6. Rom. 4. 3. gal. 3. 6. n Is so known and declared vnto man. o Of that barren and dead faith whereof yee boast. 10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an ensample of suffering adversity, & of long patience, which have spoken in the Name of the Lord.

11 Behold, we count them blessed which endure. Pe have heard of the patience of Job, and have known what end the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 But before all things, my brethren, sweare not, neither by heaven, nor by earth, nor by any other othe: but let your yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merrie? Let him sing.

14 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoynt him with oyle in the Name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sicke, and the Lord shall raise him up: and if he have committed sinne, it shall bee forgiven him.

16 Acknowledge your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that pee may be saved: for the prayer of a righteous man availeth much, if it bee fervent.

17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for three yeeres and sixe monethes.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heaven gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you have erred from the truth, and some man hath converted him,

20 Let him know that he which hath converted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall save a soule from death, and shall haue a multitude of sinners.

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

He exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselves, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heavenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto wee are called by the grace of God reuealed to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holinesse of life. And to the intent this faith should not faile, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole world, hee declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that hee should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue themselves. And because it is appointed for all that are godly to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserveth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselves, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to bee modest, and apt to learne, and to endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God wee are elect and regenerate to a lively hope, 7 and how faith must be tryed, 10 that the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of old, 13 Hee exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, inasmuch as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

Peter an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to the strangers that dwell here and there throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father unto sanctification of the Spirit, through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace & peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath forgotten vs againe vnto a lively hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndeiled, and that faileth not away, reserved in heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God, through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the last time:

6 Wherein yee reioyce, though now for a season (if neede require) yee are in heaviness, through manifold tentations,

7 That the tryall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it be tried with fire) might be found vnto your praise, and honour, and glorie, at the appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom ye haue not seene: and yet loue him, in whom now, though yee see him not, yet doe you beleue, and reioyce with joy vnspeakable and glorious,

9 And need doth so require, when it pleaseth God to lay his crosse vpon his, for to draw them from earthly things, and make them partakers of his heavenly graces. h At his second coming.

9 Receiving the end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules. Or, reward.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was reuealed, that not vnto themselves, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to behold.

13 Therefore, gird vp the loynes of your minde: bee sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former lusts of your ignorance:

15 But as hee which hath called you, is holy, so be yee holy in all manner of conuersation,

17 And if ye call him Father, which without respect of person iudgeth according to every mans worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing that yee were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vaine conuersation, receiued by the traditions of the Fathers, 19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a Lambe vndeiled, and without spot.

4 To whom yee come as vnto a liuing stone disallowed of men, but chosen of God, and precious.

5 And ye as liuely stones be made a spirituall house, an holy Priesthood to offer vp spirituall sacrifices acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

6 Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture, Behold, I put in Sion a chiefe corner stone, elect and precious: and he that beleueth therein, shall not be ashamed.

7 Vnto you therefore which beleue, it is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner.

8 And a stone to stumble at, and a rock of offence, euen to them which stumble at the word being disobedient vnto the which thing they were euen ordained.

11 Dearly beloued, I beseech you as strangers & pilgrimes, abstaine from fleshly lusts, which fight against the soule.

12 And haue your conuersation honest among the Gentiles, that they which speake euill of you as of euill doers, may by your good workes which they shall see, glorifie

13 Submit your selues vnto all maner ordinance of man for the Lords sake, whether it bee vnto the king, as vnto the superior, or 14 Vnto Gouernours, as vnto them that are sent of him for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well doing yee may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men,

16 As free, and not as hauing the liberty for a cloke of maliciousnesse, but as the seruants of God.

17 Honour all men: loue brotherly fellowship: feare God, honour the king.

18 Seruants, be subiect to your masters with all feare, not only to the good and courteous, but also to the sroward.

19 For this is thank-worthy, if a man of conscience toward God endure griefe, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what praise is it, if when yee be buffeted for your fautes, ye take it patiently: but and if when yee doe well, ye suffer wrong, and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For herunto yee are called: for Christ also suffered for vs, leaving vs an example that ye should follow his steps.

22 Who did no sinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when he was reuiled, reuiled not againe, when hee suffered, he threatened not, but committed it to him that iudgeth righteously.

24 Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that we being deliuered from sinne, should liue in righteousnesse: by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheepe going astray: but are now returned vnto the shepheard and bishop of your soules.

1 He exhorteſt men to ceaſe from ſinne. 2 To ſpend no more time in vice. 3 To be ſober and apt to pray. 4 To loue each other. 5 To be patient in trouble. 6 To beware that no man ſuffer as an euill doer. 7 But as a Chriſtian man, and ſo not to be aſhamed.

For almuch then as Chriſt hath ſuffered for vs in the fleſh, arme your ſelues likewiſe with the ſame minde, which is, that he which hath ſuffered in the fleſh, hath ceaſed from ſinne.

2 That he henceforward ſhould liue (as much time as remaineth in the fleſh) not after the luſts of men, but after the will of God.

3 For it is ſufficient for vs that we haue ſpent the time paſt of the liſe, after the luſt of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnes, luſts, drunkenneſſe, in gluttony, drinkings, and in abominable idolatries.

4 Wherein it ſeemeth to them ſtrange, that ye runne not with them vnto the ſame exceſſe of ryot: therefore ſpeake they euill of you.

5 Which ſhall giue accounts to him, that is ready to iudge: quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpoſe was the Goſpel preached alſo vnto the dead, that they might bee condemned according to men, in the fleſh, but might liue according to God, in the ſpirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand. Bee ye therefore ſober, and watching in prayer.

8 But aboute all things haue ſeruent loue among you: for loue couereth the multitude of ſinnes.

9 Be ye harberous one to another without grudging.

10 Let euery man, as hee hath receiued the gift, miniſter the ſame one to another, as good diſpoſers of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man ſpeake, let him talke as the words of God. If any man miniſter, let him doe it as of the abilitie which God miniſtreth, that God in all things may bee glorified through Ieſus Chriſt, to whom is prayſe and dominion for euer and euer. Amen.

12 Dearly beloved, thinke it not ſtrange concerning the fiery triall, which is among you, to proue you, as though ſome ſtrange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, in as much as ye are partakers of Chriſts ſufferings, that when his glory ſhall appeare, ye may bee glad and reioyce.

14 If ye be called vpon for the name of Chriſt, bleſſed are ye: for the ſpirit of glory, and of God, reſteth vpon you: which on their part, is euill ſpoken of: but on your parts glorified.

15 But let none of you ſuffer as a murderer, or as a thiefe, or an euill doer, or as a buſie body in other mens matters.

16 But if any man ſuffer as a Chriſtian, let him not bee aſhamed, but let him glorifie God in this behalf.

Be there were false prophetes also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, denying the Lord that hath bought them, and bring vpon themselves swift damnation.

16 But hee was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the dunbe asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the foolishnesse of the Prophet.

17 * These are wells without water, and * cloudes caried about with a tempest, to whom the blacke darknesse is reserved for euer.

This second Epistle I now write vnto you, beloved, wherewith I stirre vp and warne your pure minds,

2 To call to remembrance the wordes which were told before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Saviour.

3 This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lusts,

4 And say, There is the promise of his comming: for since the fathers dyed, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly know not,
that the heauens were of old, and the earth that was of the water, and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Therefore the world that then was perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in store, and reserved vnto fire against the day of iudge-ment, of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slackesse) but is patient toward vs, and would haue no man to perishe, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the hea-uens shall passe away with a noyse, & the element shall melt with heat, & the earth with the works that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these things must be dissolued, what manner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersion and godlienesse.

12 Looking for, & hastning vnto the com-ming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire shall be dissolued, and the elements shall melt with heat.

13 But we looke for new heauens, and a new earth, according to his promise, where in dwelleth righteousness.

14 Therefore, beloved, seeing that yet looke for such things, bee diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, such as our beloved brother Paul according to the wisdom giuen vnto him, wrote to you,

16 As one that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are hard to be vnderstood, which they that are vnlernen and vnstable per-uert, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye bee also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Saviour Iesus Christ:
to him be glory both now and for euermore

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that Saint Iohn had sufficiently declared how that our whole saluation doth consist only in Christ, lest that any man should thereby take a boldnesse to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beleeue in Christ, vnlesse he doth endeavour himselfe to keepe his commandements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, and to try the spirits. Last of all he doth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP. I.

2 True witnesse of the euerglasting word of God.
7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne.

That which was from the beginning, which we haue heard, which we haue seene with our eyes, which wee haue looked vpon, and our hands haue handled of the word of life,

2 (For the life appeared, and we haue seene it, and beare witnesse, and shew vnto you the eternall life, which was with the Father and appeared vnto vs.)

3 That, I say, which we haue seene and heard declare wee vnto you, that yet may also haue fellowship with vs, and that ioyned together in Christ by faith, should be the

the Gospel is, that we all being

b That is, Christ
being man,

Ioh. 8. 12.
 f The fruits of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or no: for God being the very purity and light, will not have fellowship with them which lie in sinne and darke-nesse.
 g In an euill conscience, and

 fore God to be sinners. || Or, doctrine.

our fellowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.
 4 And the things which we write vnto you, that your joy may be full.
 5 This then is the message, which we haue heard of him, & declare vnto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkenesse.
 6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in darkenesse, wee lie, and doe not truly:
 7 But if we walke in the light, as hee is in the light, we haue fellowship one with another, and the blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.
 8 If we say that we haue no sinne, wee deceive our selues, and truerh is not in vs.
 9 If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithfull and iust to forgive vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all unrighteous-
 nesse.
 10 If we say we haue not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in vs.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our advocate. 10 Of true loue, and how it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

a Christ is our onely Advocate and attonement:
 for the office of intercession and redemption are ioyned together.
 b That is, of them which haue embraced the Gospel by faith in all ages, degrees, and places, for there is no saluation without Christ.
 c That is by faith and to obey him: for knowledge cannot be without obedience.
 d Whereby he ioueth God: so that to loue God is to obey his word.
 || Or, doctrine.
 e When the law
 was giuen.
 f Loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, is the old commandement taught in the Law: but when Christ saith, So loue
 one another, as I haue loved you, he giueth a new commandment onely as touching the forme, but not as touching the nature or substance of the precept. Coep. 3. 14.

M babes, these things write I vnto you, what ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Iust.
 2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole world.
 3 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if we keepe his Commandments.
 4 He that saith, I know him, and keeperh not his Commandments, is a liar, and the truerh is not in him.
 5 But he that keepeth his word, in him, is the loue of God perfect in deede, hereby we know that we are in him.
 6 Hee that saith hee remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.
 7 Brethren, I write no new commandment vnto you: but an olde commandement which ye haue had from the beginning: the olde commandment is the world, which ye haue heard from the beginning.
 8 Again, a new commandment I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenes is past, and the true light now shineth.
 9 He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenes vntill his time.
 10 Hee that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euill in him.
 11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenes, and walketh in darkenes, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenes hath blinded his eyes.

12 Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.
 13 I write vnto you, Fathers, because ye haue known him that is from the beginning, I write vnto you, young men, because ye haue overcome the wicked.
 14 I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue known the Father, I haue written vnto you, fathers, because ye haue known him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue overcome the wicked.
 15 Loue not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loue the world, the loue of the Father is not in him.
 16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.
 17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth.
 18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.
 19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this cometh to passe, that it might appeare that they are not all of vs.
 20 But ye haue an ointment from him, that is holy, & ye haue known all things.
 21 I haue not written vnto you because ye know not the truerh: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truerh.
 22 Who is a liar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is Christ: the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.
 23 Whosoever denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.
 24 Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning.
 If that which ye haue heard from the beginning shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.
 25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternall life.
 26 These things haue I written vnto you concerning them that deceiue you.
 27 But the anointing which he receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and it is true and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.
 28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, wee may bee holde, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.
 29 If ye know that hee is righteous, know ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

k Which is not the cause wherefore wee are the sonnes of God, but a most certaine signe.
l If our conscience being guilty of any thing, be able to condemne vs, much more the iudgement of God which knoweth our hearts better then we our selues, is able to condemne vs.

Behold what loue the Father hath shewed vnto vs, that wee should bee called the sonnes of God: for this cause the world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearly beloved, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doth not appeare what we shall be: and wee know that when he shall appeare, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye know that he appeared that he might take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doth righteousness, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuill sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the Son of God, that he might loose the works of the deuill.

9 Whosoever is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seede remaineth in him, neither can hee sinne, because hee is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowne, and the children of the deuill: whosoever doth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loneth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that wee should loue one another.

12 Not as Cain which was of the wicked, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his owne works were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Marvell not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We know that we are translated from death vnto life, because wee loue the brethren: he that loneth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother, is a manlayer: and ye know that no manlayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 Whereby haue we perceiued loue, that he layd downe his life for vs: therefore wee ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 And whosoever hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 By little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in deed and in truth.

19 For thereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 And whatsoever we aske, we receive of him, because wee keepe his commandments, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 This is then his Commandement, That we beleue in the Name of his Son Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commandement.

24 For he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in vs, euen by the Spirit which he hath giuen vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God, may bee knowne from the spirit of error. 7 Of the loue of God, and of our neighbours.

Dearly beloued, beleue not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Whereby shall ye know the Spirit of God? Every spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And every spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome ye haue heard, how that hee should come, and now already he is in the world.

4 Little children ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Whereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue cometh of God, and euery one that loneth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loneth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 In this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the world, that wee might liue through him.

10 Wherein is loue, not that we loue God, but that he loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 No man hath seene God at any time, If wee loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Whereby know we that wee dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue seene and do testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to bee the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoever confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

ment, for as he is, euen so are we in this world.

18 There is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath painefulness, and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

Spirit, that beareth witness: for the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare record in the earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which hee testified of his Sonne.

10 Hee that beleeueth in the Sonne of God, hath the witness in himselfe: he that beleeueth not God, hath made him a liar, because he beleeued not the record, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the record, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life, and hee that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you that beleeue in the Name of his Sonne of God, that ye may know that ye haue eternall life, and that ye may beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance that we haue in him, that if we aske any thing according to his will he heareth vs.

15 And if we know that he heareth vs, whatlouer wee aske, wee know that wee haue the petitions that wee haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sinne that is not vnto death, let him aske, & he shal giue him life for them that sinne not vnto death. There is a sinne vnto death: I say not: that thou shouldst pray for it.

17 All vnrightheousnes is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We know that whosoener is borne of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himselfe, and the wicked toucheth him not.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lyeth in wickednesse.

20 But we know that the Sonne of God is come, and hath giuen vs a munda-to know him, which is true: and we are in him that is true, that is, in his Sonne Iesus Christ: this same is vnto God and eternall life.

that her children walke in the truth. 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue. 7 Warneth them to beware of such deceiuers as deny that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. 8 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ. 10 and to haue nothing to doe with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Saviour.

In the Elder to the elect Lady, and her children, whom I loue in the truth: and not I onely, but also all that haue known the truth,

2 For truths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord

Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with truth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I found of thy children, walking in truth, as wee haue receiued a commandment of the Father.

5 And now beleeue I thee Lady, (not as writing a new commandment vnto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that wee should walke after his commandments. This commandment is, that as yee haue heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entered into the world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a deceiuer and an Antichrist.

9 The holier transgresseth, & abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that continueth in doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.
10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not to house, neither bid him God speed.

11 For hee that biddeh him God speed, is partaker of his full heredes. Although I had many things to write unto you, yet would not write with paper and inke: but I trust to come unto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our joy may be full.

2 Beloued, I write chiefly that thou prosperest & farest well, as thy soule prospereth.

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy then this, that is, to heare that my sonnes walke in veritie.

5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully what-founer thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers.

6 Which bare witness of thy loue before the Churches, whom if thou bringest on their iourney, as it becometh according to God, thou shalt doe well.

7 Because that for his names sake they went forth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.

8 Wee therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrophes which loveth to haue the preeminence among them receiueh vs not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will declare his heredes which he doeth, prattling against vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith content, neither hee himselfe receiueh the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.

11 Beloued, follow not that which is euill, but that which is good: he that doth well, is of God: but he that doeth euill hath not seene God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth it selfe: yea, and wee our selves beare record, and yet know that our record is true.

13 I haue many things to write: but I will not with inke and pen write vnto thee.

The generall Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which goe about to draw away the hearts of of the simple people from the truth of God, and willet them to haue no societie with such, whom he setteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally, he comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

Iude a seruant of Iesus Christ, a brother of James, to them which are called and sanctified of God the Father, and reserved to Iesus Christ:

2 Mercy vnto you, and grace, and loue be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needfull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was once giuen vnto the Saints.

4 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of old ordained to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnes, and denie God the onely Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuch as ye once knew this, how that the Lord after that hee had deliuered the people out of Egypt, destroyed them afterward, which beferued not.

6 The Angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their owne habitation, be hath reserved in euelllasting chains vnder darkness vnto the iudgement of the great day.

7 As Sodome and Gomorthe, and the cities about them, which in like manner as they did, committed fornication, and followed strange flesh, are set forth for an example, and suffer the vengeance of eternall fire.

Which shew themselves dull and impudent. It is most like that this example was written in some of those bookes of the Scripture with are now lost, Numb. 21. 14. Iosh. 10. 13. 2. Chron. 9. 29. 1 In Zacharie 3. 2. Reuel. 1. 7. q This saying of Enoch might for the worthinesse thereof haue bene as a common saying among men of all times, or els haue bene written in some of those bookes which now remaine not: yet by the prouidence of God, so many are left as are able to instruct vs in the faith of Iesus Christ to saluation, Iohn 20. 31.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these dreames also defile the flesh, and deuide gouernment, and speake euill of them that are in authoritie.

9 Per Michael the Archangel, when he troone against the deuill, and disputed about the body of Moles, durst not blame him with euill speaking, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But their speake euill of those things which they know not: & whatsoever things they know naturally, as beasts which are without reason, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Alas be vnto them: for they haue followed the way of Cain, and are cast away by the deceit of Balaams wages, & perish in the gainesayings of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity when they feast with you, without all feare feeding themselves: clouds they are without water, caried about of windes, corrupt trees, and without fruit, twise dead, and plucked by by rootes.

13 They are the raging waues of the sea, foaming out their owne shame: they are wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blacknesse of darkenesse for euer.

14 And Enoch also the seventh from Adam prophesied of such, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with thousands of his Saints.

15 To giue iudgement against all men, and to rebuke all the vngodly among them of all their wicked deeds, which they haue vngodly committed, and of all their cruell speakings, which wicked sinners haue spoken against him.

The Reuelation of Iohn the Diuine.

THE ARGUMENT.

It is manifest that the holy Ghost would, as it were gather into this most excellent Booke, a summe of those propheties, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the coming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set forth the diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption, what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the Ministers, and what things he reproveth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sting like scorpions the members of Christ, shall bee destroyed. But the Lambe Christ shall defend them which beare witness to the truth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited, and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shall be destroyed by the wrath of God: when as the elect shall give praise to God for the victory: neuertheless for a season God will permit this Antichrist, and trumpet vnder color of faire speech, and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: wherefore he aduerteth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoid his harlots flatteries and brags, whose ruine without mercy they shall see, and with the heavenly companie sing continuall praises for the Lambe married: the word of God hath gotten the victory: Satan that a long time was vnited, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrariwise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enjoy perpetuall glory. Read diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof,

CHAP. III.

Hee exhorteth the Churches or ministers to the true profession of faith, and to watching. 12 With promises to them that perseuere.

And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Sardis, These things saith hee that hath the leuen spirits of God, and the leuen starres, I know thy workes: for thou hast a name that thou liuest, but thou art dead.
2 Be awaked and strengthen the things which remaine, that are ready to die: for I haue not found thy workes perfect before God.
3 Remember therefore, how thou hast receiued and heard, and holde fast, and repent. If therefore thou wilt not watch, name out of the Booke of life, but I will conferre his name before my Father, and be-

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

7 And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is of Philadelphia, These things sayeth hee that is Holy and True, which hath the key of David, which open-neth and no man shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth,

8 I know thy workes: behold, I haue set before thee an open doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which call themselves
Jewes, and are not, but doe lie: behold, I say, I will make them that they shall come and worship before thy feet, and shall know that I haue loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of temptation which will come vpon all the world, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Behold, I come shortly: hold that which thou hast, that no man take thy crowne.

12 Him that ouercometh, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and hee shall goe no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the Name of the citie of my God, which is the new Jerusalem, which commeth downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what
the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things sayeth Amen, the faithfull and true witness, the beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I know thy workes, that thou art neither cold nor hote: I would thou werest cold or hote.

16 Therefore, because thou art luke-warne, and neither cold nor hote, it will come to passe, that I shall spue thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and haue neede of nothing, and knowest not how thou art wretched, and miserable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buy of me gold tried by the fire, that thou mayest bee made rich, and white raiment, that thou mayest bee clothed, and that thy shewie nakednesse doe not appeare: and I will annoint thine eyes with eye salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therfore and amend.

20 Behold, I stand at the doore, and knocke. If any man heare my voyce and open the doore, I will come in vnto him, and will sup with him, and he with mee.

21 To him that ouercometh, will I graunt to sit with mee in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and sit with my Father in his throne.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

In my Father's will, and to be partaker of my heavenly ioyes.

CHAP. II.

The vision of the Maiestie of God. 2 He seeth the throne and one sitting vpon it, 8 and 24. seates about it with 24. Elders sitting vpon them, and foure beasts praising God day and night.

After this I looked, and beheld, a doore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with mee, saying, Come vp hither, and I will shew thee things which must bee done hereafter.

2 And immediately I was rauished in the spirit, and behold, a throne was set in heauen, and one sat vpon the throne.

3 And hee that sat, was to looke vpon like vnto a Iasper stone, and a Sardine, and there was a rainbow round about the throne in sight like an Emeraude.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heads crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundings, and voyces, and there were seuen lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto cristall: & in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne were foure beasts full of eyes before and behynde.

7 And the first beast was like a lyon, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Eagle.

8 And the foure beasts had each one of them six wings about him: and they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and which is,
and which is to come.

9 And when those beasts gaue glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

10 The foure and twentie Elders fell downe before him that sat on the throne, and worshipped him, that liueth for euermore, and cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

CHAP. V.

1 Hee seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 8. 14 And therefore the foure beasts, the 14 Elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and doe him worship, 9 For their redemption and other benefits.

a A similitude taken of earthly princes, which iudge by bookes and writings, and hereit doth signifie all the counsels and iudgements of God, which are onely known to Christ the soune of Dauid, verse 5.
b That is many. Gen. 49. 9.

And I saw in the right hand of him that satte vpon the throne, a Booke written within, and on the backside sealed with 7 seuen scales,

2 And I sawe a strong Angel, which preached with a loud voyce, Alho is worthy to open the Booke, and to loofe the scales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the Booke neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders sayd vnto mee, Weepe not: behold, the * Lyon which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obtained to open the Booke, and to loofe the seauen scales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beasts, and in the middes of the Elders, stood a * Lambe, as though hee had beene killed, which had 7 liuen hoornes, and 7 seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came, and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that satte vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the Booke, the foure beasts, and the foure and twentie Elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the 8 prayers of Saints.

9 And they sung a newe song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the scales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood, out of euery kinred, and tongue, and people and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our God * Kings and Priests, and we shall reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beasts and the Elders, and there were * thousand thousands.

12 Saying with a loud voyce, Alworthy is the * Lambe that was killed, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praise.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them heard I saying, Praise, and honour, and glory, and power bee vnto him that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts said, Amen, and the foure and twenty Elders fel downe, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

The lambe openeth the six scales, and many things follow the opening thereof, so that this containeth a general prophesie to the end of the world.

After, I beheld when the Lambe had opened one of the scales, & I heard one of the foure beasts say, as it were the * voyse, of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and loe, there was a * white horse, and he that satte on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering, that he might ouercome.

3 And when hee had opened the second scale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was * red, and power was giuen to him that satte thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when hee had opened the third scale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, a * blacke horse, and he that satte on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beasts say, A * measure of wheate for a peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when hee had opened the fourth scale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a * pale horse, and his name that satte on him, was Death, and Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when hee had opened the 5 fifth scale, I saw vnder the altar the * soules of them that were killed for the word of God, and for the testimonie which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loud voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true doest thou iudge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was said vnto them, that they should rest for a little season, vntill their fellow seruants, and their brethren that should bee killed such as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when hee had opened the first scale, and loe, there was a great * earthquake, and the * sonne was as blacke as * sackcloth of hatre, and the * moone was like blood.

a The opening of the scale is the declaration of Gods will, and the executing of his iudgements, b Signifying, that there were marueilous things to come c The white horse signifieth innocencie, victory, and felicity, which should come by the preaching of the Gospel. d He that rideth on the white horse, is Christ. e Signifying the cruel waire that ensued when the Gospel was refused. f Who was Satan. g This signifieth an extreame famine and want of all things, h The Greeke word signifieth that measure which was ordinarily giuen to seruants for their portion or stint of meate for one day. i Which amounted to about foure pence halfe peny. k Whereby is meant sicknesse, plagues, pestilence, and death of man & beast. l Or, the grass. m The continuall persecution of the Church noted by the fifth scale. n The soules of the Saints are vnder the altar, which is Christ, meaning that they are in his safe custodie in the heauens. o Which signifieth the change of the true doctrine which is the greatest cause of motions, and troubles that come to the world. p That is, the brightnesse of the Gospel. q The traditions of men. r The Church miserably d. faced with idolatry, and afflicted by tyrants,

Such men afterward, of what estate soeuer they be, shall be desperate, and not able to sustaine the weight of Gods wrath, but shall continually feare his iudgements.

23 And the starres of heauen fell vnto the earth as a figtree casteth her Greene figs when it is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And heauen departed away, as a scrole when it is rolled, and euery mountaine and yle were mooued out of their places.

15 And the Kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaines, and the mightie men, and euery bondman, and euery freeman hid themselves in dens, and among the rocks of the mountaines.

16 And said to the mountaines & rocks, Fall on vs, and hide vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe.

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

CHAP. VII.

4. 9 These seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheads: out of all nations and people, 15 which though they suffer trouble yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaines of liuing water, 17 and God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

a The Spirit is compared to wind, & the doctrine also: and though there be one spirit, & one doctrine, yet foure are here named in respect of the diuersitie of the foure quarters of the earth where the Gospel is spread, and for the foure writers thereof and the preachers of the same through the whole word.

b Meaning, the men of the earth.

c That is the ylands.

d Signifying, all men in general, who can no more liue without this spiritual doctrine, then trees can blossom and beare, except the winde blow vpon them, Or, Christ. e God preuenteth the dangers and euils, which otherwise would ouerwhelme the elect. f Those that are sealed by the spirit of God, and marked with the blood of the Lamb, & lightened in faith by the word of God, so that they make open profession of the same, are exempted from euill. g Though that this blindness be brought into the world by the malice of Satan, yet the mercies of God reserue to himselfe an infinite number which shalbe saved both of the Iewes & Gentiles, through Christ. h He committeth Dan, and putteth Leui in, whereby he meaneth the twelue tribes.

And after that, I saw foure Angels, holding the foure winds of the earth, that the winds should not blow on the earth, neither on the sea, neither on any tree.

2 And I saw another Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loud voyce to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea.

3 Saying, Hurt yee not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till wee haue sealed the seruants of our God in their forehead.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed, and there were sealed an hundred and foure and forty thousand of all the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephtali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Siméon were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Machar were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After these things I behelde, and loe, a great number, which no man could number, of all nations, and kinreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long white robes, and palmes in their handes.

10 And they cryed with a lowde voyce, saying, Saluation cometh of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the Elders, and the foure beastes, and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God.

12 Saying, Amen. Praise and glory, and wisdom, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might be vnto our God for euer more, Amen.

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto mee, What are these which are arrayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I sayd vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he sayd to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of God, and serue him day and night in his Temple, and he that sitteth on the throne, will dwell among them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sunne light on them, neither any heate.

17 For the Lambe, which is in the midst of the throne, shall gouerne them, and shall leade them vnto the liuely fountaines of waters, and God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The seventh seale is opened: there is silence in heauen. 6 The foure Angels blow their trumpets, and great plagues follow vpon the earth.

And when hee had opened the seventh seale, there was silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

2 And I sawe the seuen Angels, which stood before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

3 Then another Angel came & stood before the Altar hauing a golden censur, and what troubles, sects, and heresies haue bene and shalbe brought into the Church thereby. b That the hearers might be more rentine. c He sheweth the onely remedie in our affliction, to wit to appeare before the face of God by the meanes of Iesus Christ who is the Angel, the Sacrifice, and the Priest which presenteth prayers which remaine yet in earth before the Altar and diuine Maestie of God.

much odours was giuen vnto him, that hee should offer with the prayers of all Saintes vpon the golden Altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, went before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with fire of the Altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundings, and lightnings, & earthquake.

6 Then the seven Angels, which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and all greene grass was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the thirde part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre, from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called Wormewood: therefore the thirde part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the Sunne was smitten, and the third part of the Moone, and the third part of the Starres, so that the third part of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angel, flying through the middes of heauen, saying with a loude voyce, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpets.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first and sixth Angel blow their trumpets: the starre falleth from heauen. 3 The locusts come out of the smoke. 12 The first woe is past. 14 The four Angels that were bound, are loosed, 18 and the third part of men is killed.

And the first Angel blew the trumpet, and I saw a starre which was fallen from heauen into the earth, and he gave water vnto all the beasts of the field.

2 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pitte, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sunne and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commaunded them, that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but only those men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commaunded that they should not kill them, but that they should bee vexed sixe moneths, and that their paine should bee as the paine that cometh of a scorpion, when hee hath stung a man.

6 Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the forme of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heads were as it were crowns like vnto golde, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the haire of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had habergions, like to habergions of yron: and the sound of their wings was like the sound of charrets when many horses runne vnto battell.

Which signifieth the hardness of heart, and obstination in their errors, with their assurance vnder the protection of worldly princes.

For as though they had wings, so are they lifted vp above the common sort of men, and esteemed most holy, and doe all things with rage and fiercenesse.

To infect and kill with their venomous doctrine.

x Which is Antichrist the Pope, king of hypocrites, and Satans ambassadour.

y That is, destroyer: for Antichrist the sonne of perdition destroyeth mens soules with false doctrine, and the whole world with fire and sword.

z Which was the voyce of Christ, sitting on the right hand of the Father, a Meaning, the enemies of the East countrey, which should afflict the Church of God, as did the Arabians, Saracens, Turke, and Tartarians.

b This signifieth the great readiness of the enemies.

c Which signifieth their false doctrine and hypocrisie.

d And therefore were iustly destroyed.

Phil. 115.4. and 135.15.

is the Angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, & in Grecke he is named Apollyon.

12 One wor is past, and behold, yet two woes come after this.

13 Then the first Angel blew the trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four corners of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the first Angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four Angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an houre, at a day, at a moneth, and at a yeere, to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twentie thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and them that sat on them, having fiery habergeons, & of Jacinth, and of hyacinth, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: and out of their mouthes went forth fire and smoke, and hyacinth.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, & of the smoke, and of the hyacinth which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouthes, and in their talles: for their talles were like unto serpents, and had heads wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, repented not of the workes of their handes that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, neither goe.

21 Also they repented not of their murder, and of their sorcery, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAP. X.

1 The Angel hath the booke open. 6 Hee sweareth there shall be no more time. 9 Hee giveth the booke unto Iohn, which eateth it up.

And I saw another mighty Angel come downe from heaven clothed with a cloud, and the rainebow vpon his head, and his face was as the sunne, and his feete as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little booke open, and he put his right foote vpon the sea, and his left on the earth,

3 And cried with a loude voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voyces.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voice from heaven, saying vnto me, Seale by those things which the seven thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I saw stand by the sea, & vpon the earth, lift up his hand to heauen,

6 And I ware by him that liueth for evermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, & the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which therein are, that time should bee no more.

7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the seventh Angel, when he shall begin to blow the trumpet, euen the mystery of God shall be finished, as hee hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto me againe, & said, Goe and take the little Booke which is open in the hand of the Angel, which standeth vpon the sea, and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and said to him, Giue me the little booke. And he said vnto me, Take it, and eate it up, & it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall bee in thy mouth as sweete as honey.

10 Then Iooke the little Booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it up, and it was in my mouth as sweete as honey: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said vnto me, Thou must prophesie againe among the people, and nations, and tongues, and to many kings.

12 And he said vnto me, Write these things, & send them vnto the church.

13 And Iohn sayeth, These things are the word of God, yet shall hee haue sore and grievous enemies, which shall be troublesome vnto him. q Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this Booke after his death should bee as a preaching vnto all nations.

CHAP. XI.

2 The Temple is measured. 3 Two witnesses raised by the Lord, are murdered by the beast, 11 but after receiued to glory. 15 Christ exalted, 16 and God prayed by the foure and twenty Elders.

Ihen was giuen mee a reede, like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise and mete the Temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the Temple, cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy Citie shall they tread vnder foote two and forty moneths.

3 But I will giue power vnto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a temple was diuided into three parts: the body of the Temple which is called the Court, whereinto euery man entred: the holy places, where the Leuites were: and the holiest of all, whereinto the high Priest once a yeere entred: in respect therefore of these two later, the first is said to be cast out because as a thing prophane it is neglected when the temple is measured, & yet the aduersaries of Christ boast that they are in the temple, & that none are of the temple but they.

c That is, the Church of God. d Meaning a certain time: for God hath limited the times of Antichrists tyranny. e By two witnesses hee meaneth all the preachers that should build vp Gods Church, alluding to Zerubbabel and Iehoshua, which were chiefly appointed for this thing, and also to this saying, In the mouth of two witnesses standeth euery word.

i That is, by God, with whom Christ by his divinitie is equall.

k The faithfull shall vnderstand and see this mystery of the last iudgement, the damnation of Antichrist and infidels, and also the glory of the iust at the resurrection.

l As S. Iohn vnderstood this by revelation, so is the same revealed to the true preachers to discover the Pope and Antichrist.

m Meaning, Christ. n That is, the holy Scriptures, which declare that the Minister must receive them at the hand of God, before he can preach them to others. Ezek. 3.1. o Which signifieth that the Ministers ought to receive the word into their hearts, and to haue graue and deepe iudgement, and diligently to study it, & with zeale to viter it.

p Signifying, that albeit that the minister haue consolation by the word of God, yet shall hee haue sore and grievous enemies, which shall be troublesome vnto him.

q Which declareth that Christ Iesus will build his Church, and not haue it destroyed: for he measureth out his spirituall Temple.

b The fewest

f Signifying a certaine time: for when God giueth strength to his ministers, their persecutions seeme as it were but for a day or two.

g In poore and simple apparell. h Whereby are signified the excellent graces of them which beare witness to the Gospel. i Who hath dominion ouer the whole earth. k By Gods word, whereby his ministers discomfite the enemies. l They denounce Gods iudgement against the wicked, that they cannot enter into heauen.

m Which is to declare and procure Gods vengeance.

n That is, the Pope, which hath his power out of hell, and commeth thence.

o Hee sheweth how the Pope gaineth the victory, not by Gods word, but by cruell warre.

p Meaning, the whole iurisdiction of the Pope, which is compared to Sodome for their abominable sinne, and to Egypt, because the true liberty to serue God, is taken away from the faithfull, and Christ was condemned by Pilate, who represented the Romane power, which should bee enemy to the godly. q The infidels are tormented by hearing the truth preached. r Which shall bee at the last resurrection.

s For it seemed that Antichrist had chased them out of the earth. t Of the power of Antichrist. u When they shall vnderstand by Gods word the glory of his, and the punishment of his enemies, they shall fall from the Pope, and glorifie God. x Albeit Satan by the Pope, Turke and other instruments troubleth the world neuer so much, yet Christ shall reigne. y Iesus Christ.

z This declareth the office of the godly, which is to giue God thanks for the deliuerance of his, and to praye his iustice for punishing of his enemies.

thousand two hundred & threescore dayes, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are two ^b Olive trees, and two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man wil hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: for if any man would hurt them, ^k thus must he be killed.

6 These haue power to shut ^l heauen, that it raine not in the daies of their prophesying, and haue power ouer waters to turne them into ^m blood, and to smite the earth with all manner plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue finished their testimony, the ⁿ beast that cometh out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall ^o overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their corpses shall lie in the streetes of the great ^p city, which spiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds, and tongues, and Gentiles shall see their corpses three dayes and an halfe, and shall not suffer their carkeises to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, shall reioyce ouer them, and be glad, and shall send giftes one to another: for these two Prophets vexed them that dwell on the earth.

11 But after three dayes and an halfe, the spirit of life coming from God, shall enter into them, and they shall stand vp vpon their feete: and great feare shall come vpon them which saw them.

12 And they shall heare a great voice from heauen, saying vnto them, Come vp hither. And they shall ascend vnto heauen in a cloud, and their enemies shall see them.

13 And the same houre shall there bee a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie shall fall, and in the earthquake shall be slaine in number senen thousand: and the remnant shall be afraid, and giue glory to the God of heauen.

14 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe will come anon.

15 And the seventh Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauen, saying, The ^x kingdomes of this world are our Lords, and his Christes, and hee shall reigne for euermore.

16 Then the foure and twentie Elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped ^y God,

17 Saying, We giue thee thanks, Lord

God Almighty, which art, and which wast, and which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtained thy kingdom.

18 And the Gentiles were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should bee iudged, and that thou shouldst giue reward vnto thy seruants the Prophets, and to the Saints, and to them that feare thy name, to small and great, and shouldst destroy them, which destroy the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was seene in his Temple the arke of his covenant: and there were ^a lightnings, and voyces, and thundrings, and earthquake, and much haile.

a Which signifie the destruction of the enemies.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victorie is gotten, to the comfort of the faithfull.

And there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A ^a woman clothed with the sunne, and the ^b moone was vnder her feete, and vpon her head a ^c Crowne of twelue starres.

2 And shee was with childe, and ^d cryed traouling in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for behold, a great ^e red dragon hauing ^f seven heads, and ten hornes, and seven crownes vpon his heads:

4 And his taile drew the ^g third part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth, and the Dragon stood before the woman, which was ready to bee deliuered, to deuoure her childe when shee had brought it forth.

5 So shee brought forth a ^h man childe, which should rule all nations with a ⁱ rod of iron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into ^j wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feede her there a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen, Michael and his Angels fought against the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his angels.

8 But they preuailed not, neither was their place found any more in ^k heauen.

9 And the great Dragon that olde Serpent, called the Deuil and Satan, was cast out, which deceiveth all the world: he was the blood of the faithfull. f For he is prince of this world, and almost hath the vniuersall gouernment. g By his flatteries and promises he gaineth many of the excellent ministers & honourable persons, and bringeth them to destruction. h Which is Iesus Christ the first borne among many brethren, who was borne of the virgin Marie, as of a speciall member of the Church. 10 Then I heard a loud voyce, saying, Now is salvation in heauen, and strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the word of their testimony, and they loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and yet that dwell in them. Alloe to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that hee hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that hee was cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man child.

14 But to the woman were giuen two wings of a great Eagle, that shee might flie into the wilderness, into her place, where shee is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that hee might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandments of God, and haue the testimony of Iesus Christ.

18 And I stood on the sea sand.

CHAP. XIII.

1. 8 The beast descendeth the reprobate. 2. 4. 12 And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The primedged of the beasts marke.

And I saw a beast rise out of the Sea, hauing seven heads, and ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were ten crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I saw, was like a Leopard, and his ferte like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gaue him his power, & his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, but his deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the Dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him to doe two and forty moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make war with the Saines, and to ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery king, and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie, hee shall goe into captiuitie: if any kill with a sword, hee must be killed by a sword: here is the patience, and the faith of the Saines.

11 And I beheld another beast coming vp out of the earth which had two hornes like the Lambe but hee spake like the dragon.

12 And hee did all that the first beast could doe before him, and hee caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And hee did great wonders, so that hee made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth in the sight of men.

14 And hee deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the image of the beast, which had the wound of a sword, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should speake, and should cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

16 And he made all, both small and great, rich and poore, free and bond, to receiue two swords caried before him. So Boniface the eighth which first ordained the tubile, shewed himselfe one day in apparell as a Pope, and the next day in harnesse as the Emperour, and the two hornes in the Bishops mitre are signes hereof.

b Meaning Rome, because it was first gouerned by seven Kings or Emperours after Nero, and also is compassed about with seven mountaines.

c Which signifie many prouinces.

b Meaning, a great, and ample Church.

c Which was the marke of their election, to wit, their faith.

d Signifying that the number of the Church should be great and that they should speake boldly, and aloud, and so glorifie the Lord.

e None can praise God but the elect whom he hath bought. f By whose dome: and vnder this vice he comprehendeth all other: but this is chiefly meant of idolatry, which is the spirituall whoredome. g For their whole delight is in the Lambe Iesus, & they loue none but him. h Which declareth that the faithfull ought to liue iustly and holily, that they may be the first fruits, and an excellent offering of the Lord. i Forasmuch as their sinnes are pardoned, and they are clad with the iustice of Christ. k By this Angel are meant the true ministers of Christ which preach the Gospel faithfully.

8 And there followed another Angel, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie: for shee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third Angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine, which is powred into the cup of his wrath, and hee shall bee tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe:

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiue the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of Saints: here are they that keepe the commandments of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voice from heauen, saying vnto me, Write, Blessed are the dead, which hereafter die in the Lord. Euen so saith the spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their works follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold, a white cloude, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloude, Thrust in thy sickle, and reape: for the time is come to reape: for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloude, thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the Temple which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the altar, which had power ouer fire, and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharpe sickle, and said, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

3 And they sung the song of Moses the seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great and maruelous are thy works Lord God Almighty: iust and true are thy wayes, king of Saints.

4 Who shal not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy name? for thou onely art holy, and all nations shal come and worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and beheld, the Temple of the tabernacle of testimony was open in heauen.

6 And the seven Angels came out of the temple, which had the seven plagues, clothed in pure and bright linnen, and hauing their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the foure beasts came vnto the seven Angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liueth for euer more.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God, and of his power, and no man was able to enter into the Temple, till the seven plagues of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

2 The Angels pour out their vials full of wrath, 6 And what plagues follow thereof. 15 Admonition to take heede and watch.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seven Angels, Doe your wayes, and power out the seven vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first went, and powred out his viall vpon the earth: and there fell a noyesome and grievous soze vpon the men, a This was like the first plague of Egypt, which was sores and boiles, or pocks: and this reigneth commonly among Canons, Monks, Friers, Nunnes, Priests, and such filthy vermin which beare the marke of the beast, which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel powred out his viall vpon the Sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and euery liuing thing died in the Sea.

4 And the third Angel powred out his viall vpon the rivers and fountaines of waters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the waters say, Lord, thou art iust, which art, and which wast, and holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuary say, Euen so, Lord, God Almighty, true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his viall on the Sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with a heate of fire.

9 And men boyled in great heate, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power ouer their plagues, and they repented not to giue him glory.

10 And the fifth Angel powred out his viall vpon the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darked, and they gnawed their tongues for sorrow,

11 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their sores, and repented not of their works.

12 And the sixth Angel powred out his viall vpon the great river Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of the Kings of the East should bee prepared.

13 And I sawe three vncleane spirits like frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of deuils, working miracles, to goe vnto the Kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, I come as a thiefe. Blessed is hee that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest hee walke naked, and men see his filthinesse.

16 And they gathered them together into a shew their furie, rage and blasphemie against God, when the light of his Gospel shall shine.

1 By Euphrates which was the strength of Babylon, is meant the riches, strength, pleasures and commodities of Rome the second Babylon, which the faithfull, which are the true Kings and Priests in Christ, haue taken away by disclosing their wicked deceit. m That is, a strong number of this great deuill the Popes ambassadours, which are euery crying and croaking like frogges, and come out of Antichrists mouth, because they should speake nothing but lies, and vse all manner of craftie deceit to maintaine their rich Euphrates against the true Christians. n Albeit they call themselves spiritual and holy fathers. o For in all Kings courts the Pope hath had his ambassadours to hinder the kingdom of Christ. Chap. 3.3 matth. 24.24. Luke 21.39. p Of righteousness, and holiness, wherewith we are clad through Iesus Christ.

b This is like to the first plague of Egypt, which signifieth all kinds of pestilences and contagious diseases. c That is, corrupt, and infected. d The first plague of Egypt was like vnto this, e He bringeth forth these two Angels: the one which is gouernour of the waters, and the other from vnder the altar, as witnesses and commanders of Gods iust iudgements. f Forasmuch as thou destroyest the rebels, and preferest a thine. g Signifying famine, drought, and hote diseases which proceed thereof. h The wicked were hard hearted, and stubborn when the God punished them. i This answereth to the ninth plague of Egypt, which signifieth that the Popes doctrine is an horrible plague of God, which keepeth men still in darkness, ignorance and errors.

k They shall shew their furie, rage and blasphemie against God, when the light of his Gospel shall shine. l By Euphrates which was the strength of Babylon, is meant the riches, strength, pleasures and commodities of Rome the second Babylon, which the faithfull, which are the true Kings and Priests in Christ, haue taken away by disclosing their wicked deceit. m That is, a strong number of this great deuill the Popes ambassadours, which are euery crying and croaking like frogges, and come out of Antichrists mouth, because they should speake nothing but lies, and vse all manner of craftie deceit to maintaine their rich Euphrates against the true Christians. n Albeit they call themselves spiritual and holy fathers. o For in all Kings courts the Pope hath had his ambassadours to hinder the kingdom of Christ. his viall into the aire: & there came a loud voyce out of the Temple of heauen from the throne, saying, it is done.

18 And there were voyces, and thunderings, & lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mighty an earthquake.

19 And the great citie was diuided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and great Babylon came in re-membrence before God to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fled away, and the mountaines were not found.

21 And there fell a great haile, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the haile: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

3 The description of the great whore, & Her sin and punishment. 14 The victory of the Lambe.

Then there came one of the seven Angels, which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come, I will shew thee the damnation of the great whore that sitteth vpon many waters,

2 With whom haue committed fornication the kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wildernesse in the Spirit, and I saw a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, which had seven heads and ten hornes.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and gilded with gold, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of gold in her hand, full of abominations, and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, A mystery, great Babylon, the mother of whoresomes, and abominations of the earth.

9 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of Saints, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I saw her,
I wondered with great marueile.

7 Then the Angel said vnto me, wherefore maruest thou? I will shew thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seven heads, and ten hornes.

f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with the whole Body of his filthy creatures, as is expounded, verse 18. whose beauty only standeth in outward pompe and impudencie, and craft like a strumpet. g Of false doctrines and blasphemies. h Which none can know to auoyd, but the elect.

8 The beast that thou hast seene, was,
and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder, (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the minde that hath wisdom.
The seven heads are seven mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also seven kings.

10 Five are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a short space:

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the eighth, and is one of the seven, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shall receiue power, as kings at one houre with the beast.

13 These haue one mind, and shall giue their power and authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And hee said vnto mee, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the tenne hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to doe with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the kings of the earth.

the whore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people

And after these things, I saw another Angel come down from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cryed out mightily with a loud voyce, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Ba-tation of devils, and the hold of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery vnclane and hate-

c The greatest part of world hath bene abused and seduced by this spirituall whoredome, d When God treateth the wicked, he neuer comforteth and counselleth his what they ought to doe, that is, that they do not communicate with the finnes of the wicked.

e The Greeke word is, that her finnes to follow one another, and to rise one after another, that they growe to such an heape, that at length they touch the very heauens. f Blessed is he that can repay to the whore the like, as it is written: Psal. 137. 8, 9 1/a. 47. 8.

g The glorious boasting of the strumpet.

h Burfull of people and mighty.

i Both they that temporally haue had profit by the strumpet, & also the spirituall merchants shall for sorrow and want of their gaine, cry out and despaire. k Which is very odoriferous and precious.

l Such as the wantons vse at Rome.

m This is the vilest ware, that these merchants sell, & best cheap, which soules not withstanding the Son of God redeemed with his precious blood, 1. Pet. 1. 19.

n That is, the things which thou loudest best.

o And so shew signes of great sorrow.

3 For all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, & the marchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, "Goe out of her my people, that ye bee not partakers in her finnes, and that ye receive not of her plagues."

5 For her finnes are come vnto heauen, & God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her, enen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: and in the cup that shee hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 In as much as shee glorified her selfe, and lived in pleasure to much giue you to her torment & sorrow: for she saith in her heart, "I sit being a queene, and am no widow, and shall see no mourning."

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death and sorrow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condempne her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and lived in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

10 And shall stand a farre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mighty citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and waille ouer her: for no man buyeth her ware any more.

12 The ware of gold and silver, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linnen, and of purple, and of silke, and of scarlet, and of all manner of Cygne wood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, & of yron, and of marble,

13 And of cynamom, and odours, and of opincents, and frankincense, and wine, and oyle, and fine floure, and wheat, and beastes, and sheepe, and hoxles, and charrets, and seruants, and soules of men.

14 (And the apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, & thou shalt finde them no more.)

15 The merchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stand a farre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wailing.

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linnen, and purple, and scarlet, and gilded with gold, and precious stone and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, and all the people that occupy shippes, and shipmen, and whosoever traualle on the sea, shall stand a farre off,

18 And cry, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shall cast dust on their heads, and cry weeping, & wailing, and say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made rich all that had shippes on the sea by her commerce: for in one houre shee is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her. and ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mighty Angel tooke vp a stone, like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, "With such violence shall the great citie Babylon be cast, & shall be found no more."

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters shall be heard no more in thee, and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee, and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more in thee: & the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantments were deceived all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praises are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for auenging the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

After these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, "Halleluiah, saluation, and glory, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God."

2 For true and righteous are his iudgements: for hee hath condemned the great whore which did corrupt the earth with her fornication and hath auenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

3 And againe they said, Halleluiah: and her smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the four and twenty Elders, and the four beasts fel downe, and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, "Amen Halleluiah."

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both small and great."

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thundrings, saying, "Halleluiah, for our Lord God Almighty hath reigned."

7 Let vs bee glad and reioyce, and giue glory to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made her selfe ready.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed with pure fine linnen, and shining: for the fine linnen is the righteousness of Saints.

9 Then hee said vnto mee, "Write, Blessed are they which are called vnto the a That is, praise ye God because the Antichrist and all wickednesse is taken out of the world.

b So that all the Saints are confirmed, and ought nothing to doubt of the saluation of the faithfull.

c The wicked shall be burned in continual fire, that neuer shall be extinguished.

d By the foure beasts are meant all creatures.

Lambes supper, and he said vnto me, These words of God are true.

10 And I fell before his feet to worship him: but he sayd vnto me, See thou doe it not: I am thy fellow seruant, and one of thy brethren, which haue the testimony of Iesus. Worship God: for the testimony of Iesus, is the spirit of prophesie.

11 And I saw heauen open, and behelde, a white horse, and hee that sat vpon him, was called Faithfull and true, and hee iudgeth and fighteth righteously.

12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crownes: and he had a name written, that no man knew but himselfe.

13 And he was clothed with a garment dipped in blood, and his name is called THE WORD OF GOD.

14 And the warriors which were in heauen, followed him vpon white horses, clothed with fine linnen white and pure.

15 And out of his mouth went out a sharpe sword, that with it hee should smite the heathen: for hee shall rule them with a rod of iron: for hee is that treadeth the wine presse of the fiercenesse and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And hee hath vpon his garment, and vpon his thigh a name written, THE KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I sawe an Angel stand in the sunne, who cryed with a loude voyce, saying to all the foules that did flie by the middes of heauen, Come and gather you selues together vnto the supper of the great God.

18 That yet may eate the flesh of kings and the flesh of his captaines, and the flesh of mightie men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that lye on them, and the flesh of all freemen and bondmen, and of small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and they warriors gathered together to make battell against him, that sat on the horse, and against his soldiers.

20 But the beast was taken, and with him that false prophet that wrought miracles before him, whereby hee deceiued them that receiued the beasts marke, and them that worshipped his image. These both were alive cast into a lake of fire brenting with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sitteth vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth, and all the foules were filled full with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan being bound for a certaintime, 7 And after let loose, vexeth the Church grievously. 10. 14. And after the world is iudged, he and his are cast into the lake of fire.

And I saw an Angel come down from heauen, hauing the key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And heooke the dragon that old serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and he bound him a thousand yeres,

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed the doore vpon him, that he should deceiue the people no more, till the thousand yeres were fulfilled: for after that hee must bee loosed for a little season.

4 And I saw seates: and they sat vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them, and I saw the soules of them that were beheaded for the witnesse of Iesus, and for the word of God, and which did not worship the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their hands: and they liued, and reigned with Christ a thousand yeres.

5 But the rest of the dead men shal not liue againe vntill the thousand yeres be finished: this is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is hee that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the second death hath no power: but they shall bee the Priestes of God and of Christ, and shall reigne with him a thousand yeres.

7 And when the thousand yeres are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall goe out to deceiue the people which are in the foure quarters of the earth: euen Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went vp into the plaine of the earth, which compassed the tentes of the Saints about, and the beloued city, but fire came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them.

10 And the deuill that deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet shall be tormented euery day and night for euermore.

Chap. 1. 8.

and 22. 13.

f I that am the eternall life will giue vnto mine to drinke of the liuely waters of this euerlasting life. g They which feare man more then God: h They which mocke and iest at religion: i Meaning the Church, which is married to Christ by faith. k By this description is declared the incomprehensible excellencie, which the heavenly company do enioy. l It is said to come downe from heauen because all the benefits that the Church hath, they acknowledge it to come of God through Christ.

A And I saw a new heauen, and a new earth: for the first heauen, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy Citie new Ierusalem come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heauen, saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shall be their God with them.

4 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, neither crying, neither shall there be any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that sat vpon the throne, said, Behold, I make all things new: and he said vnto me, Write: for these words are faithful and true.

6 And he said vnto me, It is done, I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end: I will giue to him that is athirst, of the well of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh, shall inherite all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my sonne.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieuing, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, & sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall haue their part in the lake which burneth with fire & brimstone, which is the second death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with mee, saying, Come, I will shew thee the bride, the Lambe's wife.

10 And he caried me away in the spirit to a great and an high mountain, and he shewed me the great Citie, holy Ierusalem, descending out of heauen from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a Jasper stone, cleare as Chrysell.

12 And had a great wall and tic, and had twelue gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names written, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 In the East part there were three gates, and on the South side three gates, on the South side three gates, and on the West side three gates.

14 And the wall of the Citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden seed to measure the city withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay fouresquare, and the length is as the breadth of it, and hee measured the citie with the reed, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred, forty and foure cubits, by the measure of man: that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Iasper: and the citie was pure gold, like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was Iasper: the second of Saphir: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emerald:

20 The fifth of a Sardonie: the sixth of a Sardinus: the seventh of a Chrysolite: the eighth of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaz: the tenth of a Chrysopallus: the eleventh of a Iacinth: the twelfth of an Amethyst.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euery gate is of one perle, and the street of the citie is pure gold, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 And the citie hath no neede of the sunne, neither of the moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 And the people which are saved, shall walke in the light of it: and the Kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour vnto it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glory and honox of the Gentiles shall be brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none thing cleane, neither whatsoeuer worke is abomination or lies: but they which are written in the Lambes booke of life.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The fruitfulnesse and the light of the citie of God. 3 The Lord giueth his seruants warning of his iusto come. 4 The Angel will not be worshipped. 5 To the word of God may nothing be added, nor diminished th. 2. from.

m Ever greene and flourishing. n Signifying, that the faithfull shall all be surely kept in heauen. o That is, place enough to enter: for els we know there is but one way & one gate, euen Iesus Christ. p For the Apostles were means whereby Iesus Christ the true foundation was revealed to the world.

q This declareth that Christ is God inseparable with his Father. Isa. 60. 19.

Isa. 60. 3. 5. r There we see in infinite other places, kings & princes contrary to that wicked opinion of the Anabaptists: are partakers of the heavenly glory, if they rule in the feare of the Lord. Isa. 60. 11. Phil. 4. 3. cap. 3. 5. and 20. 13.

And

^a Healludech to the visible Paradise, to set forth more sensibly the spiritual: and this agreeth with that which is written, Ezek. 47.1.

^b Meaning, that Christ who is the life of his Church is common to all his, & not peculiar for any one sort of people, ^c For there are all things pleasant and full of all contentation continually.

^d Which sometime were vnpure as Gentiles, but now are purged and made whole by Christ.

^e The light shall be vnchangeable and shine for ever.

^f Chap. 19. 10.

^g Now this is the second time that he suffered himself to be caried away with the excellencie of the person, which is to admonish vs of our infirmity and readinesse to fall, except God strengthen vs miraculously with his spirit.

^h This is not then as the other propheties which were commanded to be hid till the time appointed, as in Daniel 12. 4. because that these things should be quickly accomplished, and did now begin.

After he shewed me a pure river of water of life cleare as cristall, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.

² In the ^b midnes of the streete of it, and of either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bare twelue manner of fruites, and gaue fruit euer^c moneth: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale the ^d nations with.

³ And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shalbe in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

⁴ And they shall see his face, & his name shalbe in their foreheads.

⁶ And he said vnto me, These words are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

⁷ Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the words of the prophetie of this booke.

⁸ And I am John, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seent, I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angel, which shewed me these things.

⁹ But hee said vnto me, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the words of this booke: worship God.

¹⁰ And he said vnto me, Seale not the words of the Prophecie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

¹¹ He that is vnjust, let him be vnjust still and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

¹² And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, to giue eueri man according as his worke shall be.

¹³ I am ^a Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

¹⁴ Blessed are they that do his commandments, that their right may be in the tree of life, and may enter in thorow the gates into the citie.

¹⁵ For without shalbe dogs and enchanterers, and whozeinongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loueth, or maketh ^b lies.

¹⁶ I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the roote and the ^c generation of Dauid, and the bright morning ^d starre.

¹⁷ And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come: and let him that is ^e athirst, come: and ^f let whosoever will, take of the water of life freely.

¹⁹ And if any man shall diminish of the words of the booke of this prophecie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, & from those things which are written in this booke.

²⁰ He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Euen so come Lord Iesus.

²¹ The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

^p Seeing the Lord is at hand, we ought to be constant and reioyce, but we must beware we esteeme not the length or shortnesse of the Lords coming by our owne imagination, 1. Pet. 3. 9. This declareth the earnest desire that the faithfull haue to be deliuered out of these miseries, and to be ioyned with their head Christ Iesus,

Rom 1. 6. 1/a. 4. 1. 4. and 44. 6. chap. 1. 8. and 21. 6.

^a They shall liue eternally with ^b Sonne of God.

^c That maintaine false doctrine, & delight therein.

^d That is, a true and natural man, and yet God equall with my Father.

^e For Christ is the light that giueth light to eueri one that cometh into this world.

^f Let them be afraid of Gods horrible iudgements, and as soone as they heare the Lambe call, let them come.

^g He that seeleth himselfe oppressed with afflictions, and desireth the heauely graces and comfort, 1/a. 55. 1.

^h That is, when God beginneth to reforme our will by his spirit. Deut 4. 2. & 12. 32. psal 30. 6.
